In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

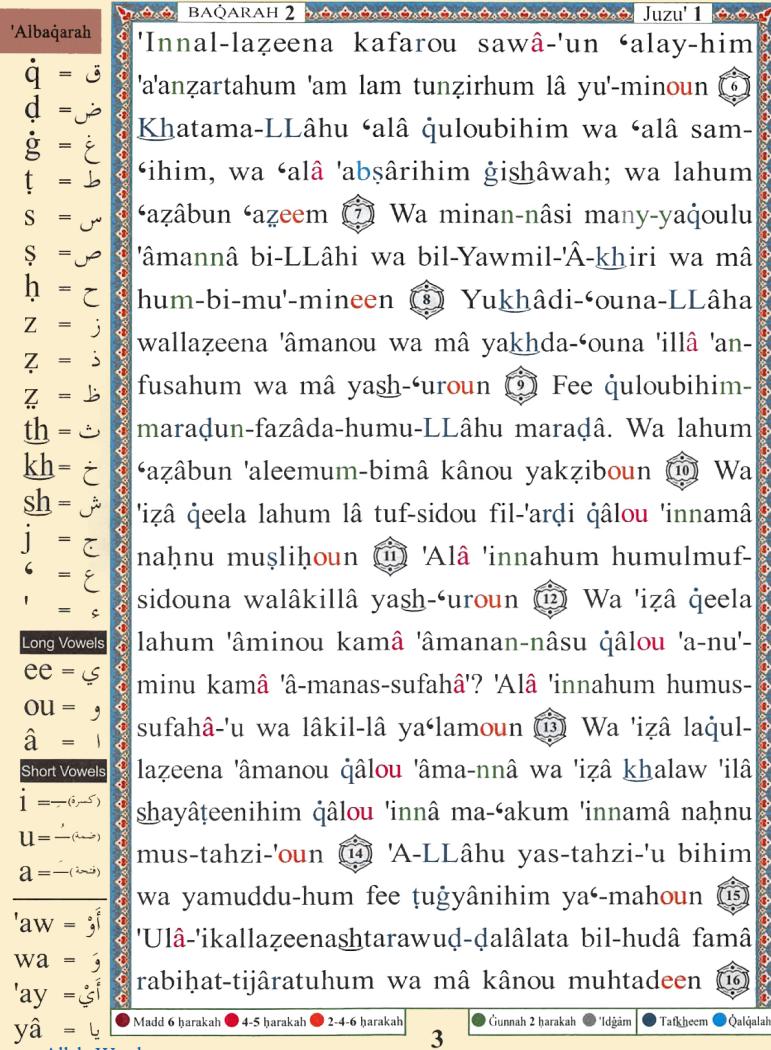

1. Alif Lam Mim

2. This is the Scripture in which there is no doubt, containing guidance for those who are mindful of God,

3. who believe in the unseen, keep up the prayer, and give out of what We have provided for them;

4. those who believe in the revelation sent down to you [Muhammad], and in what was sent before you, those who have firm faith in the Hereafter.

5. Such people are following their Lord's guidance and it is they who will prosper.

6. As for those who disbelieve, it makes no difference whether you warn them or not: they will not believe.

7. God has sealed their hearts and their ears, and their eyes are covered. They will have great torment.

8. Some people say, 'We believe in God and the Last Day,' when really they do not believe.

9. They seek to deceive God and the believers but they only deceive themselves, though they do not realize it.

10. There is a disease in their hearts, to which God has added more: agonizing torment awaits them for their persistent lying.

11. When it is said to them, 'Do not cause corruption in the land,' they say, 'We are only putting things right,'

12. but really they are causing corruption, though they do not realize it.

13. When it is said to them, 'Believe, as the others believe,' they say, 'Should we believe as the fools do?' but they are the fools, though they do not know it.

14. When they meet the believers, they say, 'We believe,' but when they are alone with their evil ones, they say, 'We're really with you; we were only mocking.'

15. God is mocking them, and allowing them more slack to wander blindly in their insolence.

16. They have bought error in exchange for guidance, so their trade reaps no profit, and they are not rightly guided.

17. They are like people who [labour to] kindle a fire: when it lights up everything around them, God takes away all their light, leaving them in utter darkness, unable to see

18. deaf, dumb, and blind: they will never return.

19. Or [like people who, under] a cloudburst from the sky, with its darkness, thunder, and lightning, put their fingers into their ears to keep out the thunderclaps for fear of death – God surrounds the disbelievers.

20. The lightning almost snatches away their sight: whenever it flashes on them they walk on and when darkness falls around them they stand still. If God so willed, He could take away their hearing and sight: God has power over everything.

21. People, worship your Lord, who created you and those before you, so that you may be mindful [of Him]

22. who spread out the earth for you and built the sky; who sent water down from it and with that water produced things for your sustenance. Do not, knowing this, set up rivals to God.

23. If you have doubts about the revelation We have sent down to Our servant, then produce a single sura like it - enlist whatever supporters you have other than God - if you truly [think you can].

24. If you cannot do this - and you never will– then beware of the Fire prepared for the disbelievers, whose fuel is men and stones.

25. [Prophet], give those who believe and do good the news that they will have Gardens graced with flowing streams. Whenever they are given sustenance from the fruits of these Gardens, they will say, 'We have been given this before,' because they were provided with something like it. They will have pure spouses and there they will stay.

26. God does not shy from drawing comparisons even with something as small as a gnat, or larger: the believers know it is the truth from their Lord, but the disbelievers say, 'What does God mean by such a comparison?' Through it He makes many go astray and leads many to the right path. But it is only the rebels He makes go astray:

27. those who break their covenant with God after it has been confirmed, who sever the bonds that God has commanded to be joined, who spread corruption on the earth - these are the losers.

28. How can you ignore God when you were lifeless and He gave you life, when He will cause you to die, then resurrect you to be returned to Him?

29. It was He who created all that is on the earth for you, then turned to the sky and made the seven heavens; it is He who has knowledge of all things.

30. [Prophet], when your Lord told the angels, 'I am putting a successor on earth,' they said, 'How can You put someone there who will cause damage and bloodshed, when we celebrate Your praise and proclaim Your holiness?' but He said, 'I know things you do not.'

31. He taught Adam all the names [of things], then He showed them to the angels and said, 'Tell me the names of these if you truly [think you can].'

32. They said, 'May You be glorified! We have knowledge only of what You have taught us. You are the All Knowing and All Wise.'

33. Then He said, 'Adam, tell them the names of these.' When he told them their names, God said, 'Did I not tell you that I know what is hidden in the heavens and the earth, and that I know what you reveal and what you conceal?'

34. When We told the angels, 'Bow down before Adam,' they all bowed. But not Iblis, who refused and was arrogant: he was one of the disobedient.

35. We said, 'Adam, live with your wife in this garden. Both of you eat freely there as you will, but do not go near this tree, or you will both become wrongdoers.'

36. But Satan made them slip, and removed them from the state they were in. We said, 'Get out, all of you! You are each other's enemy. On earth you will have a place to stay and livelihood for a time.'

37. Then Adam received some words from his Lord and He accepted his repentance: He is the Ever Relenting, the Most Merciful.

38. We said, 'Get out, all of you! But when guidance comes from Me, as it certainly will, there will be no fear for those who follow My guidance nor will they grieve –

39. those who disbelieve and deny Our messages shall be the inhabitants of the Fire, and there they will remain.'

40. Children of Israel, remember how I blessed you. Honour your pledge to Me and I will honour My pledge to you: I am the One you should fear.

41. Believe in the message I have sent down confirming what you already possess. Do not be the first to disbelieve in it, and do not sell My messages for a small price: I am the One of whom you should be mindful.

42. Do not mix truth with falsehood, or hide the truth when you know it.

43. Keep up the prayer, pay the prescribed alms, and bow your heads [in worship] with those who bow theirs.

44. How can you tell people to do what is right and forget to do it yourselves, even though you recite the Scripture? Have you no sense?

45. Seek help with steadfastness and prayer - though this is hard indeed for anyone but the humble,

46. who know that they will meet their Lord and that it is to Him they will return.

47. Children of Israel, remember how I blessed you and favoured you over other people.

48. Guard yourselves against a Day when no soul will stand in place of another, no intercession will be accepted for it, nor any ransom; nor will they be helped.

49. Remember when We saved you from Pharaoh's people, who subjected you to terrible torment, slaughtering your sons and sparing only your women - this was a great trial from your Lord -

50. and when We parted the sea for you, so saving you and drowning Pharaoh's people right before your eyes.

51. We appointed forty nights for Moses [on Mount Sinai] and then, while he was away, you took to worshipping the calf - a terrible wrong.

52. Even then We forgave you, so that you might be thankful.

53. Remember when We gave Moses the Scripture, and the means to distinguish [right and wrong], so that you might be guided.

54. Moses said to his people, 'My people, you have wronged yourselves by worshipping the calf, so repent to your Maker and kill [the guilty among] you. That is the best you can do in the eyes of your Maker.' He accepted your repentance: He is the Ever Relenting and the Most Merciful.

55. Remember when you said, 'Moses, we will not believe you until we see God face to face.' At that, thunderbolts struck you as you looked on.

56. Then We revived you after your death, so that you might be thankful.

57. We made the clouds cover you with shade, and sent manna and quails down to you, saying, 'Eat the good things We have provided for you.' It was not Us they wronged; they wronged themselves.

Remember when you said, 'Moses, we cannot bear to eat only one kind of food, so pray to your Lord to bring out for us some of the earth's produce, its herbs and cucumbers, its garlic, lentils, and onions.' He said, 'Would you exchange better for worse? Go to Egypt and there you will find what you have asked for.' They were struck with humiliation and wretchedness, and they incurred the wrath of God because they persistently rejected His messages and killed prophets contrary to all that is right. All this was because they disobeyed and were lawbreakers.

62. The [Muslim] believers, the Jews, the Christians, and the Sabians - all those who believe in God and the Last Day and do good - will have their rewards with their Lord. No fear for them, nor will they grieve.

63. Remember when We took your pledge, and made the mountain tower high above you, and said, 'Hold fast to what We have given you and bear its contents in mind, so that you may be conscious of God.'

64. Even after that you turned away. Had it not been for God's favour and mercy on you, you would certainly have been lost.

65. You know about those of you who broke the Sabbath, and so We said to them, 'Be like apes! Be outcasts!'

66. We made this an example to those people who were there at the time and to those who came after them, and a lesson to all who are mindful of God.

67. Remember when Moses said to his people, 'God commands you to sacrifice a cow.' They said, 'Are you making fun of us?' He answered, 'God forbid that I should be so ignorant.'

68. They said, 'Call on your Lord for us, to show us what sort of cow it should be.' He answered, 'God says it should be neither too old nor too young, but in between, so do as you are commanded.'

69. They said, 'Call on your Lord for us, to show us what colour it should be.' He answered, 'God says it should be a bright yellow cow, pleasing to the eye.'

70. They said, 'Call on your Lord for us, to show us [exactly] what it is: all cows are more or less alike to us. With God's will, we shall be guided.'

71. He replied, 'It is a perfect and unblemished cow, not trained to till the earth or water the fields.' They said, 'Now you have brought the truth,' and so they slaughtered it, though they almost failed to do so.

72. Then, when you [Israelites] killed someone and started to blame one another - although God was to bring what you had concealed to light –

73. We said, 'Strike the [body] with a part of [the cow]': thus God brings the dead to life and shows His signs so that you may understand.

74. Even after that, your hearts became as hard as rocks, or even harder, for there are rocks from which streams spring out, and some from which water comes when they split open, and others which fall down in awe of God: He is not unaware of what you do.

75. So can you [believers] hope that such people will believe you, when some of them used to hear the words of God and then deliberately twist them, even when they understood them?

76. When they meet the believers, they say, 'We too believe.' But when they are alone with each other they say, 'How could you tell them about God's revelation [to us]? They will be able to use it to argue against you before your Lord! Have you no sense?'

77. Do they not know that God is well aware of what they conceal and what they reveal?

78. Some of them are uneducated, and know the Scripture only through wishful thinking. They rely on guesswork.

79. So woe to those who write something down with their own hands and then claim, 'This is from God,' in order to make some small gain. Woe to them for what their hands have written! Woe to them for all that they have earned!

80. They say, 'The Fire will only touch us for a few days.' Say to them, 'Have you received a promise from God– for God never breaks His promise - or are you saying things about Him of which you have no real knowledge?'

81. Truly those who do evil and are surrounded by their sins will be the inhabitants of the Fire, there to remain,

82. while those who believe and do good deeds will be the inhabitants of the Garden, there to remain.

83. Remember when We took a pledge from the Children of Israel: 'Worship none but God; be good to your parents and kinsfolk, to orphans and the poor; speak good words to all people; keep up the prayer and pay the prescribed alms.' Then all but a few of you turned away and paid no heed.

84. We took a pledge from you, 'Do not shed one another's blood or drive one another from your homelands.' You acknowledged it at the time, and you can testify to this.

85. Yet here you are, killing one another and driving some of your own people from their homes, helping one another in sin and aggression against them. If they come to you as captives, you still pay to set them free, although you had no right to drive them out. So do you believe in some parts of the Scripture and not in others? The punishment for those of you who do this will be nothing but disgrace in this life, and on the Day of Resurrection they will be condemned to the harshest torment: God is not unaware of what you do.

86. These are the people who buy the life of this world at the price of the Hereafter: their torment will not be lightened, nor will they be helped.

87. We gave Moses the Scripture and We sent messengers after him in succession. We gave Jesus, son of Mary, clear signs and strengthened him with the Holy Spirit. So how is it that, whenever a messenger brings you something you do not like, you become arrogant, calling some impostors and killing others?

88. They say, 'Our hearts are impenetrably wrapped [against whatever you say],' but God has rejected them for their disbelief: they have little faith.

89. When a Scripture came to them from God confirming what they already had, and when they had been praying for victory against the disbelievers, even when there came to them something they knew [to be true], they disbelieved in it: God rejects those who disbelieve.

90. Low indeed is the price for which they have sold their souls by denying the God-sent truth, out of envy that God should send His bounty to any of His servants He pleases. The disbelievers have ended up with wrath upon wrath, and a humiliating torment awaits them.

91. When it is said to them, 'Believe in God's revelations,' they reply, 'We believe in what was revealed to us,' but they do not believe in what came afterwards, though it is the truth confirming what they already have. Say [Muhammad], 'Why did you kill God's prophets in the past if you were true believers?

92. Moses brought you clear signs, but then, while he was away, you chose to worship the calf - you did wrong.'

93. Remember when We took your pledge, making the mountain tower above you, and said, 'Hold on firmly to what We have given you, and listen to [what We say].' They said, 'We hear and we disobey,' and through their disbelief they were made to drink [the love of] the calf deep into their hearts. 102. and followed what the evil ones had fabricated about the Kingdom of Solomon instead. Not that Solomon himself was a disbeliever; it was the evil ones who were disbelievers. They taught people witchcraft and what was revealed in Babylon to the two angels Harut and Marut. Yet these two never taught anyone without first warning him, 'We are sent only to tempt– do not disbelieve.' From these two, they learned what can cause discord between man and wife, although they harm no one with it except by God's leave. They learned what harmed them, not what benefited them, knowing full well that whoever gained [this knowledge] would lose any share in the Hereafter. Evil indeed is the [price] for which they sold their souls, if only they knew.

103. If they had believed and been mindful of God, their reward from Him would have been far better, if only they knew.

104. Believers, do not say [to the Prophet], 'Ra'ina,' but say, 'Unzurna,' and listen [to him]: an agonizing torment awaits those who ignore [God's words].

105. Neither those People of the Book who disbelieve nor the idolaters would like anything good to be sent down to you from your Lord, but God chooses for His grace whoever He will: His bounty has no limits.

107. Do you not know that control of the heavens and the earth belongs to Him? You [believers] have no protector or helper but God.

108. Do you wish to demand of your messenger something similar to what was demanded of Moses? Whoever exchanges faith for disbelief has strayed far from the right path.

109. Even after the truth has become clear to them, many of the People of the Book wish they could turn you back to disbelief after you have believed, out of their selfish envy. Forgive and forbear until God gives his command: He has power over all things.

110. Keep up the prayer and pay the prescribed alms. Whatever good you store up for yourselves, you will find it with God: He sees everything you do.

111. They also say, 'No one will enter Paradise unless he is a Jew or a Christian.' This is their own wishful thinking. [Prophet], say, 'Produce your evidence, if you are telling the truth.'

112. In fact, any who direct themselves wholly to God and do good will have their reward with their Lord: no fear for them, nor will they grieve.

113. The Jews say, 'The Christians have no ground whatsoever to stand on,' and the Christians say, 'The Jews have no ground whatsoever to stand on,' though they both read the Scripture, and those who have no knowledge say the same; God will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection concerning their differences.

114. Who could be more wicked than those who prohibit the mention of God's name in His places of worship and strive to have them deserted? Such people should not enter them without fear: there is disgrace for them in this world and painful punishment in the Hereafter.

115. The East and the West belong to God: wherever you turn, there is His Face. God is all pervading and all knowing.

116. They have asserted, 'God has a child.' May He be exalted! No! Everything in the heavens and earth belongs to Him, everything devoutly obeys His will.

117. He is the Originator of the heavens and the earth, and when He decrees something, He says only, 'Be,' and it is.

118. Those who have no knowledge also say, 'If only God would speak to us!' or 'If only a miraculous sign would come to us!' People before them said the same things: their hearts are all alike. We have made Our signs clear enough to those who have solid faith.

119. We have sent you [Prophet] with the truth, bearing good news and warning. You will not be responsible for the inhabitants of the Blaze.

120. The Jews and the Christians will never be pleased with you unless you follow their ways. Say, 'God's guidance is the only true guidance.' If you were to follow their desires after the knowledge that has come to you, you would find no one to protect you from God or help you.

121. Those to whom We have given the Scripture, who follow it as it deserves, are the ones who truly believe in it. Those who deny its truth will be the losers.

122. Children of Israel, remember how I blessed you and favoured you over other people, 123 and beware of a Day when no soul can stand in for another. No compensation will be accepted from it, nor intercession be of use to it, nor will anyone be helped.

124. When Abraham's Lord tested him with certain commandments, which he fulfilled, He said, 'I will make you a leader of people.' Abraham asked, 'And will You make leaders from my descendants too?' God answered, 'My pledge does not hold for those who do evil.'

125. We made the House a resort and a sanctuary for people, saying, 'Take the spot where Abraham stood as your place of prayer.' We commanded Abraham and Ishmael: 'Purify My House for those who walk round it, those who stay there, and those who bow and prostrate themselves in worship.'

126. Abraham said, 'My Lord, make this land secure and provide with produce those of its people who believe in God and the Last Day.' God said, 'As for those who disbelieve, I will grant them enjoyment for a short while and then subject them to the torment of the Fire - an evil destination.'

127. As Abraham and Ishmael built up the foundations of the House [they prayed], 'Our Lord, accept [this] from us. You are the All Hearing, the All Knowing.

128. Our Lord, make us devoted to You; make our descendants into a community devoted to You. Show us how to worship and accept our repentance, for You are the Ever Relenting, the Most Merciful.

129. Our Lord, make a messenger of their own rise up from among them, to recite Your revelations to them, teach them the Scripture and wisdom, and purify them: You are the Mighty, the Wise.'

130. Who but a fool would forsake the religion of Abraham? We have chosen him in this world and he will rank among the righteous in the Hereafter.

131. His Lord said to him, 'Devote yourself to Me.' Abraham replied, 'I devote myself to the Lord of the Universe,'

132. and commanded his sons to do the same, as did Jacob: 'My sons, God has chosen [your] religion for you, so make sure you devote yourselves to Him, to your dying moment.'

133. Were you [Jews] there to see when death came upon Jacob? When he said to his sons, 'What will you worship after I am gone?' they replied, 'We shall worship your God and the God of your fathers, Abraham, Ishmael, and Isaac, one single God: we devote ourselves to Him.'

134. That community passed away. What they earned belongs to them, and what you earn belongs to you: you will not be answerable for their deeds.

135. They say, 'Become Jews or Christians, and you will be rightly guided.' Say [Prophet], 'No, [ours is] the religion of Abraham, the upright, who did not worship any god besides God.'

136. So [you believers], say, 'We believe in God and in what was sent down to us and what was sent down to Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, and the Tribes, and what was given to Moses, Jesus, and all the prophets by their Lord. We make no distinction between any of them, and we devote ourselves to Him.'

137. So if they believe like you do, they will be rightly guided. But if they turn their backs, then they will be entrenched in opposition. God will protect you from them: He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing. And say [believers],

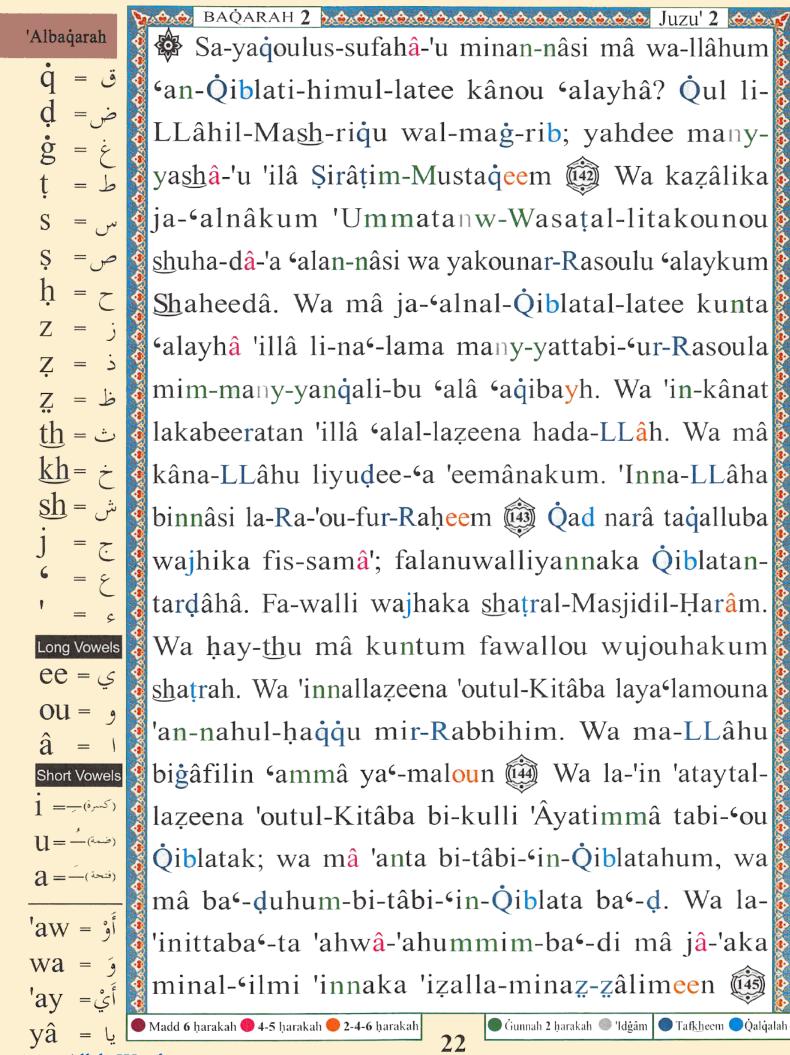

138. '[Our life] takes its colour from God, and who gives a better colour than God? It is Him we worship.'

139. Say [Prophet] [to the Jews and Christians], 'How can you argue with us about God when He is our Lord and your Lord? Our deeds belong to us, and yours to you. We devote ourselves entirely to Him.

140. Or are you saying that Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, and the Tribes were Jews or Christians?' [Prophet], ask them, 'Who knows better: you or God? Who could be more wicked than those who hide a testimony [they received] from God? God is not unmindful of what you do.'

141. That community passed away: what they earned belongs to them, and what you earn belongs to you. You will not be answerable for their deeds.

www.AllahsWord.com

142. The foolish people will say, 'What has turned them away from the prayer direction they used to face?' Say, 'East and West belong to God. He guides whoever He will to the right way.'

143. We have made you [believers] into a just community, so that you may bear witness [to the truth] before others and so that the Messenger may bear witness [to it] before you. We only made the direction the one you used to face [Prophet] in order to distinguish those who follow the Messenger from those who turn on their heels: that test was hard, except for those God has guided. God would never let your faith go to waste [believers], for God is most compassionate and most merciful towards people.

144. Many a time We have seen you [Prophet] turn your face towards Heaven, so We are turning you towards a prayer direction that pleases you. Turn your face in the direction of the Sacred Mosque: wherever you [believers] may be, turn your faces to it. Those who were given the Scripture know with certainty that this is the Truth from their Lord: God is not unaware of what they do.

145. Yet even if you brought every proof to those who were given the Scripture, they would not follow your prayer direction, nor will you follow theirs, nor indeed will any of them follow one another's direction. If you [Prophet] were to follow their desires, after the knowledge brought to you, you would be doing wrong.

164. In the creation of the heavens and earth; in the alternation of night and day; in the ships that sail the seas with goods for people; in the water which God sends down from the sky to give life to the earth when it has been barren, scattering all kinds of creatures over it; in the changing of the winds and clouds that run their appointed courses between the sky and earth: there are signs in all these for those who use their minds.

165. Even so, there are some who choose to worship others besides God as rivals to Him, loving them with the love due to God, but the believers have greater love for God. If only the idolaters could see - as they will see when they face the torment - that all power belongs to God, and that God punishes severely.

166. When those who have been followed disown their followers, when they all see the suffering, when all bonds between them are severed,

170. But when it is said to them, 'Follow the message that God has sent down,' they answer, 'We follow the ways of our fathers.' What! Even though their fathers understood nothing and were not guided?

171. Calling to disbelievers is like a herdsman calling to things that hear nothing but a shout and a cry: they are deaf, dumb, and blind, and they understand nothing.

172. You who believe, eat the good things We have provided for you and be grateful to God, if it is Him that you worship.

173. He has only forbidden you carrion, blood, pig's meat, and animals over which any name other than God's has been invoked. But if anyone is forced to eat such things by hunger, rather than desire or excess, he commits no sin: God is most merciful and forgiving.

174. As for those who conceal the Scripture that God sent down and sell it for a small price, they only fill their bellies with Fire. God will not speak to them on the Day of Resurrection, nor will He purify them: an agonizing torment awaits them.

175. These are the ones who exchange guidance for error, and forgiveness for torment. What can make them patient in the face of the Fire?

176. This is because God has sent the Scripture with the Truth; those who pursue differences in the Scripture are deeply entrenched in opposition.

177. Goodness does not consist in turning your face towards East or West. The truly good are those who believe in God and the Last Day, in the angels, the Scripture, and the prophets; who give away some of their wealth, however much they cherish it, to their relatives, to orphans, the needy, travellers and beggars, and to liberate those in bondage; those who keep up the prayer and pay the prescribed alms; who keep pledges whenever they make them; who are steadfast in misfortune, adversity, and times of danger. These are the ones who are true, and it is they who are aware of God.

178. You who believe, fair retribution is prescribed for you in cases of murder: the free man for the free man, the slave for the slave, the female for the female. But if the culprit is pardoned by his aggrieved brother, this shall be adhered to fairly, and the culprit shall pay what is due in a good way. This is an alleviation from your Lord and an act of mercy. If anyone then exceeds these limits, grievous suffering awaits him.

179. Fair retribution saves life for you, people of understanding, so that you may guard yourselves against what is wrong. When death approaches one of you who leaves wealth,

180. it is prescribed that he should make a proper bequest to parents and close relatives - a duty incumbent on those who are mindful of God.

181. If anyone alters the bequest after hearing it, the guilt of the alteration will fall on them: God is all hearing and all knowing.

182. But if anyone knows that the testator has made a mistake, or done wrong, and so puts things right between the parties, he will incur no sin: God is most forgiving and merciful.

183. You who believe, fasting is prescribed for you, as it was prescribed for those before you, so that you may be mindful of God.

184. Fast for a specific number of days, but if one of you is ill, or on a journey, on other days later. For those who can fast only with extreme difficulty, there is a way to compensate– feed a needy person. But if anyone does good of his own accord, it is better for him, and fasting is better for you, if only you knew.

185. It was in the month of Ramadan that the Qur'an was revealed as guidance for mankind, clear messages giving guidance and distinguishing between right and wrong. So any one of you who is present that month should fast, and anyone who is ill or on a journey should make up for the lost days by fasting on other days later. God wants ease for you, not hardship. He wants you to complete the prescribed period and to glorify Him for having guided you, so that you may be thankful.

186. [Prophet], if My servants ask you about Me, I am near. I respond to those who call Me, so let them respond to Me, and believe in Me, so that they may be guided.

187. You [believers] are permitted to lie with your wives during the night of the fast: they are [close] as garments to you, as you are to them. God was aware that you were betraying yourselves, so He turned to you in mercy and pardoned you: now you can lie with them - seek what God has ordained for you - eat and drink until the white thread of dawn becomes distinct from the black. Then fast until nightfall. Do not lie with them during the nights of your devotional retreat in the mosques: these are the bounds set by God, so do not go near them. In this way God makes His messages clear to people, that they may guard themselves against doing wrong.

188. Do not consume your property wrongfully, nor use it to bribe judges, intending sinfully and knowingly to consume parts of other people's property.

189. They ask you [Prophet] about crescent moons. Say, 'They show the times appointed for people, and for the pilgrimage.' Goodness does not consist of entering houses by the back [door]; the truly good person is the one who is mindful of God. So enter your houses by their [main] doors and be mindful of God so that you may prosper.

190. Fight in God's cause against those who fight you, but do not overstep the limits: God does not love those who overstep the limits.

191. Kill them wherever you encounter them, and drive them out from where they drove you out, for persecution is more serious than killing. Do not fight them at the Sacred Mosque unless they fight you there. If they do fight you, kill them– this is what such disbelievers deserve –

192. but if they stop, then God is most forgiving and merciful.

193. Fight them until there is no more persecution, and worship is devoted to God. If they cease hostilities, there can be no [further] hostility, except towards aggressors.

194. A sacred month for a sacred month: violation of sanctity [calls for] fair retribution. So, if anyone commits aggression against you, attack him as he attacked you, but be mindful of God, and know that He is with those who are mindful of Him.

195. Spend in God's cause: do not contribute to your destruction with your own hands, but do good, for God loves those who do good.

196. Complete the pilgrimages, major and minor, for the sake of God. If you are prevented [from doing so], then [send] whatever offering for sacrifice you can afford, and do not shave your heads until the offering has reached the place of sacrifice. If any of you is ill, or has an ailment of the scalp, he should compensate by fasting, or feeding the poor, or offering sacrifice. When you are in safety, anyone wishing to take a break between the minor pilgrimage and the major one must make whatever offering he can afford. If he lacks the means, he should fast for three days during the pilgrimage, and seven days on his return, making ten days in all. This applies to those whose household is not near the Sacred Mosque. Always be mindful of God, and be aware that He is stern in His retribution.

197. The pilgrimage takes place during the prescribed months. There should be no indecent speech, misbehaviour, or quarrelling for anyone undertaking the pilgrimage - whatever good you do, God is well aware of it. Provide well for yourselves: the best provision is to be mindful of God - always be mindful of Me, you who have understanding –

198. but it is no offence to seek some bounty from your Lord. When you surge down from Arafat remember God at the sacred place. Remember Him: He has guided you. Before that you were astray.

199. Surge down where the rest of the people do, and ask forgiveness of God: He is most forgiving and merciful.

200. When you have completed your rites, remember God as much as you remember your own fathers, or even more. There are some who pray, 'Our Lord, give us good in this world,' and they will have no share in the Hereafter;

201. others pray, 'Our Lord, give us good in this world and in the Hereafter, and protect us from the torment of the Fire.'

205. When he leaves, he sets out to spread corruption in the land, destroying crops and livestock - God does not like corruption.

206. When he is told, 'Beware of God,' his arrogance leads him to sin. Hell is enough for him: a dreadful resting place.

207. But there is also a kind of man who gives his life away to please God, and God is most compassionate to His servants.

208. You who believe, enter wholeheartedly into submission to God and do not follow in Satan's footsteps, for he is your sworn enemy.

209. If you slip back after clear proof has come to you, then be aware that God is almighty and wise.

211. [Prophet], ask the Children of Israel how many clear signs We brought them. If anyone alters God's blessings after he has received them, God is stern in punishment.

212. The life of this world is made to seem glamorous to the disbelievers, and they laugh at those who believe. But those who are mindful of God will be above them on the Day of Resurrection: God provides immeasurably for whoever He pleases.

213. Mankind was a single community, then God sent prophets to bring good news and warning, and with them He sent the Scripture with the Truth, to judge between people in their disagreements. It was only those to whom it was given who disagreed about it after clear signs had come to them, because of rivalry between them. So, by His leave God guided the believers to the truth they had differed about: God guides whoever He will to a straight path.

214. Do you suppose that you will enter the Garden without first having suffered like those before you? They were afflicted by misfortune and hardship, and they were so shaken that even [their] messenger and the believers with him cried, 'When will God's help arrive?' Truly, God's help is near.

215. They ask you [Prophet] what they should give. Say, 'Whatever you give should be for parents, close relatives, orphans, the needy, and travellers. God is well aware of whatever good you do.

217. They ask you [Prophet] about fighting in the prohibited month. Say, 'Fighting in that month is a great offence, but to bar others from God's path, to disbelieve in Him, prevent access to the Sacred Mosque, and expel its people, are still greater offences in God's eyes: persecution is worse than killing.' They will not stop fighting you [believers] until they make you revoke your faith, if they can. If any of you revoke your faith and die as disbelievers, your deeds will come to nothing in this world and the Hereafter, and you will be inhabitants of the Fire, there to remain.

218. But those who have believed, migrated, and striven for God's cause, it is they who can look forward to God's mercy: God is most forgiving and merciful.

219. They ask you [Prophet] about intoxicants and gambling: say, 'There is great sin in both, and some benefit for people: the sin is greater than the benefit.' They ask you what they should give: say, 'Give what you can spare.' In this way, God makes His messages clear to you, so that you may reflect

225. He will not call you to account for oaths you have uttered unintentionally, but He will call you to account for what you mean in your hearts. God is most forgiving and forbearing.

226. For those who swear that they will not approach their wives, there shall be a waiting period of four months: if they go back, remember God will be most forgiving and merciful,

227. but if they are determined to divorce, remember that God hears and knows all.

228. Divorced women must wait for three monthly periods before remarrying, and, if they really believe in God and the Last Day, it is not lawful for them to conceal what God has created in their wombs: their husbands would do better to take them back during this period, provided they wish to put things right. Wives have [rights] similar to their [obligations], according to what is recognized to be fair, and husbands have a degree [of right] over them: [both should remember that] God is almighty and wise.

229. Divorce can happen twice, and [each time] wives either be kept on in an acceptable manner or released in a good way. It is not lawful for you to take back anything that you have given [your wives], except where both fear that they cannot maintain [the marriage] within the bounds set by God: if you [arbiters] suspect that the couple may not be able to do this, then there will be no blame on either of them if the woman opts to give something for her release. These are the bounds set by God: do not overstep them. It is those who overstep God's bounds who are doing wrong.

230. If a husband re-divorces his wife after the second divorce, she will not be lawful for him until she has taken another husband; if that one divorces her, there will be no blame if she and the first husband return to one another, provided they feel that they can keep within the bounds set by God. These are God's bounds, which He makes clear for those who know.

231. When you divorce women and they have reached their set time, then either keep or release them in a fair manner. Do not hold on to them with intent to harm them and commit aggression: anyone who does this wrongs himself. Do not make a mockery of God's revelations; remember the favour He blessed you with, and the Scripture and wisdom He sent to teach you. Be mindful of God and know that He has full knowledge of everything.

232. When you divorce women and they have reached their set time, do not prevent them from remarrying their husbands if they both agree to do so in a fair manner. Let those of you who believe in God and the Last Day take this to heart: that is more wholesome and purer for you. God knows and you do not.

233. Mothers suckle their children for two whole years, if they wish to complete the term, and clothing and maintenance must be borne by the father in a fair manner. No one should be burdened with more than they can bear: no mother shall be made to suffer harm on account of her child, nor any father on account of his. The same duty is incumbent on the father's heir. If, by mutual consent and consultation, the couple wish to wean [the child], they will not be blamed, nor will there be any blame if you wish to engage a wet nurse, provided you pay as agreed in a fair manner. Be mindful of God, knowing that He sees everything you do.

234. If any of you die and leave widows, the widows should wait for four months and ten nights before remarrying. When they have completed this set time, you will not be blamed for anything they may reasonably choose to do with themselves. God is fully aware of what you do.

235. You will not be blamed whether you give a hint that you wish to marry these women, or keep it to yourselves – God knows that you intend to propose to them. Do not make a secret arrangement with them; speak to them honourably and do not confirm the marriage tie until the prescribed period reaches its end. Remember that God knows what is in your souls, so be mindful of Him. Remember that God is most forgiving and forbearing.

236. You will not be blamed if you divorce women when you have not yet consummated the marriage or fixed a bride-gift for them, but make fair provision for them, the rich according to his means and the poor according to his-this is a duty for those who do good.

237. If you divorce wives before consummating the marriage but after fixing a bride-gift for them, then give them half of what you had previously fixed, unless they waive [their right], or unless the one who holds the marriage tie waives [his right]. Waiving [your right] is nearer to godliness, so do not forget to be generous towards one another: God sees what you do.

246. [Prophet], consider the leaders of the Children of Israel who came after Moses, when they said to one of their prophets, 'Set up a king for us and we shall fight in God's cause.' He said, 'But could it be that you would not fight, if it were ordained for you?' They said, 'How could we not fight in God's cause when we and our children have been driven out of our homeland?' Yet when they were commanded to fight, all but a few of them turned away: God has full knowledge of those who do wrong.

247. Their prophet said to them, 'God has now appointed Talut to be your king,' but they said, 'How can he be king over us when we have a greater right to rule than he? He does not even have great wealth.' He said, 'God has chosen him over you, and has given him great knowledge and stature. God grants His authority to whoever He pleases: God is magnanimous, all knowing.'

248. Their prophet said to them, 'The sign of his authority will be that the Ark [of the Covenant] will come to you. In it there will be [the gift of] tranquillity from your Lord and relics of the followers of Moses and Aaron, carried by the angels. There is a sign in this for you if you believe.'

249. When Talut set out with his forces, he said to them, 'God will test you with a river. Anyone who drinks from it will not belong with me, but anyone who refrains from tasting it will belong with me; if he scoops up just one handful [he will be excused].' But they all drank [deep] from it, except for a few. When he crossed it with those who had kept faith, they said, 'We have no strength today against Goliath and his warriors.' But those who knew that they were going to meet their Lord said, 'How often a small force has defeated a large army with God's permission! God is with those who are steadfast.'

250. And when they met Goliath and his warriors, they said, 'Our Lord, pour patience on us, make us stand firm, and help us against the disbelievers,'

251. and so with God's permission they defeated them. David killed Goliath, and God gave him sovereignty and wisdom and taught him what He pleased. If God did not drive some back by means of others the earth would be completely corrupt, but God is bountiful to all.

252. These are the revelations of God which We recite to you [Muhammad] with the truth, and you truly are one of the messengers.

253. We favoured some of these messengers above others. God spoke to some; others He raised in rank; We gave Jesus, son of Mary, Our clear signs and strengthened him with the holy spirit. If God had so willed, their successors would not have fought each other after they had been brought clear signs. But they disagreed: some believed and some disbelieved. If God had so willed, they would not have fought each other, but God does what He will.

254. You who believe, give from what We have provided for you, before the Day comes when there is no bargaining, no friendship, and no intercession. It is the disbelievers who are wrong.

255. God: there is no god but Him, the Ever Living, the Ever Watchful. Neither slumber nor sleep overtakes Him. All that is in the heavens and in the earth belongs to Him. Who is there that can intercede with Him except by His leave? He knows what is before them and what is behind them, but they do not comprehend any of His knowledge except what He wills. His throne extends over the heavens and the earth; it does not weary Him to preserve them both. He is the Most High, the Tremendous.

256. There is no compulsion in religion: true guidance has become distinct from error, so whoever rejects false gods and believes in God has grasped the firmest hand-hold, one that will never break. God is all hearing and all knowing.

257. God is the ally of those who believe: He brings them out of the depths of darkness and into the light. As for the disbelievers, their allies are false gods who take them from the light into the depths of darkness, they are the inhabitants of the Fire, and there they will remain.

258. [Prophet], have you not thought about the man who disputed with Abraham about his Lord, because God had given him power to rule? When Abraham said, 'It is my Lord who gives life and death,' he said, 'I too give life and death.' So, Abraham said, 'God brings the sun from the east; so bring it from the west.' The disbeliever was dumbfounded: God does not guide those who do evil.

259. Or take the one who passed by a ruined town. He said, 'How will God give this life when it has died?' So, God made him die for a hundred years, and then raised him up, saying, 'How long did you stay like that?' He answered, 'A day, or part of a day.' God said, 'No, you stayed like that for a hundred years. Look at your food and drink: they have not gone bad. Look at your donkey - We will make you a sign for the people - look at the bones: see how We bring them together and clothe them with flesh!' When all became clear to him, he said, 'Now I know that God has power over everything.'

260. And when Abraham said, 'My Lord, show me how You give life to the dead,' He said, 'Do you not believe, then?' 'Yes,' said Abraham, 'but just to put my heart at rest.' So, God said, 'Take four birds and train them to come back to you. Then place them on separate hilltops, call them back, and they will come flying to you: know that God is all powerful and wise.'

261. Those who spend their wealth in God's cause are like grains of corn that produce seven ears, each bearing a hundred grains. God gives multiple increase to whoever He wishes: He is limitless and all knowing.

262. Those who spend their wealth in God's cause, and do not follow their spending with reminders of their benevolence or hurtful words, will have their rewards with their Lord: no fear for them, nor will they grieve.

263. A kind word and forgiveness is better than a charitable deed followed by hurtful [words]: God is self-sufficient, forbearing.

264. You who believe, do not cancel out your charitable deeds with reminders and hurtful words, like someone who spends his wealth only to be seen by people, not believing in God and the Last Day. Such a person is like a rock with earth on it: heavy rain falls and leaves it completely bare. Such people get no rewards for their works: God does not guide the disbelievers.

265. But those who spend their wealth in order to gain God's approval, and as an affirmation of their own faith, are like a garden on a hill: heavy rain falls and it produces double its normal yield; even if no heavy rain falls, it will still be watered by the dew. God sees all that you do.

266. Would any of you like to have a garden of palm trees and vines, graced with flowing streams and all kinds of produce, which, when you are afflicted with old age and feeble offspring, is struck by a fiery whirlwind and burnt down? In this way God makes His messages clear to you, so that you may reflect on them.

267. You who believe, give charitably from the good things you have acquired and that We have produced for you from the earth. Do not give away the bad things that you yourself would only accept with your eyes closed: remember that God is self-sufficient, worthy of all praise.

268. Satan threatens you with the prospect of poverty and commands you to do foul deeds; God promises you His forgiveness and His abundance: God is limitless and all knowing,

269. and He gives wisdom to whoever He will. Whoever is given wisdom has truly been given much good, but only those with insight bear this in mind.

270. Whatever you may give, or vow to give, God knows it well, and those who do wrong will have no one to help them.

271. If you give charity openly, it is good, but if you keep it secret and give to the needy in private, that is better for you, and it will atone for some of your bad deeds: God is well aware of all that you do.

272. It is not for you [Prophet] to guide them; it is God who guides whoever He will. Whatever charity you give benefits your own soul, provided you do it for the sake of God: whatever you give will be repaid to you in full, and you will not be wronged.

273. [Give] to those needy who are wholly occupied in God's way and cannot travel in the land [for trade]. The unknowing might think them rich because of their self-restraint, but you will recognize them by their characteristic of not begging persistently. God is well aware of any good you give.

275. But those who take usury will rise up on the Day of Resurrection like someone tormented by Satan's touch. That is because they say, 'Trade and usury are the same,'

276. but God has allowed trade and forbidden usury. Whoever, on receiving God's warning, stops taking usury may keep his past gains - God will be his judge - but whoever goes back to usury will be an inhabitant of the Fire, there to remain. God blights usury, but blesses charitable deeds with multiple increase: He does not love the ungrateful sinner.

277. Those who believe, do good deeds, keep up the prayer, and pay the prescribed alms will have their reward with their Lord: no fear for them, nor will they grieve.

278. You who believe, beware of God: give up any outstanding dues from usury, if you are true believers.

279. If you do not, then be warned of war from God and His Messenger. You shall have your capital if you repent, and without suffering loss or causing others to suffer loss. 280 If the debtor is in difficulty, then delay things until matters become easier for him; still, if you were to write it off as an act of charity, that would be better for you, if only you knew.

281. Beware of a Day when you will be returned to God: every soul will be paid in full for what it has earned, and no one will be wronged.

282. You who believe, when you contract a debt for a stated term, put it down in writing: have a scribe write it down justly between you. No scribe should refuse to write: let him write as God has taught him, let the debtor dictate, and let him fear God, his Lord, and not diminish [the debt] at all. If the debtor is feeble-minded, weak, or unable to dictate, then let his guardian dictate justly. Call in two men as witnesses. If two men are not there, then call one man and two women out of those you approve as witnesses, so that if one of the two women should forget the other can remind her. Let the witnesses not refuse when they are summoned. Do not disdain to write the debt down, be it small or large, along with the time it falls due: this way is more equitable in God's eyes, more reliable as testimony, and more likely to prevent doubts arising between you. But if the merchandise is there and you hand it over, there is no blame on you if you do not write it down. Have witnesses present whenever you trade with one another, and let no harm be done to either scribe or witness, for if you did cause them harm, it would be a crime on your part. Be mindful of God, and He will teach you: He has full knowledge of everything.

283. If you are on a journey, and cannot find a scribe, something should be handed over as security, but if you decide to trust one another, then let the one who is trusted fulfil his trust; let him be mindful of God, his Lord. Do not conceal evidence: anyone who does so has a sinful heart, and God is fully aware of everything you do.

284. Whatever is in the heavens and in the earth belongs to God and, whether you reveal or conceal your thoughts, God will call you to account for them. He will forgive whoever He will and punish whoever He will: He has power over all things.

285. The Messenger believes in what has been sent down to him from his Lord, as do the faithful. They all believe in God, His angels, His scriptures, and His messengers. 'We make no distinction between any of His messengers,' they say, 'We hear and obey. Grant us Your forgiveness, our Lord. To You we all return!'-

286. God does not burden any soul with more than it can bear: each gains whatever good it has done, and suffers its bad - 'Lord, do not take us to task if we forget or make mistakes. Lord, do not burden us as You burdened those before us. Lord, do not burden us with more than we have strength to bear. Pardon us, forgive us, and have mercy on us. You are our Protector, so help us against the disbelievers.'

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

THE FAMILY OF IMRAN

- 1. Alif Lam Mim
- 2. God: there is no god but Him, the Ever Living, the Ever Watchful.

3. Step by step, He has sent the Scripture down to you [Prophet] with the Truth, confirming what went before: He sent down the Torah and the Gospel

4. earlier as a guide for people and He has sent down the distinction [between right and wrong]. Those who deny God's revelations will suffer severe torment: God is almighty and capable of retribution.

5. Nothing on earth or in heaven is hidden from God:

6. it is He who shapes you all in the womb as He pleases. There is no God but Him, the Mighty, the Wise:

7. it is He who has sent this Scripture down to you [Prophet]. Some of its verses are definite in meaning - these are the cornerstone of the Scripture - and others are ambiguous. The perverse at heart eagerly pursue the ambiguities in their attempt to make trouble and to pin down a specific meaning of their own: only God knows the true meaning. Those firmly grounded in knowledge say, 'We believe in it: it is all from our Lord' - only those with real perception will take heed -

8. 'Our Lord, do not let our hearts deviate after You have guided us. Grant us Your mercy: You are the Ever Giving.

9. Our Lord, You will gather all people on the Day of which there is no doubt: God never breaks His promise.'

24. 'The Fire will only touch us for a limited number of days.' The lies they have invented have led them astray in their own religion.

25. How will they fare when We gather them together for a Day of which there is no doubt, when every soul will be paid in full for what it has done, and they will not be wronged?

26. Say, 'God, holder of all control, You give control to whoever You will and remove it from whoever You will; You elevate whoever You will and humble whoever You will. All that is good lies in Your hand: You have power over everything.

27. You merge night into day and day into night; You bring the living out of the dead and the dead out of the living; You provide limitlessly for whoever You will.'

28. The believers should not make the disbelievers their allies rather than other believers— anyone who does such a thing will isolate himself completely from God - except when you need to protect yourselves from them. God warns you to beware of Him: the Final Return is to God.

29. Say [Prophet], 'God knows everything that is in your hearts, whether you conceal or reveal it; He knows everything in the heavens and earth; God has power over all things.'

53. Lord, we believe in what You have revealed and we follow the messenger: record us among those who bear witness [to the Truth].'

54. The [disbelievers] schemed but God also schemed; God is the Best of Schemers.

55. God said, 'Jesus, I will take you back and raise you up to Me: I will purify you of the disbelievers. To the Day of Resurrection I will make those who follow you superior to those who disbelieved. Then you will all return to Me and I will judge between you regarding your differences.

56. I will make the disbelievers suffer severely in this world and the next; no one will help them.'

57. God will pay those who believe and do good deeds their reward in full; God does not love evildoers.

71. People of the Book, why do you mix truth with falsehood? Why do you hide the truth when you recognize it?

72. Some of the People of the Book say, 'At the beginning of the day, believe in what has been revealed to these believers [the Muslims], then at the end of the day reject it, so that they too may turn back,

73. but do not sincerely believe in anyone unless he follows your own religion' - [Prophet], tell them, 'True guidance is the guidance of God' - [they say], 'Do not believe that anyone else could be given a revelation similar to what you were given, or that they could use it to argue against you in your Lord's presence.' [Prophet], tell them, 'All grace is in God's hands: He grants it to whoever He will - He is all embracing, all knowing –

74. and He singles out for His mercy whoever He will. His grace is infinite.'

75. There are People of the Book who, if you [Prophet] entrust them with a heap of gold, will return it to you intact, but there are others of them who, if you entrust them with a single dinar, will not return it to you unless you keep standing over them, because they say, 'We are under no obligation towards the gentiles.' They tell a lie against God and they know it.

76. No indeed! God loves those who keep their pledges and are mindful of Him,

77. but those who sell out God's covenant and their own oaths for a small price will have no share in the life to come. God will neither speak to them nor look at them on the Day of Resurrection - He will not cleanse them [of their sins] - agonizing torment awaits them.

78. There are some who twist the Scripture with their tongues to make you [people] think that what they say is part of the Scripture when it is not; they say it is from God when it is not; they attribute lies to God and they know it.

79. No person to whom God had given the Scripture, wisdom, and prophethood would ever say to people, 'Be my servants, not God's.' [He would say], 'You should be devoted to God because you have taught the Scripture and studied it closely.'

80. He would never command you to take angels and prophets as lords. How could he command you to be disbelievers after you had devoted yourselves to God?

81. God took a pledge from the prophets, saying, 'If, after I have bestowed Scripture and wisdom upon you, a messenger comes confirming what you have been given, you must believe in him and support him. Do you affirm this and accept My pledge as binding on you?' They said, 'We do.' He said, 'Then bear witness and I too will bear witness.'

82. Those who turn away after this are the ones who break pledges.83 Do they seek anything other than submission to God? Everyone in the heavens and earth submits to Him, willingly or unwillingly; they will all be returned to Him.

84. Say [Muhammad], 'We [Muslims] believe in God and in what has been sent down to us and to Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, and the Tribes. We believe in what has been given to Moses, Jesus, and the prophets from their Lord. We do not make a distinction between any of the [prophets]. It is to Him that we devote ourselves.'

85. If anyone seeks a religion other than [Islam] complete devotion to God, it will not be accepted from him: he will be one of the losers in the Hereafter.

86. Why would God guide people who deny the truth, after they have believed and acknowledged that the Messenger is true, and after they have been shown clear proof? God does not guide evildoers:

87. such people will be rewarded with rejection by God, by the angels, by all people,

88. and so they will remain, with no relief or respite for their suffering.

89. Not so those who afterwards repent and mend their ways - God is most forgiving and merciful -

90. [although] the repentance of those who, having believed, then increase in their disbelief, will not be accepted. They are the ones who have gone [far] astray:

91. those who disbelieve and die disbelievers will not be saved even if they offer enough gold to fill the entire earth. Agonizing torment is in store for them, and there will be no one to help them.

110. [Believers], you are the best community singled out for people: you order what is right, forbid what is wrong, and believe in God. If the People of the Book had also believed, it would have been better for them. For although some of them do believe, most of them are lawbreakers –

111. they will not do you much harm: even if they come out to fight you, they will soon turn tail; they will get no help –

112. and, unless they hold fast to a lifeline from God and from mankind, they are overshadowed by vulnerability wherever they are found. They have drawn God's wrath upon themselves. They are overshadowed by weakness, too, because they have persistently disbelieved in God's revelation and killed prophets without any right, all because of their disobedience and boundless transgression.

113. But they are not all alike. There are some among the People of the Book who are upright, who recite God's revelations during the night, who bow down in worship,

114. who believe in God and the Last Day, who order what is right and forbid what is wrong, who are quick to do good deeds. These people are among the righteous

115. and they will not be denied [the reward] for whatever good deeds they do: God knows exactly who is conscious of Him.

116. As for those who disbelieve, neither their possessions nor their children will help them against God - they will be companions in the Fire, there to remain –

117. and whatever they give away in this life will be nullified: a frosty wind strikes and destroys the harvest of people who have wronged themselves. It was not God who wronged them; they wronged themselves.

118. You who believe, do not take for your intimates such outsiders as spare no effort to ruin you and want to see you suffer: their hatred is evident from their mouths, but what their hearts conceal is far worse. We have made Our revelations clear for you; will you not use your reason?

119. This is how it is: here you are, you love them, but they do not love you; you believe in all the Scriptures and when they meet you, they say, 'We believe,' but when they are alone, they bite their fingertips in rage at you. [Prophet], say, 'Die of rage [if you wish]!' God knows exactly what is in everyone's hearts.

120. They grieve at any good that befalls you [believers] and rejoice at your misfortunes. But if you are steadfast and conscious of God, their scheming will not harm you in the least: God encircles everything they do.

121. [Prophet], remember when you left your home at dawn to assign battle positions to the believers: God hears and knows everything.

Another group, caring only for themselves, entertained false thoughts about God, thoughts more appropriate to pagan ignorance, and said, 'Do we get a say in any of this?' [Prophet], tell them, 'Everything to do with this affair is in God's hands.' They conceal in their hearts things they will not reveal to you. They say, 'If we had had our say in this, none of us would have been killed here.' Tell them, 'Even if you had resolved to stay at home, those who were destined to be killed would still have gone out to meet their deaths.' God did this in order to test everything within you and in order to prove what is in your hearts. God knows your innermost thoughts very well.

155. As for those of you who turned away on the day the two armies met in battle, it was Satan who caused them to slip, through some of their actions. God has now pardoned them: God is most forgiving and forbearing.

to disbelief than belief. They say with their tongues what is not in their hearts: God knows exactly what they conceal.

169. [Prophet], do not think of those who have been killed in God's way as dead. They are alive with their Lord, well provided for,

170. happy with what God has given them of His favour; rejoicing that for those they have left behind who have yet to join them there is no fear, nor will they grieve;

171. [rejoicing] in God's blessing and favour, and that God will not let the reward of the believers be lost.

172. Those who responded to God and the Messenger after suffering defeat, who do good and remain conscious of God, will have a great reward.

173. Those whose faith only increased when people said, 'Fear your enemy: they have amassed a great army against you,' and who replied, 'God is enough for us: He is the best protector,'

174. returned with grace and bounty from God; no harm befell them. They pursued God's good pleasure. God's favour is great indeed.

175. It is Satan who urges you to fear his followers; do not fear them, but fear Me, if you are true believers.

176. [Prophet], do not be grieved by those who are quick to disbelieve. They will not harm God in the least; it is God's will that they will have no share in the Hereafter - a terrible torment awaits them.

177. Those who sell their faith for disbelief will not harm God in any way; agonizing torment awaits them.

178. The disbelievers should not think that it is better for them that We give them more time: when We give them more time, they become more sinful - a shameful torment awaits them.

179. Nor was it God's aim to leave you as you were, with no separation between the bad and the good. God would not show you [people] what is hidden; God chooses as His messengers whoever He will. So, believe in God and His messengers: if you believe and stay mindful of God, you will have a great reward.

180. Those who are miserly with what God has granted them out of His grace should not think that it is good for them; on the contrary, it is bad for them. Whatever they meanly withhold will be hung around their necks on the Day of Resurrection. It is God who will inherit the heavens and earth: God is well aware of everything you do.

181. God has certainly heard the words of those who sneer, 'So God is poor, while we are rich'. We shall record everything they say – as well as their killing of prophets in defiance of all that is right – and We shall say to them, 'Taste the torment of the scorching fire.

182. That is on account of what you stored up for yourselves with your own hands: God is never unjust to His servants.'

183. To those who say, 'God has commanded us not to believe in any messenger unless he brings us an offering that fire [from heaven] consumes,' say [Prophet], 'Messengers before me have come to you with clear signs, including the one you mention. If you are sincere, why did you kill them?'

184. If they reject you, so have other messengers been rejected before you, even though they came with clear evidence, books of wisdom and enlightening scripture.

185. Every soul will taste death and you will be paid in full only on the Day of Resurrection. Whoever is kept away from the Fire and admitted to the Garden will have triumphed. The present world is only an illusory pleasure:

186. you are sure to be tested through your possessions and persons; you are sure to hear much that is hurtful from those who were given the Scripture before you and from those who associate others with God. If you are steadfast and mindful of God, that is the best course.

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

NISÂ' 4 🙆 🕹 🔄 🔄 🔄 🔄 🔄 🔄 🔄 🔄 🔄 🔄 🔄 🔄 🔄

1. People, be mindful of your Lord, who created you from a single soul, and from it created its mate, and from the pair of them spread countless men and women far and wide; be mindful of God, in whose name you make requests of one another. Beware of severing the ties of kinship: God is always watching over you.

2. Give orphans their property, do not replace [their] good things with bad, and do not consume their property with your own - a great sin.

3. If you fear that you will not deal fairly with orphan girls, you may marry whichever [other] women seem good to you, two, three, or four. If you fear that you cannot be equitable [to them], then marry only one, or your slave(s): that is more likely to make you avoid bias.

4. Give women their bridal gift upon marriage, though if they are happy to give up some of it for you, you may enjoy it with a clear conscience.

5. Do not entrust your property to the feeble-minded. God has made it a means of support for you: make provision for them from it, clothe them, and address them kindly.

6. Test orphans until they reach marriageable age; then, if you find they have sound judgement, hand over their property to them. Do not consume it hastily before they come of age: if the guardian is well off, he should abstain from the orphan's property, and if he is poor, he should use only what is fair. When you give them their property, call witnesses in; but God takes full account of everything you do.

7. Men shall have a share in what their parents and closest relatives leave, and women shall have a share in what their parents and closest relatives leave, whether the legacy be small or large: this is ordained by God.

NISÂ' 4

8. If other relatives, orphans, or needy people are present at the distribution, give them something too, and speak kindly to them.

9. Let those who would fear for the future of their own helpless children, if they were to die, show the same concern [for orphans]; let them be mindful of God and speak out for justice.

10. Those who consume the property of orphans unjustly are actually swallowing fire into their own bellies: they will burn in the blazing Flame.

11. Concerning your children, God commands you that a son should have the equivalent share of two daughters. If there are only daughters, two or more should share two-thirds of the inheritance, if one, she should have half. Parents inherit a sixth each if the deceased leaves children; if he leaves no children and his parents are his sole heirs, his mother has a third, unless he has brothers, in which case she has a sixth. [In all cases, the distribution comes] after payment of any bequests or debts. 13. These are the bounds set by God: God will admit those who obey Him and His Messenger to Gardens graced with flowing streams, and there they will stay - that is the supreme triumph!

14. But those who disobey God and His Messenger and overstep His limits will be consigned by God to the Fire, and there they will stay - a humiliating torment awaits them!

15. If any of your women commit a lewd act, call four witnesses from among you, then, if they testify to their guilt, keep the women at home until death comes to them or until God shows them another way.

16. If two men commit a lewd act, punish them both; if they repent and mend their ways, leave them alone - God is always ready to accept repentance, He is full of mercy.

17. But God only undertakes to accept repentance from those who do evil out of ignorance and soon afterwards repent: these are the ones God will forgive, He is all knowing, all wise.

18. It is not true repentance when people continue to do evil until death confronts them and then say, 'Now I repent,' nor when they die defiant: We have prepared a painful torment for these.

19. You who believe, it is not lawful for you to inherit women against their will, nor should you treat your wives harshly, hoping to take back some of the bride-gift you gave them, unless they are guilty of something clearly outrageous. Live with them in accordance with what is fair and kind: if you dislike them, it may well be that you dislike something in which God has put much good.

60. Do you [Prophet] not see those who claim to believe in what has been sent down to you, and in what was sent down before you, yet still want to turn to unjust tyrants for judgement, although they have been ordered to reject them? Satan wants to lead them far astray.

61. When they are told, 'Turn to God's revelations and the Messenger [for judgement],' you see the hypocrites turn right away from you [Prophet].

62. If disaster strikes them because of what they themselves have done, then they will come to you, swearing by God, 'We only wanted to do good and achieve harmony.'

63. God knows well what is in the hearts of these people, so ignore what they say, instruct them, and speak to them about themselves using penetrating words.

64. All the messengers We sent were meant to be obeyed, by God's leave. If only [the hypocrites] had come to you [Prophet] when they wronged themselves, and begged God's forgiveness, and the Messenger had asked forgiveness for them, they would have found that God accepts repentance and is most merciful.

65. By your Lord, they will not be true believers until they let you decide between them in all matters of dispute, and find no resistance in their souls to your decisions, accepting them totally -

75. Why should you not fight in God's cause and for those oppressed men, women, and children who cry out, 'Lord, rescue us from this town whose people are oppressors! By Your grace, give us a protector and give us a helper!'?

Juzu' 5 🚳

76. The believers fight for God's cause, while those who reject faith fight for an unjust cause. Fight the allies of Satan: Satan's strategies are truly weak.

77. [Prophet], do you not see those who were told, 'Restrain yourselves from fighting, perform the prayer, and pay the prescribed alms'? When fighting was ordained for them, some of them feared men as much as, or even more than, they feared God, saying, 'Lord, why have You ordained fighting for us? If only You would give us just a little more time.' Say to them, 'Little is the enjoyment in this world, the Hereafter is far better for those who are mindful of God: you will not be wronged by as much as the fibre in a date stone.

78. Death will overtake you no matter where you may be, even inside high towers.' When good fortune comes their way, they say, 'This is from God,' but when harm befalls them, they say, 'This is from you [Prophet].' Say to them, 'Both come from God.' What is the matter with these people that they can barely understand what they are told?

79. Anything good that happens to you [Prophet] is from God; anything bad is [ultimately] from yourself. We have sent you as a messenger to people; God is sufficient witness.

80. Whoever obeys the Messenger obeys God. If some pay no heed, We have not sent you to be their keeper.

81. They say, 'We obey you,' but as soon as they leave your presence, some of them scheme by night to do other than what you said. God records what they scheme, so leave them alone, and put your trust in God: He is sufficient protector.

82. Will they not think about this Qur'an? If it had been from anyone other than God, they would have found much inconsistency in it.

83. Whenever news of any matter comes to them, whether concerning peace or war, they spread it about; if they referred it to the Messenger and those in authority among them, those seeking its meaning would have found it out from them. If it were not for God's bounty and mercy towards you, you would almost all have followed Satan.

84. So [Prophet] fight in God's way. You are accountable only for yourself. Urge the believers on. God may well curb the power of the disbelievers, for He is stronger in might and more terrible in punishment.

85. Whoever speaks for a good cause will share in its benefits and whoever speaks for a bad cause will share in its burden: God controls everything.

86. But [even in battle] when you [believers] are offered a greeting, respond with a better one, or at least return it: God keeps account of everything.

87. He is God: there is no god but Him. He will gather you all together on the Day of Resurrection, about which there is no doubt. Whose word can be truer than God's?

88. [Believers], why are you divided in two about the hypocrites, when God Himself has rejected them because of what they have done? Do you want to guide those God has left to stray? If God leaves anyone to stray, you [Prophet] will never find the way for him.

89.They would dearly like you to reject faith, as they themselves have done, to be like them. So do not take them as allies until they migrate [to Medina] for God's cause. If they turn [on you], then seize and kill them wherever you encounter them. Take none of them as an ally or supporter.

90. But as for those who seek refuge with people with whom you have a treaty, or who come over to you because their hearts shrink from fighting against you or against their own people, God could have given them power over you, and they would have fought you. So, if they withdraw and do not fight you, and offer you peace, then God gives you no way against them.

91. You will find others who wish to be safe from you, and from their own people, but whenever they are back in a situation where they are tempted [to fight you], they succumb to it. So, if they neither withdraw, nor offer you peace, nor restrain themselves from fighting you, seize and kill them wherever you encounter them: We give you clear authority against such people.

92. Never should a believer kill another believer, except by mistake. If anyone kills a believer by mistake, he must free one Muslim slave and pay compensation to the victim's relatives, unless they charitably forgo it; if the victim belonged to a people at war with you but is a believer, then the compensation is only to free a believing slave; if he belonged to a people with whom you have a treaty, then compensation should be handed over to his relatives, and a believing slave set free. Anyone who lacks the means to do this must fast for two consecutive months by way of repentance to God: God is all knowing, all wise.

93. If anyone kills a believer deliberately, the punishment for him is Hell, and there he will remain: God is angry with him, and rejects him, and has prepared a tremendous torment for him.

94. So, you who believe, be careful when you go to fight in God's way, and do not say to someone who offers you a greeting of peace, 'You are not a believer,' out of desire for the chance gains of this life - God has plenty of gains for you. You yourself were in the same position [once], but God was gracious to you, so be careful: God is fully aware of what you do.

95. Those believers who stay at home, apart from those with an incapacity, are not equal to those who commit themselves and their possessions to striving in God's way. God has raised such people to a rank above those who stay at home - although He has promised all believers a good reward, those who strive are favoured with a tremendous reward above those who stay at home –

96. high ranks conferred by Him, as well as forgiveness, and mercy: God is most forgiving and merciful.

97. When the angels take the souls of those who have wronged themselves, they ask them, 'What circumstances were you in?' They reply, 'We were oppressed in this land,' and the angels say, 'But was God's earth not spacious enough for you to migrate to some other place?' These people will have Hell as their refuge, an evil destination,

98. but not so the truly helpless men, women, and children who have no means in their power nor any way to leave –

99. God may well pardon these, for He is most pardoning and most forgiving. Anyone who migrates for God's cause will find many a refuge and great plenty in the earth,

100. and if anyone leaves home as a migrant towards God and His Messenger and is then overtaken by death, his reward from God is sure. God is most forgiving and most merciful.

101. When you [believers] are travelling in the land, you will not be blamed for shortening your prayers, if you fear the disbelievers may harm you: they are your sworn enemies.

102. When you [Prophet] are with the believers, leading them in prayer, let a group of them stand up in prayer with you, taking their weapons with them, and when they have finished their prostration, let them take up their positions at the back. Then let the other group, who have not yet prayed, pray with you, also on their guard and armed with their weapons: the disbelievers would dearly like you to be heedless of your weapons and baggage, in order for them to take you in a single assault. You will not be blamed if you lay aside your arms when you are overtaken by heavy rain or illness, but be on your guard. Indeed, God has prepared a humiliating punishment for the disbelievers.

103. After performing the ritual prayer, continue to remember God - standing, sitting, and lying on your sides— and once you are safe, keep up regular prayer, for prayer is obligatory for the believers at prescribed times.

104. Do not be faint-hearted in pursuing the enemy: if you are suffering hardship, so are they, but you hope to receive something from God for which they cannot hope. God is all knowing and wise.

105. We have sent down the Scripture to you [Prophet] with the truth so that you can judge between people in accordance with what God has shown you. Do not be an advocate for those who betray trust.

135. You who believe, uphold justice and bear witness to God, even if it is against yourselves, your parents, or your close relatives. Whether the person is rich or poor, God can best take care of both. Refrain from following your own desire, so that you can act justly - if you distort or neglect justice, God is fully aware of what you do.

137. As for those who believe, then reject the faith, then believe again, then reject the faith again and become increasingly defiant, God will not forgive them, nor will He guide them on any path.

138. [Prophet], tell such hypocrites that an agonizing torment awaits them.

139. Do those who ally themselves with the disbelievers rather than the believers seek power through them? In reality all power is God's to give.

140. 149. If you do good, openly or in secret, or if you pardon something bad, then God is most forgiving and powerful.

150. As for those who ignore God and His messengers and want to make a distinction between them, saying, 'We believe in some but not in others,' seeking a middle way,

151. they are really disbelievers: We have prepared a humiliating punishment for those who disbelieve.

152. But God will give [due] rewards to those who believe in Him and His messengers and make no distinction between any of them. God is most forgiving and merciful.

153. The People of the Book demand that you [Prophet] make a book physically come down to them from heaven, but they demanded even more than that of Moses when they said, 'Show us God face to face,' and were struck by the thunderbolt for their presumption. Even after clear revelations had come down to them, they took the calf as an object of worship, yet We pardoned this, and gave Moses clear authority;

154. We made the mountain tower high above them at their pledge; We said to them, 'Enter the gate humbly,' and, 'Do not break the Sabbath,' and took a solemn pledge from them.

155. And so for breaking their pledge, for rejecting God's revelations, for unjustly killing their prophets, for saying 'Our minds are closed' – No! God has sealed them in their disbelief, so they believe only a little –

156. and because they disbelieved and uttered a terrible slander against Mary,

157. and said, 'We have killed the Messiah, Jesus, son of Mary, the Messenger of God.' (They did not kill him, nor did they crucify him, though it was made to appear like that to them; those that disagreed about him are full of doubt, with no knowledge to follow, only supposition: they certainly did not kill him –

158. God raised him up to Himself. God is almighty and wise.

159. There is not one of the People of the Book who will not believe in [Jesus] before his death, and on the Day of Resurrection he will be a witness against them.)

160. For the wrongdoings done by the Jews, We forbade them certain good things that had been permitted to them before: for having frequently debarred others from God's path;

161. for taking usury when they had been forbidden to do so; and for wrongfully devouring other people's property. For those of them that reject the truth we have prepared an agonizing torment.

162. But those of them who are well grounded in knowledge and have faith do believe in what has been revealed to you [Muhammad], and in what was revealed before you – those who perform the prayers, pay the prescribed alms, and believe in God and the Last Day – to them We shall give a great reward.

164. to other messengers We have already mentioned to you, and also to some We have not. To Moses God spoke directly.

165. They were messengers bearing good news and warning, so that mankind would have no excuse before God, once the messengers had been sent: God is almighty and all wise.

166. But God Himself bears witness to what He has sent down to you – He sent it down with His full knowledge – the angels too bear witness, though God is sufficient witness.

167. Those who have disbelieved and barred others from God's path have gone far astray;

168. God will not forgive those who have disbelieved and do evil, nor will He guide them to any path

169. except that of Hell, where they will remain for ever – this is easy for God.

171. People of the Book, do not go to excess in your religion, and do not say anything about God except the truth: the Messiah, Jesus, son of Mary, was nothing more than a messenger of God, His word, directed to Mary, a spirit from Him. So, believe in God and His messengers and do not speak of a 'Trinity' – stop [this], that is better for you – God is only one God, He is far above having a son, everything in the heavens and earth belongs to Him and He is the best one to trust.

NISÂ' 4 🕹 👌 👌 👌 👌 👌 👌 👌 👌 👌 👌 👌 👌 👌

172. The Messiah would never disdain to be a servant of God, nor would the angels who are close to Him. He will gather before Him all those who disdain His worship and are arrogant:

173. to those who believe and do good works He will give due rewards and more of His bounty; to those who are disdainful and arrogant He will give an agonizing torment, and they will find no one besides God to protect or help them.

174. People, convincing proof has come to you from your Lord and We have sent a clear light down to you.

175. God will admit those who believe in Him and hold fast to Him into His mercy and favour; He will guide them towards Him on a straight path.

176. They ask you [Prophet] for a ruling. Say, 'God gives you a ruling about inheritance from someone who dies childless with no surviving parents. If a man leaves a sister, she is entitled to half of the inheritance; if she has no child her brother is her sole heir; if there are two sisters, they are entitled to two-thirds of the inheritance between them, but if there are surviving brothers and sisters, the male is entitled to twice the share of the female. God makes this clear to you so that you do not make mistakes: He has full knowledge of everything.'

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

1. You who believe, fulfil your obligations. Livestock animals are lawful as food for you, with the exception of what is about to be announced to you. You are forbidden to kill game while you are on pilgrimage - God commands what He will,

2. so, you who believe, do not violate the sanctity of God's rites, the Sacred Month, the offerings, their garlands, nor those going to the Sacred House to seek the bounty and pleasure of their Lord - but when you have completed the rites of pilgrimage you may hunt. Do not let your hatred for the people who barred you from the Sacred Mosque induce you to break the law: help one another to do what is right and good; do not help one another towards sin and hostility. Be mindful of God, for His punishment is severe.

3. You are forbidden to eat carrion; blood; pig's meat; any animal over which any name other than God's has been invoked; any animal strangled, or victim of a violent blow or a fall, or gored or savaged by a beast of prey, unless you still slaughter it [in the correct manner]; or anything sacrificed on idolatrous altars. You are also forbidden to allot shares [of meat] by drawing marked arrows – a heinous practice – today the disbelievers have lost all hope that you will give up your religion. Do not fear them: fear Me. Today I have perfected your religion for you, completed My blessing upon you, and chosen as your religion Islam: [total devotion to God]; but if any of you is forced by hunger to eat forbidden food, with no intention of doing wrong, then God is most forgiving and merciful.

4. They ask you, Prophet, what is lawful for them. Say, 'All good things are lawful for you.' [This includes] what you have taught your birds and beasts of prey to catch, teaching them as God has taught you, so eat what they catch for you, but first pronounce God's name over it. Be mindful of God: He is swift to take account.

5. Today all good things have been made lawful for you. The food of the People of the Book is lawful for you as your food is lawful for them. So are chaste, believing, women as well as chaste women of the people who were given the Scripture before you, as long as you have given them their bridal-gifts and married them, not taking them as lovers or secret mistresses. The deeds of anyone who rejects faith will come to nothing, and in the Hereafter, he will be one of the losers.

11. You who believe, remember God's blessing on you when a certain people were about to raise their hands against you and He restrained them. Be mindful of God: let the believers put their trust in Him.

12. God took a pledge from the Children of Israel. We made twelve leaders arise among them, and God said, 'I am with you: if you keep up the prayer, pay the prescribed alms, believe in My messengers and support them, and lend God a good loan, I will wipe out your sins and admit you into Gardens graced with flowing streams. Any of you who now ignore this [pledge] will be far from the right path.'

13. But they broke their pledge, so We distanced them [from Us] and hardened their hearts. They distort the meaning of [revealed] words and have forgotten some of what they were told to remember: you [Prophet] will always find treachery in all but a few of them. Overlook this and pardon them: God loves those who do good.

32. On account of [his deed], We decreed to the Children of Israel that if anyone kills a person – unless in retribution for murder or spreading corruption in the land – it is as if he kills all mankind, while if any saves a life it is as if he saves the lives of all mankind. Our messengers came to them with clear signs, but many of them continued to commit excesses in the land.

33. Those who wage war against God and His Messenger and strive to spread corruption in the land should be punished by death, crucifixion, the amputation of an alternate hand and foot, or banishment from the land: a disgrace for them in this world, and then a terrible punishment in the Hereafter,

34. unless they repent before you overpower them – in that case bear in mind that God is forgiving and merciful.

35. You who believe, be mindful of God, seek ways to come closer to Him and strive for His cause, so that you may prosper.

36. If the disbelievers possessed all that is in the earth and twice as much again and offered it to ransom themselves from torment on the Day of Resurrection, it would not be accepted from them – they will have a painful torment.

43. but why do they come to you for judgement when they have the Torah with God's judgement, and even then, still turn away? These are not believers.

44. We revealed the Torah with guidance and light, and the prophets, who had submitted to God, judged according to it for the Jews. So did the rabbis and the scholars in accordance with that part of God's Scripture which they were entrusted to preserve, and to which they were witnesses. So [rabbis and scholars] do not fear people, fear Me; do not barter away My messages for a small price; those who do not judge according to what God has sent down are rejecting [God's teachings].

45. In the Torah We prescribed for them a life for a life, an eye for an eye, a nose for a nose, an ear for an ear, a tooth for a tooth, an equal wound for a wound: if anyone forgoes this out of charity, it will serve as atonement for his bad deeds. Those who do not judge according to what God has revealed are doing grave wrong.

48. We sent to you [Muhammad] the Scripture with the truth, confirming the Scriptures that came before it, and with final authority over them: so, judge between them according to what God has sent down. Do not follow their whims, which deviate from the truth that has come to you. We have assigned a law and a path to each of you. If God had so willed, He would have made you one community, but He wanted to test you through that which He has given you, so race to do good: you will all return to God and He will make clear to you the matters you differed about.

49. So [Prophet] judge between them according to what God has sent down. Do not follow their whims, and take good care that they do not tempt you away from any of what God has sent down to you. If they turn away, remember that God intends to punish them for some of the sins they have committed: a great many people are lawbreakers.

50. Do they want judgement according to the time of pagan ignorance? Is there any better judge than God for those of firm faith?

52. yet you [Prophet] will see the perverse at heart rushing to them for protection, saying, 'We are afraid fortune may turn against us.' But God may well bring about a triumph or some other event of His own making: then they will rue the secrets they harboured in their hearts,

53. and the believers will say, 'Are these the men who swore by God using their strongest oaths that they were with you?' All they did was in vain: they have lost everything.

54. You who believe, if any of you go back on your faith, God will soon replace you with people He loves and who love Him, people who are humble towards the believers, hard on the disbelievers, and who strive in God's way without fearing anyone's reproach. Such is God's favour. He grants it to whoever He will. God has endless bounty and knowledge.

55. Your true allies are God, His Messenger, and the believers – those who keep up the prayer, pay the prescribed alms, and bow down in worship.

56. Those who turn for protection to God, His Messenger, and the believers [are God's party]: God's party is sure to triumph.

57. You who believe, do not take as allies those who ridicule your religion and make fun of it – whether people who were given the Scripture before you, or disbelievers – and be mindful of God if you are true believers.

59. Say [Prophet], 'People of the Book, do you resent us for any reason other than the fact that we believe in God, in what has been sent down to us, and in what was sent before us, while most of you are disobedient?'

60. Say, 'Shall I tell you who deserves a worse punishment from God than [the one you wish upon] us? Those God distanced from Himself, was angry with, and condemned as apes and pigs, and those who worship idols: they are worse in rank and have strayed further from the right path.

61. When they come to you [believers], they say, 'We believe,' but they come disbelieving and leave disbelieving – God knows best what they are hiding.

62. You [Prophet] see many of them rushing into sin and hostility and consuming what is unlawful. How evil their practices are!

63. Why do their rabbis and scholars not forbid them to speak sinfully and consume what is unlawful? How evil their deeds are!

64. The Jews have said, 'God is tight-fisted,' but it is they who are tight-fisted, and they are rejected for what they have said. Truly, God's hands are open wide: He gives as He pleases. What has been sent down to you from your Lord is sure to increase insolence and defiance in many of them. We have sown enmity and hatred amongst them till the Day of Resurrection. Whenever they kindle the fire of war, God will put it out. They try to spread corruption in the land, but God does not love those who corrupt.

90. You who believe, intoxicants and gambling, idolatrous practices, and [divining with] arrows are repugnant acts – Satan's doing – shun them so that you may prosper.

🔶 🗢 MÂ-'IDAH 5 💊 🕹 🕹 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶

91. With intoxicants and gambling, Satan seeks only to incite enmity and hatred among you, and to stop you remembering God and prayer. Will you not give them up?

92. Obey God, obey the Messenger, and always be on your guard: if you pay no heed, bear in mind that the sole duty of Our Messenger is to deliver the message clearly.

93. Those who believe and do good deeds will not be blamed for what they may have consumed [in the past] as long as they are mindful of God, believe and do good deeds, then are mindful of God and believe, then are mindful of God and do good deeds: God loves those who do good deeds.

94. You who believe, God is sure to test you with game within reach of your hands and spears, to find out who fears Him even though they cannot see Him: from now on, anyone who transgresses will have a painful punishment.

95. You who believe, do not kill game while you are in the state of consecration [for pilgrimage]. If someone does so intentionally the penalty is an offering of a domestic animal brought to the Ka'ba, equivalent – as judged by two just men among you – to the one he has killed; alternatively, he may atone by feeding the needy or by fasting an equivalent number of days, so that he may taste the full gravity of his deed. God forgives what is past, but if anyone reoffends, God will exact the penalty from him: God is mighty, and capable of exacting the penalty.

96. It is permitted for you to catch and eat seafood – an enjoyment for you and the traveller – but hunting game is forbidden while you are in the state of consecration [for pilgrimage]. Be mindful of God to whom you will be gathered.

97. God has made the Ka'ba – the Sacred House – a means of support for people, and the Sacred Months, the animals for sacrifice and their garlands: all this. Know that God has knowledge of all that is in the heavens and earth and that He is fully aware of all things.

98. Know too that God is severe in punishment yet most forgiving and merciful.

99. The Messenger's duty is only to deliver the message: God knows what you reveal and what you conceal.

100. Say [Prophet], 'Bad cannot be likened to good, though you may be dazzled by how abundant the bad is. Be mindful of God, people of understanding, so that you may prosper.'

101. You who believe, do not ask about matters which, if made known to you, might make things difficult for you – if you ask about them while the Qur'an is being revealed, they will be made known to you – for God has kept silent about them: God is most forgiving and forbearing.

102. Before you, some people asked about things, then ignored [the answers].

103. God did not institute the dedication of such things as bahira, sa'iba, wasila, or ham to idols; but the disbelievers invent lies about God. Most of them do not use reason:

106. You who believe, when death approaches any of you, let two just men from among you act as witnesses to the making of a bequest, or two men from another people if you are journeying in the land when death approaches. Keep the two witnesses back after prayer, if you have any doubts, and make them both swear by God, 'We will not sell our testimony for any price, even if a close relative is involved. We will not hide God's testimony, for then we should be doing wrong.'

107. If it is discovered that these two are guilty [of perjury], two of those whose rights have been usurped have a better right to bear witness in their place. Let them swear by God, 'Our testimony is truer than theirs. We have said nothing but the truth, for that would make us wrongdoers':

1. Praise belongs to God who created the heavens and the earth and made darkness and light; yet the disbelievers set up equals to their Lord!

2. He is the one who created you from clay and specified a term [for you] and another fixed time, known only to Him; yet still you doubt!

3. He is God in the heavens and on earth, He knows your secrets and what you reveal, and He knows what you do;

4. but every time revelation comes to them from their Lord, they turn their backs on it.

5. So they denied the truth when it came to them, but the very thing they laughed at will be brought home to them.

6. Do they not realize how many generations We destroyed before them? We established them in the earth more firmly than you, sent down abundant rain on them from the sky and made running rivers flow at their feet, yet We destroyed them for their misdeeds and raised other generations after them.

7. Even if We had sent down to you [Prophet] a book inscribed on parchment, and they had touched it with their own hands, the disbelievers would still say, 'This is nothing but blatant sorcery.'

8. They say, 'Why was no angel sent down to [support] him?' But had We sent down an angel, their judgement would have come at once with no respite given.

24. See how they lie against themselves and how those they invented have deserted them.

25. Among them are some who [appear to] listen to you, but we have placed covers over their hearts – so they do not understand the Qur'an – and deafness in their ears. Even if they saw every sign, they would not believe in them. So, when they come to you, they argue with you: the disbelievers say, 'These are nothing but ancient fables,'

26. and tell others not to listen [to the Qur'an], while they themselves keep away from it. But they ruin no one but themselves, though they fail to realize this.

27. If you could only see, when they are made to stand before the Fire, how they will say, 'If only we could be sent back, we would not reject the revelations of our Lord, but be among the believers.'

30. If you could only see, when they are made to stand before their Lord, how He will say, 'Is this not real?' They will say, 'Yes indeed, by our Lord.' He will say, 'Then taste the torment for having disbelieved.'

31. Lost indeed are those who deny the meeting with their Lord until, when the Hour suddenly arrives, they say, 'Alas for us that we disregarded this!' They will bear their burdens on their backs. How terrible those burdens will be!

32. The life of this world is nothing but a game and a distraction; the Home in the Hereafter is best for those who are aware of God. Why will you [people] not understand?

33. We know well that what they say grieves you [Prophet]. It is not you they disbelieve: the evildoers reject God's revelation.

34. Other messengers were disbelieved before you, and they bore their rejection and persecution steadfastly until Our aid arrived – no one can alter God's promises. You have already received accounts of these messengers.

35. If you find rejection by the disbelievers so hard to bear, then seek a tunnel into the ground or a ladder into the sky, if you can, and bring them a sign: God could bring them all to guidance if it were His will, so do not join the ignorant.

36. Only those who can hear will respond; as for the dead, God will raise them up, and to Him they will all be returned.

37. They also say, 'Why has no sign been sent down to him from his Lord?' Say, 'God certainly has the power to send down a sign,' though most of them do not know:

38. all the creatures that crawl on the earth and those that fly with their wings are communities like yourselves. We have missed nothing out of the Record – in the end they will be gathered to their Lord.

39. Those who reject Our signs are deaf, dumb, and in total darkness. God leaves whoever He will to stray, and sets whoever He will on a straight path.

40. Say, 'Think: if the punishment of God or the Hour should come to you, would you call on anyone other than God, if you are being truthful?'

41. No indeed, it is on Him that you would call. If it were His will, He could remove whatever harm made you call on Him, and then you would forget what you now associate with Him.

42. We sent messengers before you [Prophet] to many communities and afflicted their people with suffering and hardships, so that they could learn humility.

43. If only they had learned humility when suffering came from Us! But no, their hearts became hard and Satan made their foul deeds alluring to them.

44. So, when they had forgotten the warning, they had received, We opened the gates to everything for them. Then, as they revelled in what they had been given, We struck them suddenly and they were dumbfounded.

74. Remember when Abraham said to his father, Azar, 'How can you take idols as gods? I see that you and your people have clearly gone astray.'

🔶 🔶 'AN-'AM 🌀 🔶 🔄 🔄 🔄 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶 🔶

75. In this way We showed Abraham [God's] mighty dominion over the heavens and the earth, so that he might be a firm believer.

76. When the night grew dark over him, he saw a star and said, 'This is my Lord,' but when it set, he said, 'I do not like things that set.'

77. And when he saw the moon rising, he said, 'This is my Lord,' but when it too set, he said, 'If my Lord does not guide me, I shall be one of those who go astray.'

78. Then he saw the sun rising and cried, 'This is my Lord! This is greater.' But when the sun set, he said, 'My people, I disown all that you worship beside God.

79. I have turned my face as a true believer towards Him who created the heavens and the earth. I am not one of the polytheists.'

80. His people argued with him, and he said, 'How can you argue with me about God when He has guided me? I do not fear anything you associate with Him: unless my Lord wills [nothing can happen]. My Lord encompasses everything in His knowledge. How can you not take heed?

81. Why should I fear what you associate with Him? Why do you not fear to associate with Him things for which He has sent you no authority? Tell me, if you know the answer, which side has more right to feel secure?

82. It is those who have faith, and do not mix their faith with idolatry, who will be secure, and it is they who are rightly guided.'

83. Such was the argument We gave to Abraham against his people – We raise in rank whoever We will – your Lord is all wise, all knowing.

84. We gave him Isaac and Jacob, each of whom We guided, as We had guided Noah before, and among his descendants were David, Solomon, Job, Joseph, Moses, and Aaron – in this way We reward those who do good –

85. Zachariah, John, Jesus, and Elijah – every one of them was righteous –

86. Ishmael, Elisha, Jonah, and Lot. We favoured each one of them over other people,

87. and also some of their forefathers, their offspring, and their brothers: We chose them and guided them on a straight path.

88. Such is God's guidance, with which He guides whichever of His servants He will. If they had associated other gods with Him, all their deeds would have come to nothing.

89. Those are the ones to whom We gave the Scripture, wisdom, and prophethood. Even if these people now disbelieve in them, We have entrusted them to others who do not disbelieve.

90. Those were the people God guided, '[Prophet], follow the guidance they received.' Say, 'I ask no reward for it from you: it is a lesson for all people.'

Say, 'Who was it who sent down the Scripture, which Moses brought as a light and a guide to people, which you made into separate sheets, showing some but hiding many? You were taught things that neither you nor your forefathers had known.' Say, 'God [sent it down],' then leave them engrossed in their vain talk.

93. Who could be more wicked than someone who invents a lie against God, or claims, 'A revelation has come to me,' when no revelation has been sent to him, or says, 'I too can reveal something equal to God's revelation'? If you could only see the wicked in their death agonies, as the angels stretch out their hands [to them], saying, 'Give up your souls. Today you will be repaid with a humiliating punishment for saying false things about God and for arrogantly rejecting His revelations.'

94. [God will say], 'Now you return to Us, alone, as We first created you: you have left behind everything We gave you, nor do We see those intercessors of yours that you claimed were partners of God. All the bonds between you have been severed, and those about whom you made such claims have deserted you.'

98. It is He who first produced you from a single soul, then gave you a place to stay [in life] and a resting place [after death]. We have made Our revelations clear to those who understand.

99. It is He who sends down water from the sky. With it We produce the shoots of each plant, then bring greenery from it, and from that We bring out grains, one riding on the other in close-packed rows. From the date palm come clusters of low -hanging dates, and there are gardens of vines, olives, and pomegranates, alike yet different. Watch their fruits as they grow and ripen! In all this there are signs for those who would believe.

125. When God wishes to guide someone, He opens their breast to Islam; when He wishes to lead them astray, He closes and constricts their breast as if they were climbing up to the skies. That is how God makes the foulness of those who do not believe rebound against them.

126. [Prophet], this is the path of your Lord, made perfectly straight. We have explained Our revelations to those who take heed.

127. They shall have the Home of Peace with their Lord, and He will take care of them as a reward for their deeds.

128. On the day He gathers everyone together [saying], 'Company of jinn! You have seduced a great many humans,' their adherents among mankind will say, 'Lord, we have profited from one another, but now we have reached the appointed time You decreed for us.' He will say, 'Your home is the Fire, and there you shall remain' – unless God wills otherwise: [Prophet], your Lord is all wise, all knowing.

129. In this way, We make some evildoers have power over others through their misdeeds.

130. 'Company of jinn and mankind! Did messengers not come from among you to recite My revelations to you and warn that you would meet this Day?' They will say, 'We testify against ourselves.' The life of this world seduced them, but they will testify against themselves that they rejected the truth:

131. your Lord would not destroy towns for their wrongdoing if they had not been warned.

132. Everyone is assigned a rank according to their deeds; your Lord is not unaware of anything they do.

133. Your Lord is self-sufficient and full of mercy. If He pleased, He could remove you and put others in your place, just as He produced you from the offspring of other people.

134. What you are promised is sure to come, and you cannot escape.

135. [Prophet], say, 'My people, you carry on as you are, and so will I: you will come to realize who will have a happy homecoming in the Hereafter.' The evildoers will not prosper.

136. They apportion to God a share of the produce and the livestock He created, saying, 'This is for God' – so they claim! – 'and this is for our idols.' Their idols' share does not reach God, but God's share does reach their idols: how badly they judge!

137. In the same way, their idols have induced many of the pagans to kill their own children, bringing them ruin and confusion in their faith: if God had willed otherwise, they would not have done this, so [Prophet] leave them to their own devices.

138. They also say, 'These cattle and crops are reserved, and only those we allow may eat them' – so they claim! There are some animals they exempt from labour and some over which they do not pronounce God's name [during slaughter], falsely attributing these [regulations] to Him: He will repay them for the falsehoods they invent.

139. They also say, 'The contents of these animals' wombs will be reserved solely for our men and forbidden to our women, though if the offspring is stillborn, they may have a share of it.' He will punish them for what they attribute to Him: He is all wise, all aware.

140. Lost indeed are those who kill their own children out of folly, with no basis in knowledge, forbidding what God has provided for them, fabricating lies against Him: they have gone far astray and have heeded no guidance.

141. It is He who produces both trellised and untrellised gardens, date palms, crops of diverse flavours, the olive, the pomegranate, alike yet different. So, when they bear fruit, eat some of it, paying what is due on the day of harvest, but do not be wasteful: God does not like wasteful people.

142. [He gave you] livestock, as beasts of burden and as food. So, eat what God has provided for you and do not follow in Satan's footsteps: he is your sworn enemy.

143. [God gave you] eight animals, in [four] pairs: a pair of sheep and a pair of goats – ask them [Prophet], 'Has He forbidden the two males, the two females, or the young in the wombs of the two females? Tell me based on knowledge if you are telling the truth.'

144. And a pair of camels and a pair of cattle – ask them [Prophet], 'Has He forbidden the two males, the two females, or the young in the wombs of the two females? Were you present when God gave you these commands?' So, who is more wicked than he who fabricates lies against God with no basis in knowledge in order to lead people astray? God does not guide the evildoers.

145. [Prophet], say, 'In all that has been revealed to me, I find nothing forbidden for people to eat, except for carrion, flowing blood, pig's meat – it is loathsome – or a sinful offering over which any name other than God's has been invoked.' But if someone is forced by hunger, rather than desire or excess, then God is most forgiving and most merciful.

146. We forbade for the Jews every animal with claws, and the fat of cattle and sheep, except what is on their backs and in their intestines, or that which sticks to their bones. This is how We penalized them for their disobedience: We are true to Our word.

2. This Book has been sent down to you [Prophet] - let there be no anxiety in your heart because of it - so that you may use it to give warning and to remind the believers:

3. 'Follow what has been sent down to you from your Lord; do not follow other masters beside Him. How seldom you take heed!'

4. How many towns We have destroyed! Our punishment came to them by night or while they slept in the afternoon:

5. their only cry when Our punishment came to them was, 'How wrong we were!'

6. We shall certainly question those to whom messengers were sent and We shall question the messengers themselves –

7. and, with full knowledge, for We were never far from them, We shall tell them what they did.

8. On that Day the weighing of deeds will be true and just: those whose good deeds are heavy on the scales will be the ones to prosper,

9. and those whose good deeds are light will be the ones who have lost their souls through their wrongful rejection of Our messages.

10. We established you [people] on the earth and provided you with a means of livelihood there - small thanks you give!

11. We created you, We gave you shape, and then We said to the angels, 'Bow down before Adam,' and they did. But not Iblis: he was not one of those who bowed down.

14. but Iblis said, 'Give me respite until the Day people are raised from the dead,'

15. and God replied, 'You have respite.'

16. And then Iblis said, 'Because You have put me in the wrong, I will lie in wait for them all on Your straight path:

17. I will come at them – from their front and their back, from their right and their left – and You will find that most of them are ungrateful.'

18. God said, 'Get out! You are disgraced and banished! I swear I shall fill Hell with you and all who follow you!

19. But you and your wife, Adam, live in the Garden. Both of you eat whatever you like, but do not go near this tree or you will become wrongdoers.'

20. Satan whispered to them so as to expose their nakedness, which had been hidden from them: he said, 'Your Lord only forbade you this tree to prevent you becoming angels or immortals,'

21. and he swore to them, 'I am giving you sincere advice' –

22. he lured them with lies. Their nakedness became exposed to them when they had eaten from the tree: they began to put together leaves from the Garden to cover themselves. Their Lord called to them, 'Did I not forbid you to approach that tree? Did I not warn you that Satan was your sworn enemy?'

25. He said, 'There you will live; there you will die; from there you will be brought out.'

26. Children of Adam, We have given you garments to cover your nakedness and as adornment for you; the garment of Godconsciousness is the best of all garments – this is one of God's signs, so that people may take heed.

27. Children of Adam, do not let Satan seduce you, as he did your parents, causing them to leave the Garden, stripping them of their garments to expose their nakedness to them: he and his forces can see you from where you cannot see them: We have made evil one's allies to those who do not believe.

28. Yet when [these people] do something disgraceful, they say, 'We found our forefathers doing this,' and, 'God has commanded us to do this.' Say [Prophet], 'God does not command disgraceful deeds. How can you say about God things that you do not know [to be true]?'

31. Children of Adam, dress well whenever you are at worship, and eat and drink [as We have permitted] but do not be extravagant: God does not like extravagant people.

32. Say [Prophet], 'Who has forbidden the adornment and the nourishment God has provided for His servants?' Say, 'They are [allowed] for those who believe during the life of this world: they will be theirs alone on the Day of Resurrection.' This is how We make Our revelation clear for those who understand.

33. Say [Prophet], 'My Lord only forbids disgraceful deeds – whether they be open or hidden – and sin and unjustified aggression, and that you, without His sanction, associate things with Him, and that you say things about Him without knowledge.'

34. There is a time set for every people: they cannot hasten it, nor, when it comes, will they be able to delay it for a single moment.

35. Children of Adam, when messengers come to you from among yourselves, reciting My revelations to you, for those who are conscious of God and live righteously, there will be no fear, nor will they grieve.

36. But those who reject Our revelations and arrogantly scorn them are the people of the Fire and there they will remain.

37. Who is more wrong than the person who invents lies against God or rejects His revelations? Such people will have their preordained share [in this world], but then, when Our angels arrive to take them back, saying, 'Where are those you used to call on beside God?' they will say, 'They have deserted us.' They will confess that they were disbelievers

52. We have brought people a Scripture – We have explained it on the basis of true knowledge – as guidance and mercy for those who believe.

'A'-RÂF 7

53. What are they waiting for but the fulfilment of its [final prophecy]? On the Day it is fulfilled, those who had ignored it will say, 'Our Lord's messenger spoke the truth. Is there anyone to intercede for us now? Or can we be sent back to behave differently from the way we behaved before?' They will really have squandered their souls, and all [the idols] they invented will have deserted them.

54. Your Lord is God, who created the heavens and earth in six Days, then established Himself on the throne; He makes the night cover the day in swift pursuit; He created the sun, moon, and stars to be subservient to His command; all creation and command belong to Him. Exalted be God, Lord of all the worlds!

55. Call on your Lord humbly and privately – He does not like those who transgress His bounds:

56. do not corrupt the earth after it has been set right – call on Him fearing and hoping. The mercy of God is close to those who do good.

57. It is God who sends the winds, bearing good news of His coming grace, and when they have gathered up the heavy clouds, We drive them to a dead land where We cause rain to fall, bringing out all kinds of crops, just as We shall bring out the dead. Will you not reflect?

59. We sent Noah to his people. He said, 'My people, serve God: you have no god other than Him. I fear for you the punishment of a fearsome Day!'

60. but the prominent leaders of his people said, 'We believe you are far astray.'

61. He replied, 'My people, there is nothing astray about me! On the contrary, I am a messenger from the Lord of all the Worlds:

62. I am delivering my Lord's messages to you and giving you sincere advice. I know things from God that you do not.

63. Do you find it so strange that a message should come from your Lord – through a man in your midst – to warn you and make you aware of God so that you may be given mercy?'

64. but they called him a liar. We saved him, and those who were with him, on the Ark and We drowned those who rejected Our revelations – they were wilfully blind.

65. To the people of 'Ad We sent their brother, Hud. He said, 'My people, serve God: you have no god other than Him. Will you not take heed?'

66. but the disbelieving leaders of his people said, 'We believe you are a fool,' and 'We think you are a liar.'

126. Your only grievance against us is that we believed in the signs of our Lord when they came to us. Our Lord, pour steadfastness upon us and let us die in devotion to You.'

127. The leaders among Pharaoh's people said to him, 'But are you going to leave Moses and his people to spread corruption in the land and forsake you and your gods?' He replied, 'We shall kill their male children, sparing only the females: We have complete power over them.'

128. Moses said to his people, 'Turn to God for help and be steadfast: the earth belongs to God – He gives it as their own to whichever of His servants He chooses – and the happy future belongs to those who are mindful of Him,'

129. and they replied, 'We were being persecuted long before you came to us, and since then too.' He said, 'Your Lord may well destroy your enemy and make you successors to the land to see how you behave.'

130. We inflicted years of drought and crop failure on Pharaoh's people, so that they might take heed,

131. then, when something good came their way, they said, 'This is our due!'. When something bad came, they ascribed it to the evil omen of Moses and those with him, but their 'evil omen' was really from God, though most of them did not realize it.

'A'-RÂF 7

132. They said, 'We will not believe in you, no matter what signs you produce to cast a spell on us,'

133. and so We let loose on them the flood, locusts, lice, frogs, blood – all clear signs. They were arrogant, wicked people.

134. They would say, whenever a plague struck them, 'Moses, pray to your Lord for us by virtue of the promise He has made to you: if you relieve us of the plague, we will believe you and let the Children of Israel go with you,'

135. but when We relieved them of the plague and gave them a fixed period [in which to fulfil their promise] – lo and behold! – they broke it.

136. And so, because they rejected Our signs and paid them no heed, We exacted retribution from them: We drowned them in the sea

137. and We made those who had been oppressed succeed to both the east and the west of the land that We had blessed. Your Lord's good promise to the Children of Israel was fulfilled, because of their patience, and We destroyed what Pharaoh and his people were making and what they were building.

142. We appointed thirty nights for Moses, then added ten more: the term set by his Lord was completed in forty nights. Moses said to his brother Aaron, 'Take my place among my people: act rightly and do not follow the way of those who spread corruption.'

143. When Moses came for the appointment, and his Lord spoke to him, he said, 'My Lord, show Yourself to me: let me see You!' He said, 'You will never see Me, but look at that mountain: if it remains standing firm, you will see Me,' and when his Lord revealed Himself to the mountain, He made it crumble: Moses fell down unconscious. When he recovered, he said, 'Glory be to You! To You I turn in repentance! I am the first to believe!'

172. [Prophet], when your Lord took out the offspring from the loins of the Children of Adam and made them bear witness about themselves, He said, 'Am I not your Lord?' and they replied, 'Yes, we bear witness.' So, you cannot say on the Day of Resurrection, 'We were not aware of this,'

173. or, 'It was our forefathers who, before us, ascribed partners to God, and we are only the descendants who came after them: will you destroy us because of falsehoods they invented?'

174. In this way We explain the messages, so that they may turn [to the right path].

175. [Prophet], tell them the story of the man to whom We gave Our messages: he sloughed them off, so Satan took him as his follower and he went astray –

176. if it had been Our will, We could have used these signs to raise him high, but instead he clung to the earth and followed his own desires— he was like a dog that pants with a lolling tongue whether you drive it away or leave it alone. Such is the image of those who reject Our signs. Tell them the story so that they may reflect.

177. How foul is the image of those who reject Our signs! It is themselves they wrong:

178. whoever God guides is truly guided, and whoever God allows to stray is a loser.

179. We have created many jinn and people who are destined for Hell, with hearts they do not use for comprehension, eyes they do not use for sight, ears they do not use for hearing. They are like cattle, no, even further astray: these are the ones who are entirely heedless.

180. The Most Excellent Names belong to God: use them to call on Him, and keep away from those who abuse them – they will be requited for what they do.

181. Among those We created are a group of people who guide with truth and act justly according to it.

182. But We lead on those who reject Our messages, step by step, without them realizing it:

185. Have they not contemplated the realm of the heavens and earth and all that God created, and that the end of their time might be near? What [other revelation] will they believe in if they do not believe in this?

186. No one can guide those God allows to stray: He leaves them blundering about in their insolence.

187. They ask you [Prophet] about the Hour, 'When will it happen?' Say, 'My Lord alone has knowledge of it: He alone will reveal when its time will come, a time that is momentous in both the heavens and earth. All too suddenly it will come upon you.' 2. true believers are those whose hearts tremble with awe when God is mentioned, whose faith increases when His revelations are recited to them, who put their trust in their Lord,

3. who keep up the prayer and give to others out of what We provide for them.

4. Those are the ones who truly believe. They have high standing with their Lord, forgiveness, and generous provision.

5. For it was your Lord who made you [Prophet] venture from your home for a true purpose – though a group of the believers disliked it

6. and argued with you about the truth after it had been made clear, as if they were being driven towards a death they could see with their own eyes.

7. Remember how God promised you [believers] that one of the two enemy groups would fall to you: you wanted the unarmed group to be yours, but it was God's will to establish the truth according to His Word and to finish off the disbelievers –

8. to prove the Truth to be true, and the false to be false, much as the guilty might dislike it.

27. Believers, do not betray God and the Messenger, or knowingly betray [other people's] trust in you.

28. Be aware that your possessions and your children are only a test, and that there is a tremendous reward with God.

29. Believers, if you remain mindful of God, He will give you a criterion [to tell right from wrong] and wipe out your bad deeds, and forgive you: God's favour is great indeed.

30. Remember [Prophet] when the disbelievers plotted to take you captive, kill, or expel you. They schemed and so did God: He is the best of schemers.

31. Whenever Our Revelation is recited to them, they say, 'We have heard all this before – we could say something like this if we wanted – this is nothing but ancient fables.'

32. They also said, 'God, if this really is the truth from You, then rain stones on us from the heavens, or send us some other painful punishment.'

33. But God would not send them punishment while you [Prophet] are in their midst, nor would He punish them if they sought forgiveness,

41. Know that one-fifth of your battle gains belongs to God and the Messenger, to close relatives and orphans, to the needy and travellers, if you believe in God and the revelation We sent down to Our servant on the day of the decision, the day when the two forces met in battle. God has power over all things.

42. Remember when you were on the near side of the valley, and they were on the far side and the caravan was below you. If you had made an appointment to fight, you would have failed to keep it [but the battle took place] so that God might bring about something already ordained, so that those who were to die might die after seeing a clear proof, and so that those who were to live might live after seeing a clear proof – God is all hearing and all seeing.

43. [Prophet], remember when God made you see them in your sleep as few: if He had shown them to you [believers] as many, you would certainly have lost heart and argued about it, but God saved you. He knows the secrets of the heart.

44. When you met, He showed them to you as few, and He made you few in their eyes, so that He might bring about what has been ordained: everything goes back to God.

45. Believers, when you meet a force in battle, stand firm and keep God firmly in mind, so that you may prosper.

46. Obey God and His Messenger, and do not guarrel with one another, or you may lose heart and your spirit may desert you. Be steadfast: God is with the steadfast.

47. Do not be like those who came out of their homes full of conceit, showing off to people, and barring others from the way of God – God has full knowledge of all that they do.

48. Satan made their foul deeds seem fair to them, and said, 'No one will conquer you today, for I will be right beside you,' but when the armies came within sight of one another he turned on his heels, saying, 'This is where I leave you: I see what you do not, and I fear God – God is severe in His punishment.'

49. The hypocrites and those who have sickness in their hearts said, 'These people [the believers] must be deluded by their religion,' but if anyone puts his trust in God, God is mighty and wise.

50. If only you [Prophet] could see, when the angels take the souls of the disbelievers, how they strike their faces and backs: it will be said, 'Taste the punishment of the Fire.

51. This is caused by what your own hands have stored up for you: God is never unjust to His creatures.'

70. Prophet, tell those you have taken captive, 'If God knows of any good in your hearts, He will give you something better than what has been taken from you, and He will forgive you: God is forgiving and merciful.'

71. But if they mean to betray you, they have betrayed God before, and He has given you mastery over them: He is all knowing, all wise.

72. Those who believed and emigrated [to Medina] and struggled for God's cause with their possessions and persons, and those who gave refuge and help, are all allies of one another. As for those who believed but did not emigrate, you are not responsible for their protection until they have done so. But if they seek help from you against persecution, it is your duty to assist them, except against people with whom you have a treaty: God sees all that you do.

73. The disbelievers support one another. If you do not do the same, there will be persecution in the land and great corruption.

74. Those who believed and emigrated, and struggled for God's cause, and those who gave refuge and help – they are the true believers and they will have forgiveness and generous provision.

75. And those who came to believe afterwards, and emigrated and struggled alongside you, they are part of you, but relatives still have prior claim over one another in God's Scripture: God has full knowledge of all things.

REPENTANCE

1. A release by God and His Messenger from the treaty you [believers] made with the idolaters [is announced] –

2. you [idolaters] may move freely about the land for four months, but you should bear in mind both that you will not escape God, and that God will disgrace those who defy [Him].

3. On the Day of the Great Pilgrimage [there will be] a proclamation from God and His Messenger to all people: 'God and His Messenger are released from [treaty] obligations to the idolaters. It will be better for you [idolaters] if you repent; know that you cannot escape God if you turn away.' [Prophet], warn those who ignore [God] that they will have a painful punishment.

4. As for those who have honoured the treaty you made with them and who have not supported anyone against you: fulfil your agreement with them to the end of their term. God loves those who are mindful of Him.

5. When the [four] forbidden months are over, wherever you encounter the idolaters, kill them, seize them, besiege them, wait for them at every lookout post; but if they turn [to God], maintain the prayer, and pay the prescribed alms, let them go on their way, for God is most forgiving and merciful.

6. If any one of the idolaters should seek your protection [Prophet], grant it to him so that he may hear the word of God, then take him to a place safe for him, for they are people with no knowledge [of it].

7. How could there be a treaty with God and His Messenger for such idolaters? But as for those with whom you made a treaty at the Sacred Mosque, so long as they remain true to you, be true to them; God loves those who are mindful of Him.

8. [How,] when, if they were to get the upper hand over you, they would not respect any tie with you, of kinship or of treaty? They please you with their tongues, but their hearts are against you and most of them are lawbreakers.

9. They have sold God's message for a trifling gain, and barred others from His path. How evil their actions are!

10. Where believers are concerned, they respect no tie of kinship or treaty. They are the ones who are committing aggression.

11. If they turn to God, keep up the prayer, and pay the prescribed alms, then they are your brothers in faith: We make the messages clear for people who are willing to learn.

12. But if they break their oath after having made an agreement with you, if they revile your religion, then fight the leaders of disbelief – oaths mean nothing to them – so that they may stop.

13. How could you not fight a people who have broken their oaths, who tried to drive the Messenger out, who attacked you first? Do you fear them? It is God you should fear if you are true believers.

15. and remove the rage from their hearts. God turns to whoever He will in His mercy; God is all knowing and wise.

16. Do you think that you will be left untested without God identifying which of you will strive for His cause and take no supporters apart from God, His Messenger, and other believers? God is fully aware of all your actions.

17. It is not right for the idolaters to tend God's places of worship while testifying to their own disbelief: the deeds of such people will come to nothing and they will abide in Hell.

18. The only ones who should tend God's places of worship are those who believe in God and the Last Day, who keep up the prayer, who pay the prescribed alms, and who fear no one but God: such people may hope to be among the rightly guided.

19. Do you consider giving water to pilgrims and tending the Sacred Mosque to be equal to the deeds of those who believe in God and the Last Day and who strive in God's path? They are not equal in God's eyes. God does not guide such benighted people.

20. Those who believe, who migrated and strove hard in God's way with their possessions and their persons, are in God's eyes much higher in rank; it is they who will triumph;

21. and their Lord gives them the good news of His mercy and pleasure, Gardens where they will have lasting bliss

22. and where they will remain for ever: truly, there is a tremendous reward with God.

23. Believers, do not take your fathers and brothers as allies if they prefer disbelief to faith: those of you who do so are doing wrong.

24. Say [Prophet], 'If your fathers, sons, brothers, wives, tribes, the wealth you have acquired, the trade which you fear will decline, and the dwellings you love are dearer to you than God and His Messenger and the struggle in His cause, then wait until God brings about His punishment.' God does not guide those who break away.

25. God has helped you [believers] on many battlefields, even on the day of the Battle of Hunayn. You were well pleased with your large numbers, but they were of no use to you: the earth seemed to close in on you despite its spaciousness, and you turned tail and fled.

26. Then God sent His calm down to His Messenger and the believers, and He sent down invisible forces. He punished the disbelievers – this is what the disbelievers deserve –

29. Fight those of the People of the Book who do not [truly] believe in God and the Last Day, who do not forbid what God and His Messenger have forbidden, who do not obey the rule of justice, until they pay the tax and agree to submit.

30. The Jews said, 'Ezra is the son of God,' and the Christians said, 'The Messiah is the son of God': they said this with their own mouths, repeating what earlier disbelievers had said. May God confound them! How far astray they have been led!

32. They try to extinguish God's light with their mouths, but God insists on bringing His light to its fullness, even if the disbelievers hate it.

33. It is He who has sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of truth, to show that it is above all [other] religions, however much the idolaters may hate this.

34. Believers, many rabbis and monks wrongfully consume people's possessions and turn people away from God's path. [Prophet], tell those who hoard gold and silver instead of giving in God's cause that they will have a grievous punishment:

35. on the Day it is heated up in Hell's Fire and used to brand their foreheads, sides, and backs, they will be told, 'This is what you hoarded up for yourselves! Now feel the pain of what you hoarded!'

36. God decrees that there are twelve months – ordained in God's Book on the Day when He created the heavens and earth – four months of which are sacred: this is the correct calculation. Do not wrong your souls in these months – though you may fight the idolaters at any time, if they first fight you – remember that God is with those who are mindful of Him.

37. Postponing sacred months is another act of disobedience by which those who disregard [God] are led astray: they will allow it one year and forbid it in another in order outwardly to conform with the number of God's sacred months, but in doing so they permit what God has forbidden. Their evil deeds are made alluring to them: God does not guide those who disregard [Him].

38. Believers, why, when it is said to you, 'Go and fight in God's way,' do you feel weighed down to the ground? Do you prefer this world to the life to come? How small the enjoyment of this world is, compared with the life to come!

39. If you do not go out and fight, God will punish you severely and put others in your place, but you cannot harm Him in any way: God has power over all things.

40. Even if you do not help the Prophet, God helped him when the disbelievers drove him out: when the two of them were in the cave, he [Muhammad] said to his companion, 'Do not worry, God is with us,' and God sent His calm down to him, aided him with forces invisible to you, and brought down the disbelievers' plan. God's plan is higher: God is almighty and wise.

41. So go out, no matter whether you are lightly or heavily armed, and struggle in God's way with your possessions and your persons: this is better for you, if you only knew.

42. They would certainly have followed you [Prophet] if the benefit was within sight and the journey short, but the distance seemed too great for them. They will swear by God, 'If we could, we certainly would go out [to battle] with you,' but they ruin themselves, for God knows that they are lying.

43. God forgive you [Prophet]! Why did you give them permission to stay at home before it had become clear to you which of them spoke the truth and which were liars?

44. Those who have faith in God and the Last Day do not ask you for exemption from struggle with their possessions and their persons – God knows exactly who is mindful of Him –

45. only those who do not have faith in God and the Last Day ask your permission to stay at home: they have doubt in their hearts and so they waver.

46. If they had really wanted to go out [to battle] with you, they would have made preparations, but God was loath to let them rise up and made them hold back. It was said, 'Stay with those who stay behind.'

47. They would only have given you trouble if they had gone out [to battle] with you: they would have scurried around, trying to sow discord among you, and some of you would willingly have listened to them – God knows exactly who does evil.

48. Indeed, they had tried before that to stir up discord: they devised plots against you [Prophet] until the truth was exposed and God's will triumphed, much to their disgust.

49. Some of them said, 'Give me permission to stay at home: do not trouble me.' They are already in trouble: Hell will engulf the disbelievers.

50. If you [Prophet] have good fortune, it will grieve them, but if misfortune comes your way, they will say to themselves, 'We took precautions for this,' and go away rejoicing.

51. Say, 'Only what God has decreed will happen to us. He is our Master: let the believers put their trust in God.'

52. Say, 'Do you expect something other than one of the two best things to happen to us? Well, we expect God to inflict punishment on you, either from Himself or at our hands. So, wait; we too are waiting.'

53. Say, 'Whether you give willingly or unwillingly, what you give will not be accepted, for you are disobedient people.'

54. The only thing that prevents what they give from being accepted is the fact that they defy God and His Messenger, perform the prayer only lazily, and give only grudgingly.

55. So [Prophet] do not let their possessions or their children impress you: through these God intends to punish them in this world and for their souls to depart while they disbelieve.

56. They swear by God that they belong with you [believers], but they do not. They are cowardly:

57. if they could find a place of refuge, or a cave, or somewhere to crawl into, they would run there with great haste.

58. Some of them find fault with you [Prophet] regarding the distribution of alms: they are content if they are given a share, but angry if not.

59. If only they would be content with what God and His Messenger have given them, and say, 'God is enough for us – He will give us some of His bounty and so will His Messenger – to God alone we turn in hope.'

60. Alms are meant only for the poor, the needy, those who administer them, those whose hearts need winning over, to free slaves and help those in debt, for God's cause, and for travellers in need. This is ordained by God; God is all knowing and wise.

61. There are others who insult the Prophet by saying, 'He will listen to anything.' Say, 'He listens for your own good: he believes in God, trusts the believers, and is a mercy for those of you who believe.' An agonizing torment awaits those who insult God's Messenger.

'You are like those who lived before you: they were even stronger than you, with more wealth and children; they enjoyed their share in this life as you have enjoyed yours; like them, you have indulged in idle talk.' Their deeds go to waste in this world and the next; it is they who will lose all in the life to come.

70. Have they never heard the stories about their predecessors, the peoples of Noah, 'Ad, Thamud, Abraham, Midian, and the ruined cities? Their messengers came to them with clear evidence of the truth: God would not deceive them; they deceived themselves.

71. The believers, both men and women, support each other; they order what is right and forbid what is wrong; they keep up the prayer and pay the prescribed alms; they obey God and His Messenger. God will give His mercy to such people: God is almighty and wise.

73. Prophet, strive against the disbelievers and the hypocrites, and be tough with them. Hell is their final home – an evil destination!

74. They swear by God that they did not, but they certainly did speak words of defiance and became defiant after having submitted; they tried to do something, though they did not achieve it, – being spiteful was their only response to God and His Messenger enriching them out of His bounty. They would be better off turning back [to God]: if they turn away, God will punish them in this world and the Hereafter, and there will be no one on earth to protect or help them.

75. There are some among them who pledged themselves to God, saying, 'If God gives us some of His bounty, we shall certainly give alms and be righteous,'

76. yet when He did give them some of His bounty, they became mean and turned obstinately away.

77. Because they broke their promise to God, because of all the lies they told, He made hypocrisy settle in their hearts until the Day they meet Him.

78. Do they not realize that God knows their secrets and their private discussions? That God knows all that is hidden?

79. It is they who criticize the believers who give freely and those who can only give a little with great effort: they scoff at such people, but it is God who scoffs at them – a painful punishment awaits them.

80. It makes no difference [Prophet] whether you ask forgiveness for them or not: God will not forgive them even if you ask seventy times, because they reject God and His Messenger. God does not guide those who rebel against Him.

81. Those who were left behind were happy to stay behind when God's Messenger set out; they hated the thought of striving in God's way with their possessions and their persons. They said to one another, 'Do not go [to war] in this heat.' Say, 'Hellfire is hotter.' If only they understood!

82. Let them laugh a little; they will weep a lot in return for what they have done.

83. So [Prophet], if God brings you back to a group of them, who ask you for permission to go out [to battle], say, 'You will never go out and fight an enemy with me: you chose to sit at home the first time, so remain with those who stay behind now.'

84. Do not hold prayers for any of them if they die, and do not stand by their graves: they disbelieved in God and His Messenger and died rebellious.

85. Do not let their possessions and their children impress you: God means to punish them through these in this world, and that their souls should depart while they disbelieve.

86. When a sura is revealed [saying], 'Believe in God and strive hard alongside His Messenger,' their wealthy ask your permission [to be exempt], saying, 'Allow us to stay behind with the others':

93. The ones open to blame are those who asked you for exemption despite their wealth, and who preferred to be with those who stay behind. God has sealed their hearts: they do not understand.

94. When you return from the expedition, they will carry on coming to you [believers] with excuses. Say, 'Do not make excuses. We do not believe you: God has told us about you. God and His Messenger will watch your actions now, and in the end, you will be returned to the One who knows the seen and the unseen. He will confront you with what you have done.'

95. When you return to them, they will swear to you by God in order to make you leave them alone – so leave them alone: they are loathsome, and Hell will be their home as a reward for their actions –

96. they will swear to you in order to make you accept them, but even if you do accept them, God will not accept people who rebel against Him.

97. The desert Arabs are the most stubborn of all peoples in their disbelief and hypocrisy. They are the least likely to recognize the limits that God has sent down to His Messenger. God is all knowing and all wise.

98. Some of the desert Arabs consider what they give to be an imposition; they are waiting for fortune to turn against you, but fortune will turn against them. God is all hearing and all knowing.

99. But there are also some desert Arabs who believe in God and the Last Day and consider their contributions as bringing them nearer to God and the prayers of the Messenger: they will indeed bring them nearer and God will admit them to His mercy. God is most forgiving and merciful.

100. God will be well pleased with the first emigrants and helpers and those who followed them in good deeds, and they will be well pleased with Him: He has prepared Gardens graced with flowing streams for them, there to remain for ever. That is the supreme triumph.

101. Some of the desert Arabs around you are hypocrites, as are some of the people of Medina – they are obstinate in their hypocrisy. You [Prophet] do not know them, but We know them well: We shall punish them twice and then they will be returned to [face] a painful punishment [in the Hereafter].

102. And there are others who have confessed their wrongdoing, who have done some righteous deeds and some bad ones: God may well accept their repentance, for God is most forgiving and merciful.

103. In order to cleanse and purify them [Prophet], accept a gift out of their property [to make amends] and pray for them – your prayer will be a comfort to them. God is all hearing, all knowing.

104. Do they not know that it is God Himself who accepts repentance from His servants and receives what is given freely for His sake? He is always ready to accept repentance, most merciful.

105. Say [Prophet], 'Take action! God will see your actions – as will His Messenger and the believers – and then you will be returned to Him who knows what is seen and unseen, and He will tell you what you have been doing.

106. And there are others who are waiting for God's decree, either to punish them or to show them mercy. God is all knowing and wise.

107. Then there are those who built a mosque – in an attempt to cause harm, disbelief, and disunity among the believers – as an outpost for those who fought God and His Messenger before: they swear, 'Our intentions were nothing but good,' but God bears witness that they are liars.

108. [Prophet], never pray in that mosque. You should rather pray in a mosque founded from its first day on consciousness of God: in this mosque there are men who desire to grow in purity – God loves those who seek to purify themselves.

109. Which is better, the person who founds his building on consciousness of God and desire for His good pleasure, or the person who founds his building on the brink of a crumbling precipice that will tumble down into the Fire of Hell, taking him with it? God does not guide the evildoers:

110. the building they have founded will always be a source of doubt within their hearts, until their hearts are cut to pieces. God is all knowing and wise.

111. God has purchased the persons and possessions of the believers in return for the Garden – they fight in God's way: they kill and are killed – this is a true promise given by Him in the Torah, the Gospel, and the Qur'an. Who could be more faithful to his promise than God? So be happy with the bargain you have made: that is the supreme triumph.

112. [The believers are] those who turn to God in repentance; who worship and praise Him; who bow down and prostrate themselves; who order what is good and forbid what is wrong and who observe God's limits. Give glad news to such believers.

113. It is not fitting for the Prophet and the believers to ask forgiveness for the idolaters – even if they are related to them – after having been shown that they are the inhabitants of the Blaze:

114. Abraham asked forgiveness for his father because he had made a promise to him, but once he realized that his father was an enemy of God, he washed his hands of him. Abraham was tender-hearted and forbearing.

115. God would not condemn for going astray those He has already guided [to the faith] before making entirely clear to them what they should avoid. God has knowledge of everything;

116. control of the heavens and earth belongs to God; He alone gives life and death; you have no ally or helper other than Him.

117. In His mercy God has turned to the Prophet, and the emigrants and helpers who followed him in the hour of adversity when some hearts almost wavered: He has turned to them; He is most kind and merciful to them.

118. And to the three men who stayed behind: when the earth, for all its spaciousness, closed in around them, when their very souls closed in around them, when they realized that the only refuge from God was with Him, He turned to them in mercy in order for them to return [to Him]. God is the Ever Relenting, the Most Merciful.

119. You who believe, be mindful of God: stand with those who are true.

120. The people of Medina and their neighbouring desert Arabs should not have held back from following God's Messenger, nor should they have cared about themselves more than him: if ever they suffer any thirst, weariness, or hunger in God's cause, take any step that angers the disbelievers, or cause any harm to an enemy, a good deed is recorded in their favour on account of it – God never wastes the reward of those who do good –

121. if they spend a little or a lot for God's cause, if they traverse a mountain pass, all this is recorded to their credit so that God can reward them in accordance with the best of their deeds.

122. Yet it is not right for all the believers to go out [to battle] together: out of each community, a group should go out to gain understanding of the religion, so that they can teach their people when they return and so that they can guard themselves against evil.

123. You who believe, fight the disbelievers near you and let them find you standing firm: be aware that God is with those who are mindful of Him.

124. When a sura is revealed, some [hypocrites] say, 'Have any of you been strengthened in faith by it?' It certainly does strengthen the faith of those who believe and they rejoice,

125. but, as for the perverse at heart, each new sura adds further to their perversity. They die disbelieving.

126. Can they not see that they are afflicted once or twice a year? Yet they neither repent nor take heed.

127. Whenever a sura is revealed, they look at each other and say, 'Is anyone watching you?' and then they turn away – God has turned their hearts away because they are people who do not use their reason.

128. A Messenger has come to you from among yourselves. Your suffering distresses him: he is deeply concerned for you and full of kindness and mercy towards the believers.

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

1. Alif Lam Ra - These are the verses of the wise Book.

2. Is it so surprising to people that We have revealed to a man from among them that he should warn people, and give glad news to those who believe, that they are on a sure footing with their Lord? [Yet] those who disbelieve say, 'This man is clearly a sorcerer.'

3. Your Lord is God who created the heavens and earth in six Days, then established Himself on the Throne, governing everything; there is no one that can intercede with Him, unless He has first given permission: this is God your Lord so worship Him. How can you not take heed?

4. It is to Him you shall all return - that is a true promise from God. It was He who created [you] in the first place, and He will do so again, so that He may justly reward those who believe and do good deeds. But the disbelievers will have a drink of scalding water, and agonizing torment, because they persistently disbelieved.

5. It is He who made the sun a shining radiance and the moon a light, determining phases for it so that you might know the number of years and how to calculate time. God did not create all these without a true purpose; He explains His signs to those who understand.

6. In the succession of night and day, and in what God created in the heavens and earth, there truly are signs for those who are aware of Him.

9. But as for those who believe and do good deeds, their Lord will guide them because of their faith. Streams will flow at their feet in the Gardens of Bliss.

10. Their prayer in them will be, 'Glory be to You, God!' their greeting, 'Peace,' and the last part of their prayer, 'Praise be to God, Lord of the Worlds.'

11. If God were to hasten on for people the harm [they have earned] as they wish to hasten on the good, their time would already be up. But We leave those who do not expect to meet Us to wander blindly in their excesses.

12. When trouble befalls man, he cries out to Us, whether lying on his side, sitting, or standing, but as soon as We relieve him of his trouble he goes on his way as if he had never cried out to Us to remove his trouble. In this way the deeds of such heedless people are made attractive to them.

13. Before you people, We destroyed whole generations when they did evil – their messengers brought them clear signs but they refused to believe. This is how We repay the guilty.

14. Later We made you their successors in the land, to see how you would behave.

24. The life of this world is like this: rain that We send down from the sky is absorbed by the plants of the earth, from which humans and animals eat. But when the earth has taken on its finest appearance, and adorns itself, and its people think they have power over it, then the fate We commanded comes to it, by night or by day, and We reduce it to stubble, as if it had not flourished just the day before. This is the way We explain the revelations for those who reflect.

25. But God invites [everyone] to the Home of Peace, and guides whoever He will to a straight path.

28. On the Day We gather them all together, We shall say to those who associate partners with God, 'Stay in your place, you and your partner-gods.' Then We shall separate them, and their partner-gods will say, 'It was not us you worshipped –

29. God is witness enough between us and you – we had no idea that you worshipped us.'

30. Every soul will realize, then and there, what it did in the past. They will be returned to God, their rightful Lord, and their invented [gods] will desert them.

31. Say [Prophet], 'Who provides for you from the sky and the earth? Who controls hearing and sight? Who brings forth the living from the dead and the dead from the living, and who governs everything?' They are sure to say, 'God.' Then say, 'So why do you not take heed of Him?

32. That is God, your Lord, the Truth. Apart from the Truth, what is there except error? So how is it that you are dissuaded?'

62. But for those who are on God's side there is no fear, nor shall they grieve.

63. For those who believe and are conscious of God,

64. for them there is good news in this life and in the Hereafter – there is no changing the promises of God – that is truly the supreme triumph.

65. Do not let their words grieve you [Prophet]. Power belongs entirely to God; He hears all and knows all;

66. indeed, all who are in the heavens and on the earth belong to Him. Those who call upon others beside God are not really following partner-gods; they are only following assumptions and telling lies.

67. It is He who made the night so that you can rest in it and the daylight so that you can see – there truly are signs in this for those who hear.

68. They say, 'God has children!' May He be exalted! He is the Self-Sufficient One; everything in the heavens and the earth belongs to Him. You have no authority to say this. How dare you say things about God without any knowledge?

69. Say [Prophet], 'Those who invent lies about God will not prosper.'

70. They may have a little enjoyment in this world, but then they will return to Us. Then We shall make them taste severe punishment for persisting in blasphemy.

71. Tell them the story of Noah. He said to his people, 'My people, if my presence among you and my reminding you of God's signs is too much for you, then I put my trust in God. Agree on your course of action, you and your partner-gods – do not be hesitant or secretive about it – then carry out your decision on me and give me no respite.

72. But if you turn away, I have asked no reward from you; my reward is with God alone, and I am commanded to be one of those who devote themselves to Him.'

73. But they rejected him. We saved him and those with him on the Ark and let them survive; and We drowned those who denied Our revelations – see what was the end of those who were forewarned!

74. Then, after him, We sent messengers to their peoples bringing them clear signs. But they would not believe in anything they had already rejected: in this way We seal the hearts of those who are full of hostility.

75. After them We sent Moses and Aaron with Our signs to Pharaoh and his leading supporters, but they acted arrogantly – they were wicked people.

76. When the truth came to them from Us, they said, 'This is blatant sorcery.'

77. Moses said, 'Is this what you say about the Truth when it comes to you? Is this sorcery? Sorcerers never prosper.'

78. They said, 'Have you come to turn us away from the faith we found our fathers following, so that you and your brother can gain greatness in this land? We will never believe in you.'

79. And Pharaoh said, 'Bring me every learned sorcerer.'

80. When the sorcerers came, Moses said to them, 'Throw down whatever you have.'

81. When they did so, Moses said, 'Everything you have brought is sorcery and God will show it to be false. God does not make the work of mischief-makers right;

82. He will uphold the Truth with His words, even if the evildoers hate it.'

83. But no one believed in Moses except a few of his own people, for fear that Pharaoh and their leaders would persecute them: Pharaoh was domineering in the land and prone to excess.

84. Moses said, 'My people, if you have faith in God and are devoted to Him, put your trust in Him.'

85. They said, 'We have put our trust in God. Lord! Do not make us an object of persecution for the oppressors.

86. Save us, in Your mercy, from those who reject [Your message].'

87. We revealed to Moses and his brother: 'House your people in Egypt and make these houses places of worship; keep up the prayer; give good news to the believers!'

88. And Moses said, 'Our Lord, You have given Pharaoh and his chiefs splendour and wealth in this present life and here they are, Lord, leading others astray from Your path. Our Lord, obliterate their wealth and harden their hearts so that they do not believe until they see the agonizing torment.'

91. 'Now? When you had always been a rebel, and a troublemaker!

92. Today We shall save only your corpse as a sign to all posterity. A great many people fail to heed Our signs.'

93. We settled the Children of Israel in a good place and provided good things as sustenance for them. It was only after knowledge had come to them that they began to differ among themselves. Your Lord will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection regarding their differences.

94. So if you [Prophet] are in doubt about what We have revealed to you, ask those who have been reading the scriptures before you. The Truth has come to you from your Lord, so be in no doubt and do not deny God's signs –

95. then you would become one of the losers.

96. Those against whom your Lord's sentence is passed will not believe,

97. even if every sign comes to them, until they see the agonizing torment.

98. If only a single town had believed and benefited from its belief! Only Jonah's people did so, and when they believed, We relieved them of the punishment of disgrace in the life of this world, and let them enjoy life for a time.

99. Had your Lord willed, all the people on earth would have believed. So, can you [Prophet] compel people to believe?

100. No soul can believe except by God's will, and He brings disgrace on those who do not use their reason.

101. Say, 'Look at what is in the heavens and on the earth.' But what use are signs and warnings to people who will not believe?

102. What are they waiting for but the punishment that came to those before them? Say, 'Wait then, I am waiting too.'

103. In the end We shall save Our messengers and the believers. We take it upon Ourself to save the believers.

104. [Prophet] say, 'People, even if you are in doubt about my religion, I do not worship those you worship other than God, but I worship God who will cause you to die, and I am commanded to be a believer.'

105. [Prophet], set your face towards religion as a man of pure faith. Do not be one of those who join partners with God;

106. do not pray to any other [god] that can neither benefit nor harm you: if you do, you will be one of the evildoers.

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

1. Alif Lam Ra [This is] a Scripture whose verses are perfected, then set out clearly, from One who is all wise, all aware.

2. [Say, Prophet], 'Worship no one but God. I am sent to you from Him to warn and to give good news.

3. Ask your Lord for forgiveness, then turn back to Him. He will grant you wholesome enjoyment until an appointed time, and give His grace to everyone who has merit. But if you turn away, I fear you will have torment on a terrible Day:

4. it is to God that you will all return, and He has power over everything.'

5. See how they [the disbelievers] wrap themselves up, to hide their feelings from Him. But even when they cover themselves with their clothes, He knows what they conceal and what they reveal: He knows well the innermost secrets of the heart.

6. There is not a creature that moves on earth whose provision is not His concern. He knows where it lives and its [final] resting place: it is all [there] in a clear record.

7. It is He who created the heavens and the earth in six Days – His rule extends over the waters too – so as to test which of you does best. Yet [Prophet], if you say to them, 'You will be resurrected after death,' the disbelievers are sure to answer, 'This is clearly nothing but sorcery.'

8. If We defer their punishment for a determined time, they are sure to say, 'What is holding it back?' But on the Day it comes upon them, nothing will divert it from them; what they mocked will be all around them.

9. How desperate and ungrateful man becomes when We let him taste Our mercy and then withhold it!

10. And if We let him taste mercy after some harm has touched him, he is sure to say, 'Misfortune has gone away from me.' He becomes exultant and boastful.

11. Not so those who are steadfast and do good deeds: they will have forgiveness and a great reward.

12. So [Prophet] are you going to abandon some part of what is revealed to you, and let your heart be oppressed by it, because they say, 'Why is no treasure sent down to him? Why has no angel come with him?' You are only there to warn; it is God who is in charge of everything.

13. If they say, 'He has invented it himself,' say, 'Then produce ten invented suras like it, and call in whoever you can beside God, if you are truthful.'

14. If they do not answer you, then you will all know that it is sent down containing knowledge from God, and that there is no god but Him. Then will you submit to Him?

15. If any desire [only] the life of this world with all its finery, We shall repay them in full in this life for their deeds – they will be given no less –

16. but such people will have nothing in the Hereafter but the Fire: their work here will be fruitless and their deeds futile.

17. Can they be compared to those who have clear proof from their Lord, recited by a witness from Him, and before it the Book of Moses, as a guide and mercy? These people believe in it, whereas those groups that deny its truth are promised the Fire. So have no doubt about it [Prophet]: it is the Truth from your Lord, though most people do not believe so.

18. Who could do more wrong than someone who invents lies about God? Such people will be brought before their Lord, and the witnesses will say, 'These are the ones that lied about their Lord.' God's rejection is the due of those who do such wrong,

19. who hinder others from God's path, trying to make it crooked, and deny the life to come.

22. There is no doubt they will be the ones to lose most in the life to come.

23. But those who believed, did good deeds, and humbled themselves before their Lord will be companions in Paradise and there they will stay.

24. These two groups are like the blind and the deaf as compared with those who can see and hear well: can they be alike? How can you not take heed?

25. We sent Noah to his people to say, 'I have come to you to give a clear warning:

27. But the prominent disbelievers among his people said, 'We can see that you are nothing but a mortal like ourselves, and it is clear to see that only the vilest among us follow you. We cannot see how you are any better than we are. In fact, we think you are a liar.'

28. He said, 'My people, think: if I did have a clear sign from my Lord, and He had given me grace of His own, though it was hidden from you, could we force you to accept it against your will?

38. So he began to build the Ark, and whenever leaders of his people passed by, they laughed at him. He said, 'You may scorn us now, but we will come to scorn you:

39. you will find out who will receive a humiliating punishment, and on whom a lasting suffering will descend.'

40. When Our command came, and water gushed up out of the earth, We said, 'Place on board this Ark a pair of each species, and your own family – except those against whom the sentence has already been passed – and those who have believed,' though only a few believed with him.

41. He said, 'Board the Ark. In the name of God, it shall sail and anchor. My God is most forgiving and merciful.

42. It sailed with them on waves like mountains, and Noah called out to his son, who stayed behind, 'Come aboard with us, my son, do not stay with the disbelievers.'

43. But he replied, 'I will seek refuge on a mountain to save me from the water.' Noah said, 'Today there is no refuge from God's command, except for those on whom He has mercy.' The waves cut them off from each other and he was among the drowned.

44. Then it was said, 'Earth, swallow up your water, and sky, hold back,' and the water subsided, the command was fulfilled. The Ark settled on Mount Judi, and it was said, 'Gone are those evildoing people!'

45. Noah called out to his Lord, saying, 'My Lord, my son was one of my family, though Your promise is true, and You are the most just of all judges.'

51. I ask no reward from you, my people; my reward comes only from Him who created me. Why do you not use your reason?

52. My people, ask forgiveness from your Lord, and return to Him. He will send down for you rain in abundance from the sky, and give you extra strength. Do not turn away and be lost in your sins.'

72. She said, 'Alas for me! How am I to bear a child when I am an old woman, and my husband here is an old man? That would be a strange thing!'

73. They said, 'Are you astonished at what God ordains? The grace of God and His blessings be upon you, people of this house! For He is worthy of all praise and glory.'

74. Then, when the fear left Abraham and the good news came to him, he pleaded with Us for Lot's people,

75. for Abraham was forbearing, tender-hearted, and devout.

76. 'Abraham, cease your pleading: what your Lord has ordained has come about; punishment is coming to them, which cannot be turned back.'

77. And when Our messengers came to Lot, he was anxious for them, feeling powerless to protect them, and said, 'This is a truly terrible day!'

78. His people came rushing towards him; they used to commit foul deeds. He said, 'My people, here are my daughters. They are more wholesome for you, so have some fear of God and do not disgrace me with my guests. Is there not a single right-minded man among you?'

79. They said, 'You know very well that we have no right to your daughters. You know very well what we want.'

80. He said, 'If only I had the strength to stop you or could rely on strong support!'

81. They [the messengers] said, 'Lot, we are your Lord's messengers. They will not reach you. Leave with your household in the dead of night, and let none of you turn back. Only your wife will suffer the fate that befalls the others. Their appointed time is the morning: is the morning not near?'

98. He will be at the forefront of his people on the Day of Resurrection, leading them down towards the Fire. What a foul drinking place to be led to!

99. They were pursued by God's rejection in this life and will be on the Day of Resurrection, too. What a foul gift to be given!

100. We relate to you [Muhammad] such accounts of earlier towns: some of them are still standing; some have been mown down;

101. We did not wrong them; they wronged themselves. Their gods, which they called on beside God, were no use to them when what your Lord had ordained came about; they only increased their ruin.

102. Such is the punishment of your Lord for towns in the midst of their sins: His punishment is terrible and severe.

103. There truly is a sign in this for anyone who fears the punishment of the Hereafter. That is a Day in which all people will be gathered together, a Day for all to see.

104. We are delaying it only for a specified period,

105. and when that Day comes, no soul will speak except by His permission, and some of them will be wretched and some happy.

106. The wretched ones will be in the Fire, sighing and groaning,

107. there to remain for as long as the heavens and earth endure, unless your Lord wills otherwise: your Lord carries out whatever He wills.

108. As for those who have been blessed, they will be in Paradise, there to remain as long as the heavens and earth endure, unless your Lord wills otherwise – an unceasing gift.

109. [Prophet], have no doubt about what these people worship: it is merely what their fathers worshipped before them, and We shall certainly give them their share in full, without any reduction.

110. We gave Moses the Scripture before you, but differences arose about it and if it had not been for a prior word from your Lord, a decision would already have been made between them, though they are in grave doubt about it.

111. Your Lord will give everyone full due for whatever they have done: He is aware of everything they do.

112. So keep to the right course as you have been commanded, together with those who have turned to God with you. Do not overstep the limits, for He sees everything you do.

113. Do not rely on those who do evil, or the Fire may touch you, and then you will have no one to protect you from God, nor will you be helped.

114. [Prophet], keep up the prayer at both ends of the day, and during parts of the night, for good things drive bad away – this is a reminder for those who are aware.

115. Be steadfast: God does not let the rewards of those who do good go to waste.

116. If only there had been, among the generations before your time, people with a remnant of good sense, to forbid corruption on the earth! We saved only a few of them, while the unjust pursued the enjoyment of plenty, and persisted in sin.

117. Your Lord would not destroy any town without cause if its people were acting righteously.

120. So [Muhammad], We have told you the stories of the prophets to make your heart firm and in these accounts truth has come to you, as well as lessons and reminders for the believers.

121. Say to those who do not believe, 'Do whatever you can: we too are doing what we can,'

15. Then they took him away with them, resolved upon throwing him into the hidden depths of a well – We inspired him, saying, 'You will tell them of all this [at a time] when they do not realize [who you are]!'-

16. and at nightfall they returned to their father weeping.

17. They said, 'We went off racing one another, leaving Joseph behind with our things, and a wolf ate him. You will not believe us, though we are telling the truth!'

18. and they showed him his shirt, deceptively stained with blood. He cried, 'No! Your souls have prompted you to do wrong! But it is best to be patient: from God alone, I seek help to bear what you are saying.'

19. Some travellers came by. They sent someone to draw water and he let down his bucket. 'Good news!' he exclaimed. 'Here is a boy!' They hid him like a piece of merchandise- God was well aware of what they did –

20. and then sold him for a small price, for a few pieces of silver: so little did they value him.

21. The Egyptian who bought him said to his wife, 'Look after him well! He may be useful to us, or we may adopt him as a son.' In this way We settled Joseph in that land and later taught him how to interpret dreams: God always prevails in His purpose, though most people do not realize it.

22. When he reached maturity, We gave him judgement and knowledge: this is how We reward those who do good.

23. The woman in whose house he was living tried to seduce him: she bolted the doors and said, 'Come to me,' and he replied, 'God forbid! My master has been good to me; wrongdoers never prosper.'

24. She made for him, and he would have succumbed to her if he had not seen evidence of his Lord – We did this in order to keep evil and indecency away from him, for he was truly one of Our chosen servants.

25. They raced for the door – she tore his shirt from behind – and at the door they met her husband. She said, 'What, other than prison or painful punishment, should be the reward of someone who tried to dishonour your wife?'

26. but he said, 'She tried to seduce me.' A member of her household suggested, 'If his shirt is torn at the front, then it is she who is telling the truth and he who is lying,

27. but if it is torn at the back, then she is lying and he is telling the truth.'

28. When the husband saw that the shirt was torn at the back, he said, 'This is another instance of women's treachery: your treachery is truly great.

29. Joseph, overlook this; but you [wife], ask forgiveness for your sin – you have done wrong.'

30. Some women of the city said, 'The governor's wife is trying to seduce her slave! Love for him consumes her heart! It is clear to us that she has gone astray.'

31. When she heard their malicious talk, she prepared a banquet and sent for them, giving each of them a knife. She said to Joseph, 'Come out and show yourself to them!' and when the women saw him, they were stunned by his beauty, and cut their hands, exclaiming, 'Great God! He cannot be mortal! He must be a precious angel!'

32. She said, 'This is the one you blamed me for. I tried to seduce him and he wanted to remain chaste, but if he does not do what I command now, he will be put in prison and degraded.'

33. Joseph said, 'My Lord! I would prefer prison to what these women are calling me to do. If You do not protect me from their treachery, I shall yield to them and do wrong,'

34. and his Lord answered his prayer and protected him from their treachery – He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing.

35. In the end they thought it best, after seeing all the signs of his innocence, that they should imprison him for a while.

36. Two young men went into prison alongside him. One of them said, 'I dreamed that I was pressing grapes'; the other said, 'I dreamed that I was carrying bread on my head and that the birds were eating it.' [They said], 'Tell us what this means – we can see that you are a knowledgeable man.'

37. He said, 'I can tell you what this means before any meal arrives: this is part of what my Lord has taught me. I reject the faith of those who disbelieve in God and deny the life to come,

70. and, once he had given them their provisions, he placed the drinking-cup in his brother's pack. A man called out, 'People of the caravan! You are thieves!'

71. and they turned and said, 'What have you lost?'

72. They replied, 'The king's drinking-cup is missing,' and, 'Whoever returns it will get a camel-load [of grain],' and, 'I give you, my word.'

73. They said, 'By God! You must know that we did not come to make mischief in your land: we are no thieves.'

74. They asked them, 'And if we find that you are lying, what penalty shall we apply to you?'

75. and they answered, 'The penalty will be [the enslavement of] the person in whose bag the cup is found: this is how we punish wrongdoers.'

76. [Joseph] began by searching their bags, then his brother's, and he pulled it out from his brother's bag. In this way We devised a plan for Joseph – if God had not willed it so, he could not have detained his brother as a penalty under the king's law – We raise the rank of whoever We will. Above everyone who has knowledge there is the One who is all knowing.

77. [His brothers] said, 'If he is a thief then his brother was a thief before him,' but Joseph kept his secrets and did not reveal anything to them. He said, 'You are in a far worse situation. God knows best the truth of what you claim.'

78. They said, 'Mighty governor, he has an elderly father. Take one of us in his place. We can see that you are a very good man.'

79. He replied, 'God forbid that we should take anyone other than the person on whom we found our property: that would be unjust of us.'

80. When they lost hope of [persuading] him, they withdrew to confer with each other: the eldest of them said, 'Do you not remember that your father took a solemn pledge from you in the name of God and before that you failed in your duty with regard to Joseph? I will not leave this land until my father gives me leave or God decides for me – He is the best decider –

81. so go back to your father and say, "Your son stole. We can only tell you what we saw. How could we guard against the unforeseen?

82. Ask in the town where we have been; ask the people of the caravan we travelled with: we are telling the truth.""

83. Their father said, 'No! Your souls have prompted you to do wrong! But it is best to be patient: May God bring all of them back to me – He alone is the All Knowing, the All Wise,'

84. and he turned away from them, saying, 'Alas for Joseph!' His eyes went white with grief and he was filled with sorrow.

85. They said, 'By God! You will ruin your health if you do not stop thinking of Joseph, or even die.'

86. He said, 'I plead my grief and sorrow before God. I have knowledge from God that you do not have.

109. All the messengers We sent before you [Muhammad] were men to whom We made revelations; men chosen from the people of their towns. Have the [disbelievers] not travelled through the land and seen the end of those who went before them? For those who are mindful of God, the Home in the Hereafter is better. Do you [people] not use your reason?

110. When the messengers lost all hope and realized that they had been dismissed as liars, Our help came to them: We saved whoever We pleased, but Our punishment will not be turned away from guilty people.

2. It is God who raised up the heavens with no visible supports and then established Himself on the throne; He has subjected the sun and the moon each to pursue its course for an appointed time; He regulates all things, and makes the revelations clear so that you may be certain of meeting your Lord;

3. it is He who spread out the earth, placed firm mountains and rivers on it, and made two of every kind of fruit; He draws the veil of night over the day. There truly are signs in this for people who reflect.

4. There are, in the land, neighbouring plots, gardens of vineyards, cornfields, palm trees in clusters or otherwise, all watered with the same water, yet We make some of them taste better than others: there truly are signs in this for people who reason.

5. If anything can amaze you [Prophet], then you should surely be amazed at their asking, 'What? When we become dust, shall we be created anew?' These are the ones who deny their Lord, who will wear iron collars around their necks and be the inhabitants of the Fire, there to remain.

14. The only true prayer is to Him: those they pray to besides Him give them no answer any more than water reaches the mouth of someone who simply stretches out his hands for it – it cannot do so: the prayers of the disbelievers are all in vain.

15. All that are in heaven and earth submit to God alone, willingly or unwillingly, as do their shadows in the mornings and in the evenings.

16. Say [Prophet], 'Who is Lord of the heavens and the earth?' Say, 'God.' Say, 'Why do you take protectors other than Him, who can neither benefit nor harm even themselves?' Say, 'Are the blind equal to those who can see? And are the depths of darkness equal to the light?' Have the partners they assign to God created anything like His creation so that their creation is indistinguishable from His? Say, 'God is the Creator of all things: He is the One, the All Compelling.'

17. He sends water from the sky that fills riverbeds to overflowing, each according to its measure. The stream carries on its surface a growing layer of froth, like the froth that appears when people melt metals in the fire to make ornaments and tools: in this way God illustrates truth and falsehood – the froth disappears, but what is of benefit to man stays behind – this is how God makes illustrations.

18. There will be the best of rewards for those who respond to their Lord; those who do not respond would willingly give away the earth's contents twice over, if they had it, in order to ransom themselves, so terrible will be their reckoning. Hell will be their home, and their bed wretched.

19. Can someone who knows that the revelation from your Lord is the Truth be equal to someone who is blind? Only those with understanding will take it to heart;

20. those who fulfil the agreements they make in God's name and do not break their pledges;

21. who join together what God commands to be joined; who are in awe of their Lord and fear the harshness of the Reckoning;

who remain steadfast through their desire for the face of their Lord; who keep up the prayer; who give secretly and openly from what We have provided for them; who repel evil with good. These will have the reward of the [true] home:

23. they will enter perpetual Gardens, along with their righteous ancestors, spouses, and descendants; the angels will go in to them from every gate,

24. 'Peace be with you, because you have remained steadfast. What an excellent reward is this home of yours!'

25. But there will be rejection for those who break their confirmed agreements made in God's name, who break apart what God has commanded to be joined and who spread corruption on earth: theirs is the dreadful home -

26. God gives abundantly to whoever He will, and sparingly to whoever He will – and though they may revel in the life of this world, it is but a fleeting comfort compared with the Life to come.

27. The disbelievers say, 'Why has no miracle been sent down to him from his Lord?' [Prophet], say, 'God leaves whoever He will to stray, and guides to Himself those who turn towards Him,

28. those who have faith and whose hearts find peace in the remembrance of God – truly it is in the remembrance of God that hearts find peace –

29. those who believe and do righteous deeds: joy awaits these, and their final homecoming will be excellent.'

30. So We have sent you [Prophet] to a community – other communities passed away long before them – to recite to them what We reveal to you. Yet they disbelieve in the Lord of Mercy. Say, 'He is my Lord: there is no god but Him. I put my trust in Him and to Him is my return.'

31. If there were ever to be a Qur'an with which mountains could be moved, the earth shattered, or the dead made to speak [it would have been this one], but everything is truly in God's hands. Do the believers not realize that if God had so willed, He could have guided all mankind? As for the disbelievers, because of their misdeeds, disaster will not cease to afflict them or fall close to their homes until God's promise is fulfilled: God never fails to keep His promise.

32. Many messengers before you [Muhammad] were mocked, but I granted respite to the disbelievers: in the end, I took them to task – how terrible My punishment was!

33. Is He who stands over every soul marking its action [in need of any partner]? Yet they ascribe partners to God. Say, 'Name them,' or, 'Can you tell Him about something on the earth He does not know to exist, or is this just a display of words?' But the things they devise are made alluring to the disbelievers and they are barred from the [right] path: no one can guide those God leaves to stray.

34. There is a punishment for them in this world, but the punishment of the Hereafter will be harder – no one will defend them against God.

35. Here is a picture of the Garden that those mindful of God have been promised: flowing streams and perpetual food and shade. This is the reward that awaits those who are mindful of God; the disbelievers' reward is the Fire.

36. Those to whom We sent the Scripture rejoice in what has been revealed to you [Prophet]; some factions deny parts of it. Say, 'I am commanded to worship God, and not join anything with Him in worship: to Him I call [others] and to Him I shall return.'

37. So We have sent down the Qur'an to give judgement in the Arabic language. If you were to follow their desires, after the knowledge that has come to you, you would have no one to guard you or protect you from God.

38. We sent messengers before you and gave them wives and offspring; no messenger was given the power to produce a miracle except with God's permission. There was a Scripture for every age:

39. God erases or confirms whatever He will, and the source of Scripture is with Him.

40. Whether We let you [Prophet] see part of what We threaten them with, or cause you to die [before that], your duty is only to deliver the message: the Reckoning is Ours.

41. Do they not see how We come to [their] land and shrink its borders? God decides – no one can reverse His decision – and He is swift in reckoning.

42. Those before them also schemed, but the overall scheme belongs to God: He knows what each soul does. In the end, the disbelievers will find out who will have the excellent home.

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

1. Alif Lam Ra. This is a Scripture which We have sent down to you [Prophet] so that, with their Lord's permission, you may bring people from the depths of darkness into light, to the path of the Almighty, the Praiseworthy One,

2. God, to whom everything in the heavens and earth belongs. How terrible will be the torment of those who ignore [Him],

3. those who prefer the life of this world over the life to come, who turn others from God's way, trying to make it crooked: such people have gone far astray.

4. We have never sent a messenger who did not use his own people's language to make things clear for them. But still God leaves whoever He will to stray, and guides whoever He will: He is the Almighty, the All Wise.

5. We sent Moses with Our signs: 'Bring out your people from the depths of darkness into light. Remind them of the Days of God: there truly are signs in this for every steadfast, thankful person.'

6. And so Moses said to his people, 'Remember God's blessing on you when He saved you from Pharaoh's people, who were inflicting terrible suffering on you, slaughtering your sons and sparing only your women – that was a severe test from your Lord!

7. Remember that He promised, "If you are thankful, I will give you more, but if you are thankless, My punishment is terrible indeed."

8. And Moses said, 'Even if you, together with everybody else on earth, are thankless, God is self-sufficient, worthy of all praise.'

9. Have you not heard about those who went before you, the people of Noah, 'Ad, Thamud, and those who lived after them, known only to God? Their messengers came to them with clear proof, but they tried to silence them, saying, 'We do not believe the message with which you were sent. We have disturbing doubts about what you are asking us to do.'

10. Their messengers answered, 'Can there be any doubt about God, the Creator of the heavens and earth? He calls you to Him in order to forgive you your sins and let you enjoy your life until the appointed hour.' But they said, 'You are only men like us. You want to turn us away from what our forefathers used to worship. Bring us clear proof then, [if you can].'

19. [Prophet], do you not see that God created the heavens and the earth for a purpose? He could remove all of you and replace you with a new creation if He wished to:

🕹 🔶 🍲 🍲 Juzu' 13 🍲 🤞

20. that is not difficult for God.

21. When they all appear before Him, the weak will say to the power seekers, 'We were your followers. Can you protect us from any of God's punishment?' They will reply, 'If God had guided us, we would have guided you. It makes no difference now whether we rage or endure with patience: there is no escape.'

22. When everything has been decided, Satan will say, 'God gave you a true promise. I too made promises but they were false ones: I had no power over you except to call you, and you responded to my call, so do not blame me; blame yourselves. I cannot help you, nor can you help me. I reject the way you associated me with God before.' A bitter torment awaits such wrongdoers,

23. but those who believed and did good deeds will be brought into Gardens graced with flowing streams, there to remain with their Lord's permission: their greeting there is 'Peace'.

24. [Prophet], do you not see how God makes comparisons? A good word is like a good tree whose root is firm and whose branches are high in the sky,

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

1. Alif Lam Ra. These are the verses of the Scripture, a Qur'an that makes things clear.

2. The disbelievers may well come to wish they had submitted to God,

3. so [Prophet] leave them to eat and enjoy themselves. Let [false] hopes distract them: they will come to know.

4. Never have We destroyed a community that did not have a set time;

5. no community can bring its time forward, nor delay it.6. They say, 'Receiver of this Qur'an! You are definitely mad.

7. Why do you not bring us the angels, if you are telling the truth?'

8. But We send down the angels only to bring justice and then these people will not be reprieved.

9. We have sent down the Qur'an Ourself, and We Ourself will guard it. Even before you [Prophet],

10. We sent messengers among the various communities of old,

11. but they mocked every single messenger that came to them:

12. in this way We make the message slip through the hearts of evildoers.

13. They will not believe in it. That was what happened with the peoples of long ago,

14. and even if We opened a gateway into Heaven for them and they rose through it, higher and higher,

15. they would still say, 'Our eyes are hallucinating. We are bewitched.'

71. He said, 'My daughters are here, if you must.'

72. By your life [Prophet], they wandered on in their wild intoxication

73. and the blast overtook them at sunrise:

74. We turned their city upside down and rained on them a shower of clay stones.

75. There truly is a sign in this for those who can learn –
76. it is still there on the highway –

77. there truly is a sign in this for those who believe.

78. The forest-dwellers, too, were wrongdoers

79. and We took retribution on them; both are still there on the highway, plain for all to see.

80. The people of al-Hijr also rejected Our messengers:

81. We gave them Our signs, but they turned their backs.

82. They carved out dwellings in the mountains, and lived in security –

83. the blast overwhelmed them early in the morning.84. What they had gained was of no use to them.

85. We did not create the heavens and the earth and everything between them without a true purpose: the Hour will certainly come, so [Prophet] bear with them graciously.86. Your Lord is the All-Knowing Creator.

87. We have given you the seven oft-recited verses and the whole glorious Qur'an.

88. Do not look longingly at the good things We have given some to enjoy. Do not grieve over the [disbelievers], but lower your wings over the believers

89. and say, 'I am here to give plain warning,'

90. like the [warning] We have sent down for those who divide themselves into bands

 God's Judgement is coming, so do not ask to bring it on sooner. Glory be to Him! He is far above anything they join with Him!
 He sends down angels with inspiration at His command, to whichever of His servants He chooses, to give [His] warning: 'There is no god but Me, so beware of Me.'

22. Your God is the One God. As for those who deny the life to come, their hearts refuse to admit the truth and they are arrogant.

23. There is no doubt that God knows what they conceal and what they reveal. He does not love the arrogant.

24. When they are asked, 'What has your Lord sent down?' they say, 'Ancient fables.'

25. On the Day of Resurrection they will bear the full weight of their own burden, as well as some of the burden of those they misled with no true knowledge. How terrible their burden will be!

26. Those who went before them also schemed, but God attacked the very foundations of what they built. The roof fell down on them: punishment came on them from unimagined directions.

27. In the end, on the Day of Resurrection, He will shame them, saying, 'Where are these "partners" of Mine on whose account you opposed [Me]?' Those given knowledge will say, 'Shame and misery on the disbelievers today!'

28. Those whose lives the angels take while they are wronging themselves will show submission: 'We were doing no evil.' 'Yes you were: God knows fully everything that you have done,

29. so enter the gates of Hell. There you will remain – the home of the arrogant is evil indeed.'

30. But when the righteous are asked, 'What has your Lord sent down?' they will say, 'All that is good.' There is a reward in this present world for those who do good, but their home in the Hereafter is far better: the home of the righteous is excellent.

31. They will enter perpetual Gardens graced with flowing streams. There they will have everything they wish. This is the way God rewards the righteous,

32. those whose lives the angels take in a state of goodness. They will say to them, 'Peace be upon you. Enter the Garden as a reward for what you have done.'

33. Are the disbelievers waiting for the angels to come to them, or your Lord's Judgement? Those who went before them did the same. God did not wrong them; they wronged themselves.

34. So the evil they had done hit them and they were surrounded by the very thing they had mocked.

55. Let them show ingratitude for the favours We have shown them; 'Enjoy your brief time – soon you will know.'

56. They set aside part of the sustenance We give them, for [idols] about which they have no true knowledge. By God! You will be questioned about your false inventions.

57. They assign daughters to God – may He be exalted! – and the [sons] they desire to themselves.

58. When one of them is given news of the birth of a baby girl, his face darkens and he is filled with gloom.

59. In his shame he hides himself away from his people because of the bad news he has been given. Should he keep her and suffer contempt or bury her in the dust? How ill they judge!

60. Those who do not believe in the Hereafter should have the contemptible image, and God should have the highest one: He is the Mighty, the Wise.

61. If God took people to task for the evil they do, He would not leave one living creature on earth, but He reprieves them until an appointed time: when their time comes, they cannot delay it for a moment nor can they bring it forward.

62. They attribute to God what they themselves dislike while their own tongues utter the lie that the best belongs to them. Without doubt it is the Fire that belongs to them: they will be given priority there!

63. By God, We have sent messengers before you [Muhammad] to other communities, but Satan made their foul deeds seem alluring to them. He is the patron of these present disbelievers too, and a painful punishment awaits them all.

64. We have sent down the Scripture to you only to make clear to them what they differ about, and as guidance and mercy to those who believe.

65. It is God who sends water down from the sky and with it revives the earth when it is dead. There truly is a sign in this for people who listen.

66. In livestock, too, you have a lesson – We give you a drink from the contents of their bellies, between waste matter and blood, pure milk, sweet to the drinker.

67. From the fruits of date palms and grapes you take sweet juice and wholesome provisions. There truly is a sign in this for people who use their reason.

68. And your Lord inspired the bee, saying, 'Build yourselves houses in the mountains and trees and what people construct.

69. Then feed on all kinds of fruit and follow the ways made easy for you by your Lord.' From their bellies comes a drink of different colours in which there is healing for people. There truly is a sign in this for those who think.

70. It is God who has created you and in time will cause you to die. Some of you will be reduced, in old age, to a most abject state, so that, after having knowledge, they will know nothing at all: God is truly All-Knowing and All-Powerful.

71. God has given some of you more provision than others. Those who have been given more are unwilling to pass their provision on to the slaves they possess so that they become their equals. How can they refuse to acknowledge God's blessings?

72. And it is God who has given you spouses from amongst yourselves and through them He has given you children and grandchildren and provided you with good things. How can they believe in falsehood and deny God's blessings?

73. Those they worship beside God have no power to provide anything for them from the heavens or the earth: they can do nothing.

74. So do not make up images about God: God knows and you do not.

75. God presents this illustration: a slave controlled by his master, with no power over anything, and another man We have supplied with good provision, from which he gives alms privately and openly. Can they be considered equal? All praise belongs to God, but most of them do not recognize this.

76. God presents another illustration: two men, one of them dumb, unable to do anything, a burden to his carer – whatever task he directs him to, he achieves nothing good – can he be considered equal to one who commands justice and is on the straight path?

77. All that is hidden from view in the heavens and earth belongs to God. The coming of the Hour of Judgement is like the blink of an eye, or even quicker: God has power over everything.

78. It is God who brought you out of your mothers' wombs knowing nothing, and gave you hearing and sight and minds, so that you might be thankful.

79. Do they not see the birds made to fly through the air in the sky? Nothing holds them up except God. There truly are signs in this for those who believe.

111. On the Day when every soul will come pleading for itself, every soul will be paid in full for all its actions – they will not be wronged.

• • NAHL 16

112. God presents the example of a town that was secure and at ease, with provisions coming to it abundantly from all places. Then it became ungrateful for God's blessings, so God afflicted it with the garment of famine and fear, for what its people had done.

113. A messenger who was one of them came to them, but they called him a liar. So, punishment overwhelmed them in the midst of their evildoing.

114. So eat of the good and lawful things God has provided for you and be thankful for His blessings, if it is Him that you worship.

115. He has forbidden you only these things: carrion, blood, pig's meat, and animals over which any name other than God's has been invoked. But if anyone is forced by hunger, not desiring it nor exceeding their immediate need, God is forgiving and merciful.

116. Do not say falsely, 'This is lawful and that is forbidden,' inventing a lie about God: those who invent lies about God will not prosper –

117. they may have a little enjoyment, but painful punishment awaits them.

118. [Prophet], We forbade the Jews what We told you about. We did not wrong them; they wronged themselves.

119. But towards those who do wrong out of ignorance, and afterwards repent and make amends, your Lord is most forgiving and merciful.

120. Abraham was truly an example: devoutly obedient to God and true in faith. He was not an idolater;

121. he was thankful for the blessings of God who chose him and guided him to a straight path.

122. We gave him blessings in this world, and he is among the righteous in the Hereafter.

123. Then We revealed to you [Muhammad], 'Follow the creed of Abraham, a man of pure faith who was not an idolater.'

124. The Sabbath was made obligatory only for those who differed about it. On the Day of Resurrection your Lord will judge between them as to their differences.

125. [Prophet], call [people] to the way of your Lord with wisdom and good teaching. Argue with them in the most courteous way, for your Lord knows best who has strayed from His way and who is rightly guided.

126. If you [believers] have to respond to an attack, make your response proportionate, but it is best to stand fast.

127. So [Prophet] be steadfast: your steadfastness comes only from God. Do not grieve over them; do not be distressed by their scheming,

128. for God is with those who are mindful of Him and who do good.

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

1. Glory to Him who made His servant travel by night from the sacred place of worship to the furthest place of worship, whose surroundings We have blessed, to show him some of Our signs: He alone is the All Hearing, the All Seeing.

2. We also gave Moses the Scripture, and made it a guide for the Children of Israel. 'Entrust yourselves to no one but Me,

3. you descendants of those We carried with Noah: he was truly a thankful servant.'

4. We declared to the Children of Israel in the Scripture, 'Twice you will spread corruption in the land and become highly arrogant.'

5. When the first of these warnings was fulfilled, We sent against you servants of Ours with great force, and they ravaged your homes. That warning was fulfilled,

6. but then We allowed you to prevail against your enemy. We increased your wealth and offspring and made you more numerous –

7. whether you do good or evil it is to your own souls – and when the second warning was fulfilled [We sent them] to shame your faces and enter the place of worship as they did the first time, and utterly destroy whatever fell into their power.

8. Your Lord may yet have mercy on you, but if you do the same again, so shall We: We have made Hell a prison for those who defy [Our warning].

9. This Qur'an does indeed show the straightest way. It gives the faithful who do right the good news that they will have a great reward and

10. warns that We have prepared an agonizing punishment for those who do not believe in the world to come.

11. Yet man prays for harm, just as he prays for good: man is ever hasty.

12. We made the night and the day as two signs, then darkened the night and made the daylight for seeing, for you to seek your Lord's bounty and to know how to count the years and calculate. We have explained everything in detail.

13. We have bound each human being's destiny to his neck. On the Day of Resurrection, We shall bring out a record for each of them, which they will find spread wide open,

14. 'Read your record. Today your own soul is enough to calculate your account.'

15. Whoever accepts guidance does so for his own good; whoever strays does so at his own peril. No soul will bear another's burden, nor do We punish until We have sent a messenger.

16. When We decide to destroy a town, We command those corrupted by wealth [to reform], but they [persist in their] disobedience; Our sentence is passed, and We destroy them utterly.

17. How many generations We have destroyed since Noah! Your Lord knows and observes the sins of His servants well enough.

18. If anyone desires [only] the fleeting life, We speed up whatever We will in it, for whoever We wish; in the end We have prepared Hell for him in which to burn, disgraced and rejected.

19. But if anyone desires the life to come and strives after it as he should, as a true believer, his striving will be thanked.

20. To both the latter and the former, We give some of your Lord's bounty. [Prophet], your Lord's bounty is not restricted –

21. see how We have given some more than others – but the Hereafter holds greater ranks and greater favours.

22. Set up no other god beside God, or you will end up disgraced and forsaken.

Your Lord has commanded that you should worship none but Him, and that you be kind to your parents. If either or both of them reach old age with you, say no word that shows impatience with them, and do not be harsh with them, but speak to them respectfully

24. and lower your wing in humility towards them in kindness and say, 'Lord, have mercy on them, just as they cared for me when I was little.'

25. Your Lord knows best what is in your heart. If you are good, He is most forgiving to those who return to Him.

26. Give relatives their due, and the needy, and travellers – do not squander your wealth wastefully:

42. Say, 'If there were other gods along with Him, as they say there are, then they would have tried to find a way to the Lord of the Throne.'

43. Glory to Him! He is far above what they say!

44. The seven heavens and the earth and everyone in them glorify Him. There is not a single thing that does not celebrate His praise, though you do not understand their praise: He is most forbearing, most forgiving.

45. [Prophet], when you recite the Qur'an, We put an invisible barrier between you and those who do not believe in the life to come.

46. We have put covers on their hearts that prevent them from understanding it, and heaviness in their ears. When you mention your Lord in the Qur'an, and Him alone, they turn their backs and run away.

47. We know best the way they listen, when they listen to you and when they confer in secret, and these wrongdoers say, 'You are only following a man who is bewitched.'

59. Nothing prevents Us from sending miraculous signs, except the fact that previous peoples denied them. We gave the people of Thamud the she-camel as a clear sign, yet they maltreated it. We send signs only to give warning.

60. [Prophet], We have told you that your Lord knows all about human beings. The vision We showed you was only a test for people, as was the cursed tree [mentioned] in the Qur'an. We warn them, but this only increases their insolence.

61. When We said to the angels, 'Bow down before Adam,' they all bowed down, but not Iblis. He retorted, 'Why should I bow down to someone You have created out of clay?'

62. and [then] said, 'You see this being You have honoured above me? If You reprieve me until the Day of Resurrection, I will lead all but a few of his descendants by the nose.'

63. God said, 'Go away! Hell will be your reward, and the reward of any of them who follow you – an ample reward.

64. Rouse whichever of them you can with your voice, muster your cavalry and infantry against them, share their wealth and their children with them, and make promises to them – Satan promises them nothing but delusion –

65. but you will have no authority over My [true] servants: Your Lord can take care of them well enough.'

66. [People], it is your Lord who makes ships go smoothly for you on the sea so that you can seek His bounty: He is most merciful towards you.

68. Can you be sure that God will not have you swallowed up into the earth when you are back on land, or that He will not send a sandstorm against you? Then you will find no one to protect you.

69. Or can you be sure that He will not send you back out to sea, and send a violent storm against you to drown you for being so ungrateful? You will find no helper against Us there.

70. We have honoured the children of Adam and carried them by land and sea; We have provided good sustenance for them and favoured them specially above many of those We have created.

71. On the Day when We summon each community, along with its leader, those who are given their record in their right hand will read it [with pleasure]. But no one will be wronged in the least:

72. those who were blind in this life will be blind in the Hereafter, and even further off the path.

73. [Prophet], the disbelievers tried to tempt you away from what We revealed to you, so that you would invent some other revelation and attribute it to Us and then they would have taken you as a friend.

74. If We had not made you stand firm, you would almost have inclined a little towards them.

97. [Prophet], anyone God guides is truly guided, and you will find no protector other than Him for anyone He leaves astray. On the Day of Resurrection, We shall gather them, lying on their faces, blind, dumb, and deaf. Hell will be their Home. Whenever the Fire goes down, We shall make it blaze more fiercely for them.

98. This is what they will get for rejecting Our signs and saying, 'What? When we are turned to bones and dust, how can we be raised in a new act of creation?'

99. Do they not see that God, who created the heavens and earth, can create the likes of them [anew]? He has ordained a time for them – there is no doubt about that – but the evildoers refuse everything except disbelief.

100. Say, 'If you possessed the very stores of my Lord's bounty, you would hold them back in your fear of spending: man is ever grudging.'

101. In the past, We gave Moses nine clear signs – ask the Children of Israel. When Moses came to [the Egyptians], Pharaoh said to him, 'Moses, I think you are bewitched.'

102. He said, 'You know very well that only the Lord of the heavens and earth could have sent these signs as clear proof. I think that you, Pharaoh, are doomed.'

103. So he wanted to wipe them off the [face of the] earth, but We drowned him and those with him.

104. After his death, We told the Children of Israel, 'Live in the land, and when the promise of the Hereafter is fulfilled, We shall bring you to the assembly of all people.'

16. Now that you have left such people, and what they worshipped instead of God, take refuge in the cave. God will shower His mercy on you and make you an easy way out of your ordeal.'

17. You could have seen the [light of the] sun as it rose, moving away to the right of their cave, and when it set, moving away to the left of them, while they lay in the wide space inside the cave. (This is one of God's signs: those people God guides are rightly guided, but you will find no protector to lead to the right path those He leaves to stray.)

18. You would have thought they were awake, though they lay asleep. We turned them over, to the right and the left, with their dog stretching out its forelegs at the entrance. If you had seen them, you would have turned and run away, filled with fear of them.

19. In time We woke them, and they began to question one another. One of them asked, 'How long have you been here?' and [some] answered, 'A day or part of a day,' but then [others] said, 'Your Lord knows best how long you have been here. One of you go to the city with your silver coins, find out where the best food is there, and bring some back. But be careful not to let anyone know about you:

20. if they found you out, they would stone you or force you to return to their religion, where you would never come to any good.'

21. In this way We brought them to people's attention so that they might know that God's promise [of resurrection] is true and that there is no doubt about the Last Hour, [though] people argue among themselves. [Some] said, 'Construct a building over them: their Lord knows best about them.' Those who prevailed said, 'We shall build a place of worship over them.'

22. [Some] say, 'The sleepers were three, and their dog made four,' others say, 'They were five, and the dog made six' – guessing in the dark – and some say, 'They were seven, and their dog made eight.' Say [Prophet], 'My Lord knows best how many they were.' Only a few have real knowledge about them, so do not argue, but stick to what is clear, and do not ask any of these people about them;

23. do not say of anything, 'I will do that tomorrow,'

24. without adding, 'God willing,' and, whenever you forget, remember your Lord and say, 'May my Lord guide me closer to what is right.'

25. [Some say], 'The sleepers stayed in their cave for three hundred years,' some added nine more.

26. Say [Prophet], 'God knows best how long they stayed.' His is the knowledge of all that is hidden in the heavens and earth – How well He sees! How well He hears! - and they have no one to protect them other than Him; He does not allow anyone to share His rule.

27. [Prophet], follow what has been revealed to you of your Lord's Scripture: there is no changing His words, nor can you find any refuge except with Him.

Content yourself with those who pray to their Lord morning and evening, seeking His approval, and do not let your eyes turn away from them out of desire for the attractions of this worldly life: do not yield to those whose hearts We have made heedless of Our Qur'an, those who follow their own low desires, those whose ways are unbridled.

29. Say, 'Now the truth has come from your Lord: let those who wish to believe in it do so, and let those who wish to reject it do so.' We have prepared a Fire for the wrongdoers that will envelop them from all sides. If they call for relief, they will be relieved with water like molten metal, scalding their faces. What a terrible drink! What a painful resting place!

30. As for those who believe and do good deeds – We do not let the reward of anyone who does a good deed go to waste –

31. they will have Gardens of lasting bliss graced with flowing streams. There they will be adorned with bracelets of gold. There they will wear green garments of fine silk and brocade. There they will be comfortably seated on soft chairs. What a blessed reward! What a pleasant resting place!

32. Tell them the parable of two men: for one of them We made two gardens of grape vines, surrounded them with date palms, and put corn fields in between;

33. both gardens yielded fruit and did not fail in any way; We made a stream flow through them,

34. and so he had abundant fruit. One day, while talking to his friend, he said, 'I have more wealth and a larger following than you.'

35. He went into his garden and wronged himself by saying, 'I do not think this will ever perish,

36. or that the Last Hour will ever come – even if I were to be taken back to my Lord, I would certainly find something even better there.'

 His companion retorted, 'Have you no faith in Him who created you from dust, from a small drop of fluid, then shaped you into a man?

38. But, for me, He is God, my Lord, and I will never set up any partner with Him.

39. If only, when you entered your garden, you had said, "This is God's will. There is no power not [given] by God." Although you see I have less wealth and offspring than you,

40. my Lord may well give me something better than your garden, and send thunderbolts on your garden from the sky, so that it becomes a heap of barren dust;

41. or its water may sink so deep into the ground that you will never be able to reach it again.'

42. And so it was: his fruit was completely destroyed, and there he was, wringing his hands over what he had invested in it, as it drooped on its trellises, and saying, 'I wish I had not set up any partner to my Lord.'

43. He had no forces to help him other than God – he could not even help himself.

44. In that situation, the only protection is that of God, the True God: He gives the best rewards and the best outcome.

45. Tell them, too, what the life of this world is like: We send water down from the skies and the earth's vegetation absorbs it, but soon the plants turn to dry stubble scattered about by the wind: God has power over everything.

47. One day We shall make the mountains move, and you will see the earth as an open plain. We shall gather all people together, leaving no one.

48. They will be lined up before your Lord: 'Now you have come to Us as We first created you, although you claimed We had not made any such appointment for you.'

49. The record of their deeds will be laid open and you will see the guilty, dismayed at what they contain, saying, 'Woe to us! What a record this is! It does not leave any deed, small or large, unaccounted for!' They will find everything they ever did laid in front of them: your Lord will not be unjust to anyone.

50. We said to the angels, 'Bow down before Adam,' and they all bowed down, but not Iblis: he was one of the jinn and he disobeyed his Lord's command. Are you [people] going to take him and his offspring as your masters instead of Me, even though they are your enemies? What a bad bargain for the evildoers!

51. I did not make them witnesses to the creation of the heavens and earth, nor to their own creation; I do not take as My supporters those who lead others astray.

52. On the Day God will say, 'Call on those you claimed were My partners,' they will call them but they will not answer; We shall set a deadly gulf between them.

53. The evildoers will see the Fire and they will realize that they are about to fall into it: they will find no escape from it.

76. Moses said, 'From now on, if I query anything you do, banish me from your company – you have put up with enough from me.'

77. And so they travelled on. Then, when they came to a town and asked the inhabitants for food but were refused hospitality, they saw a wall there that was on the point of falling down and the man repaired it. Moses said, 'But if you had wished you could have taken payment for doing that.'

78. He said, 'This is where you and I part company. I will tell you the meaning of the things you could not bear with patiently:

79. the boat belonged to some needy people who made their living from the sea and I damaged it because I knew that coming after them was a king who was seizing every [serviceable] boat by force.

80. The young boy had parents who were people of faith, and so, fearing he would trouble them through wickedness and disbelief,

81. we wished that their Lord should give them another child – purer and more compassionate – in his place.

82. The wall belonged to two young orphans in the town and there was buried treasure beneath it belonging to them. Their father had been a righteous man, so your Lord intended them to reach maturity and then dig up their treasure as a mercy from your Lord. I did not do [these things] of my own accord: these are the explanations for those things you could not bear with patience.'

83. [Prophet], they ask you about Dhu 'l-Qarnayn. Say, 'I will tell you something about him.'

84. We established his power in the land, and gave him the means to achieve everything.

85. He travelled on a certain road;

86. then, when he came to the setting of the sun, he found it [seemed to be] setting into a muddy spring. Nearby he found some people and We said, 'Dhu 'I-Qarnayn, you may choose [which of them] to punish or show kindness to.'

87. He answered, 'We shall punish those who have done evil, and when they are returned to their Lord, He will punish them [even more] severely,

88. while those who believed and did good deeds will have the best of rewards: we shall command them to do what is easy for them.'

89. He travelled on;

90. then, when he came to the rising of the sun, he found it rising on a people for whom We had provided no shelter from it.

91. And so it was: We knew all about him.

92. He travelled on;

93. then, when he reached a place between two mountain barriers, he found beside them a people who could barely understand him.

94. They said, 'Dhu 'l-Qarnayn, Gog and Magog are ruining this land. Will you build a barrier between them and us if we pay you a tribute?'

95. He answered, 'The power my Lord has given me is better than any tribute, but if you lend me your strength, I will put up a fortification between you and them:

96. bring me lumps of iron!' and then, when he had filled the gap between the two mountainsides [he said], 'Work your bellows!' and then, when he had made it glow like fire, he said, 'Bring me molten metal to pour over it!'

97. Their enemies could not scale the barrier, nor could they pierce it,

99. On that Day, We shall let them surge against each other like waves and then the Trumpet will be blown and We shall gather them all together.

100. We shall show Hell to the disbelievers,

101. those whose eyes were blind to My signs, those who were unable to hear.

102. Did they think that they could take My servants as masters instead of Me? We have prepared Hell as the disbelievers' resting place.

103. Say [Prophet], 'Shall wea tell you who has the most to lose by their actions,

104. whose efforts in this world are misguided, even when they think they are doing good work?

105. It is those who disbelieve in their Lord's messages and deny that they will meet Him.' Their deeds come to nothing: on the Day of Resurrection, We shall give them no weight.

106. Their recompense for having disbelieved and made fun of My messages and My messengers will be Hell.

107. But those who believe and do good deeds will be given the Gardens of Paradise.

108. There they will remain, never wishing to leave. 109. Say [Prophet], 'If the whole ocean were ink for writing the words of my Lord, it would run dry before those words were exhausted' – even if We were to add another ocean to it.

110. Say, 'I am only a human being, like you, to whom it has been revealed that your God is One. Anyone who fears to meet his Lord should do good deeds and give no one a share in the worship due to his Lord.
