MARY

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. Kaf Ha Ya 'Ayn Sad
- 2. This is an account of your Lord's grace towards His servant, Zachariah,
- 3. when he called to his Lord secretly, saying,
- 4. 'Lord, my bones have weakened and my hair is ashen grey, but never, Lord, have I ever prayed to You in vain:
- 5. I fear [what] my kinsmen [will do] when I am gone, for my wife is barren, so grant me a successor a gift from You –
- 6. to be my heir and the heir of the family of Jacob. Lord, make him well pleasing [to You].'
- 7. 'Zachariah, We bring you good news of a son whose name will be John We have chosen this name for no one before him.'
- 8. He said, 'Lord, how can I have a son when my wife is barren, and I am old and frail?'
- 9. He said, 'This is what your Lord has said: "It is easy for Me: I created you, though you were nothing before."'
- 10. He said, 'Give me a sign, Lord.' He said, 'Your sign is that you will not [be able to] speak to anyone for three full [days and] nights.'
- 11. He went out of the sanctuary to his people and signalled to them to praise God morning and evening.

16. Mention in the Qur'an the story of Mary. She withdrew from her family to a place to the east

17. and secluded herself away; We sent Our Spirit to appear before her in the form of a perfected man.

18. She said, 'I seek the Lord of Mercy's protection against you: if you have any fear of Him [do not approach]!'

19. but he said, 'I am but a Messenger from your Lord, [come] to announce to you the gift of a pure son.'

20. She said, 'How can I have a son when no man has touched me? I have not been unchaste,'

21. and he said, 'This is what your Lord said: "It is easy for Me – We shall make him a sign to all people, a blessing from Us."

- 27. She went back to her people carrying the child, and they said, 'Mary! You have done something terrible!
- 28. Sister of Aaron! Your father was not an evil man; your mother was not unchaste!'
- 29. She pointed at him. They said, 'How can we converse with an infant?'
- 30. [But] he said: 'I am a servant of God. He has granted me the Scripture; made me a prophet;
- 31. made me blessed wherever I may be. He commanded me to pray, to give alms as long as I live,
- 32. to cherish my mother. He did not make me domineering or graceless.
- 33. Peace was on me the day I was born, and will be on me the day I die and the day I am raised to life again.'
- 34. Such was Jesus, son of Mary. [This is] a statement of the Truth about which they are in doubt:
- 35. it would not befit God to have a child. He is far above that: when He decrees something, He says only, 'Be,' and it is.
- 36. 'God is my Lord and your Lord, so serve Him: that is a straight path.'
- 37. But factions have differed among themselves. What suffering will come to those who obscure the truth when a dreadful Day arrives!
- 38. How sharp of hearing, how sharp of sight they will be when they come to Us, although now they are clearly off course! Warn them [Muhammad] of the Day of Remorse when the matter will be decided,

- 56. Mention too, in the Qur'an, the story of Idris. He was a man of truth, a prophet.
- 57. We raised him to a high position.
- 58. These were the prophets God blessed from the seed of Adam, of those We carried in the Ark with Noah, from the seed of Abraham and Israel and those We guided and chose. When the revelations of the Lord of Mercy were recited to them, they fell to their knees and wept,
- 59. but there came after them generations who neglected prayer and were driven by their own desires. These will come face to face with their evil,
- 60. but those who repent, who believe, who do righteous deeds, will enter Paradise. They will not be wronged in the least:
- 61. they will enter the Gardens of Lasting Bliss, promised by the Lord of Mercy to His servants it is not yet seen but truly His promise will be fulfilled.
- 62. There they will hear only peaceful talk, nothing bad; there they will be given provision morning and evening.
- 63. That is the Garden We shall give as their own to those of Our servants who were devout.
- 64. [Gabriel said], 'We only descend [with revelation] at your Lord's command everything before us, everything behind us, everything in between, all belongs to Him your Lord is never forgetful.

77. Have you considered the man who rejects Our revelation, who says, 'I will certainly be given wealth and children'?

78. Has he penetrated the unknown or received a pledge to that effect from the Lord of Mercy?

79. No! We shall certainly record what he says and prolong his punishment:

80. We shall inherit from him all that he speaks of and he will come to Us all alone.

81. They have taken other gods beside God to give them strength,

82. but these gods will reject their worship and will even turn against them.

83. Have you [Prophet] not seen how We send devils to incite the disbelievers to sin?

84. There is no need for you to be impatient concerning them: We are counting down their [allotted] time.

85. On the Day We gather the righteous as an honoured company before the Lord of Mercy

86. and drive the sinful like a thirsty herd into Hell,

87. no one will have power to intercede except for those who have permission from the Lord of Mercy.

88. The disbelievers say, 'The Lord of Mercy has offspring.'

89. How terrible is this thing you assert:

90. it almost causes the heavens to be torn apart, the earth to split asunder, the mountains to crumble to pieces,

91. that they attribute offspring to the Lord of Mercy.

92. It does not befit the Lord of Mercy [to have offspring]:

93. there is no one in the heavens or earth who will not come to the Lord of Mercy as a servant –

94. He has counted them all: He has numbered them exactly –

95. and they will each return to Him on the Day of Resurrection all alone.

95. Moses said, 'And what was the matter with you, Samiri?'

96. He replied, 'I saw something they did not; I took in some of the teachings of the Messenger but tossed them aside: my soul prompted me to do what I did.'

97. Moses said, 'Get away from here! Your lot in this life is to say, "Do not touch me," but you have an appointment from which there is no escape. Look at your god which you have kept on worshipping – we shall grind it down and scatter it into the sea.

98. [People], your true god is the One God – there is no god but Him – whose knowledge embraces everything.'

99. In this way We relate to you [Prophet] stories of what happened before. We have given you a Qur'an from Us.

100. Whoever turns away from it will bear on the Day of Resurrection a heavy burden

101. and will remain under it. What a terrible burden to carry on that Day!

102. When the trumpet is sounded and We gather the sinful, sightless,

103. they will murmur to one another, 'You stayed only ten days [on earth]' -

104. We know best what they say—but the more perceptive of them will say, 'Your stay [on earth] was only a single day.'

105. They ask you [Prophet] about the mountains: say, '[On that Day] my Lord will blast them into dust

106. and leave a flat plain,

107. with no peak or trough to be seen.

108. On that Day, people will follow the summoner from whom there is no escape; every voice will be hushed for the Lord of Mercy; only whispers will be heard.

109. On that Day, intercession will be useless except from those to whom the Lord of Mercy has granted permission and whose words He approves -

110. He knows what is before and behind them, though they do not comprehend Him -

111. and [all] faces will be humbled before the Living, Ever Watchful One. Those burdened with evil deeds will despair,

112. but whoever has done righteous deeds and believed need have no fear of injustice or deprivation.'

114. exalted be God, the one who is truly in control. [Prophet], do not rush to recite before the revelation is fully complete but say, 'Lord, increase me in knowledge!'

115. We also commanded Adam before you, but he forgot and We found him lacking in constancy.

116. When We said to the angels, 'Bow down before Adam,' they did. But Iblis refused,

117. so We said, 'Adam, this is your enemy, yours and your wife's: do not let him drive you out of the garden and make you miserable.

118. In the garden you will never go hungry, feel naked,

119. be thirsty, or suffer the heat of the sun.'

120. But Satan whispered to Adam, saying, 'Adam, shall I show you the tree of immortality and power that never decays?'

121. and they both ate from it. They became conscious of their nakedness and began to cover themselves with leaves from the garden. Adam disobeyed his Lord and was led astray –

122. later his Lord brought him close, accepted his repentance, and guided him -

123. God said, 'Get out of the garden as each other's enemy.' Whoever follows My guidance, when it comes to you [people], will not go astray nor fall into misery,

124. but whoever turns away from it will have a life of great hardship. We shall bring him blind to the Assembly on the Day of Resurrection

125. and he will say, 'Lord, why did You bring me here blind? I was sighted before!'

126. God will say, 'This is how it is: You ignored Our revelations when they came to you, so today you will be ignored.'

127. This is how We reward those who go too far, and who do not believe in their Lord's revelations. The greatest and most enduring punishment is in the Hereafter.

128. Do they not draw a lesson from the many generations We destroyed before them, through whose dwelling places they now walk? There truly are signs in this for anyone with understanding!

129. If it were not for a preordained Word from your Lord [Prophet], they would already have been destroyed. Their time has been set,

130. so [Prophet] be patient with what they say – celebrate the praise of your Lord, before the rising and setting of the sun, celebrate His praise during the night, and at the beginning and end of the day, so that you may find contentment –

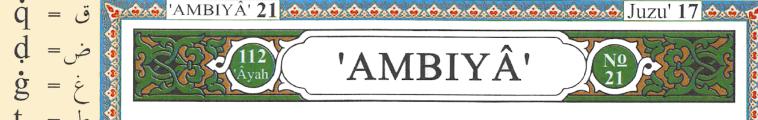

131. and do not gaze longingly at what We have given some of them to enjoy, the finery of this present life: We test them through this, but the provision of your Lord is better and more lasting.

132. Order your people to pray, and pray steadfastly yourself. We are not asking you to give Us provision; We provide for you, and the rewards of the Hereafter belong to the devout.

133. The disbelievers say, 'Why does he not bring us a sign from his Lord?' Have they not been given clear proof confirming what was in the earlier scriptures?

134. If We had destroyed them through punishment before this Messenger came, they would have said, 'Lord, if only You had sent us a messenger, we could have followed Your revelations before we suffered humiliation and disgrace!'

135. [Prophet], say, 'We are all waiting, so you carry on waiting: you will come to learn who has followed the even path, and been rightly guided.'

- 1. Ever closer to people draws their reckoning, while they turn away, heedless.
- 2. Whenever any fresh revelation comes to them from their Lord, they listen to it playfully
- 3. with frivolous hearts. The evildoers conferred in secret: 'Is this man anything but a mortal like yourselves? Are you going to fall under his spell with your eyes wide open?'
- 4. He said, 'My Lord knows everything that is said in the heavens and the earth: He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing.'
- 5. Some say, 'Muddled dreams'; others, 'He made it up'; yet others, 'He is just a poet, let him show us a sign as previous messengers did.'
- 6. But of the communities We destroyed before them not a single one believed. Will these now believe?
- 7. And even before your time [Prophet], all the messengers We sent were only men We inspired – if you [disbelievers] do not know, ask people who know the Scripture –
- 8. We did not give them bodies that ate no food, nor were they immortal.
- 9. We fulfilled Our promise to them in the end: We saved them and those We wished to save, and We destroyed those who exceeded all bounds.
- 10. And now We have sent down to you [people] a Scripture to remind you. Will you not use your reason?

20. they glorify Him tirelessly night and day.

21. Have they chosen any gods from the earth who can give life to the dead?

Whatever We choose We cause to remain in the womb for an appointed time, then We bring you forth as infants and then you grow and reach maturity. Some die young and some are left to live on to such an age that they forget all they once knew. You sometimes see the earth lifeless, yet when We send down water it stirs and swells and produces every kind of joyous growth:

- 12. Instead of God, they call upon what can neither harm nor help them that is straying far away –

16. In this way, We send the Qur'an down as clear messages, and God guides whoever He will.

- 17. As for the believers, those who follow the Jewish faith, the Sabians, the Christians, the Magians, and the idolaters, God will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection; God witnesses all things.
- 18. Do you not realize [Prophet] that everything in the heavens and earth submits to God: the sun, the moon, the stars, the mountains, the trees, and the animals? So do many human beings, though for many others punishment is well deserved. Anyone disgraced by God will have no one to honour him: God does whatever He will.
- 19. These two kinds of people disagree about their Lord. Garments of fire will be tailored for those who disbelieve; scalding water will be poured over their heads,
- 20. melting their insides as well as their skins;
- 21. there will be iron crooks to restrain them;
- 22. whenever, in their anguish, they try to escape, they will be pushed back in and told, 'Taste the suffering of the Fire.'

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. This is a sura We have sent down and made obligatory: We have sent down clear revelations in it, so that you may take heed.
- 2. Strike the adulteress and the adulterer one hundred times. Do not let compassion for them keep you from carrying out God's law - if you believe in God and the Last Day - and ensure that a group of believers witnesses the punishment.
- 3. The adulterer is only [fit] to marry an adulteress or an idolatress, and the adulteress is only [fit] to marry an adulterer or an idolater: such behaviour is forbidden to believers.
- 4. As for those who accuse chaste women of fornication, and then fail to provide four witnesses, strike them eighty times, and reject their testimony ever afterwards: they are the lawbreakers,
- 5. except for those who repent later and make amends God is most forgiving and merciful.
- 6. As for those who accuse their own wives of adultery, but have no other witnesses, let each one four times call God to witness that he is telling the truth,
- 7. and, the fifth time, call God to reject him if he is lying;
- 8. punishment shall be averted from his wife if she in turn four times calls God to witness that her husband is lying
- 9. and, the fifth time, calls God to reject her if he is telling the truth.
- 10. If it were not for God's bounty and mercy towards you, if it were not that God accepts repentance and is wise . . .!

11. It was a group from among you that concocted the lie – do not consider it a bad thing for you [people]; it was a good thing – and every one of them will be charged with the sin he has earned. He who took the greatest part in it will have a painful punishment.

12. When you heard the lie, why did believing men and women not think well of their own people and declare, 'This is obviously a lie'?

13. And why did the accusers not bring four witnesses to it? If they cannot produce such witnesses, they are the liars in God's eyes.

14. If it were not for God's bounty and mercy towards you in this world and the next, you would already have been afflicted by terrible suffering for indulging in such talk.

15. When you took it up with your tongues, and spoke with your mouths things you did not know [to be true], you thought it was trivial but to God it was very serious.

16. When you heard the lie, why did you not say, 'We should not repeat this – God forbid! – It is a monstrous slander'?

21. Believers, do not follow in Satan's footsteps – if you do so, he will urge you to indecency and evil. If it were not for God's bounty and mercy towards you, not one of you would ever have attained purity. God purifies whoever He will: God is all hearing, all seeing.

22. Those who have been graced with bounty and plenty should not swear that they will [no longer] give to kinsmen, the poor, those who emigrated in God's way: let them pardon and forgive. Do you not wish that God should forgive you? God is most forgiving and merciful.

23. Those who accuse honourable but unwary believing women are rejected by God, in this life and the next. A painful punishment awaits them

24. on the Day when their own tongues, hands, and feet will testify against them about what they have done –

25. on that Day, God will pay them their just due in full – and they will realize that God is the Truth that makes everything clear.

26. Corrupt women are for corrupt men, and corrupt men are for corrupt women; good women are for good men and good men are for good women. The good are innocent of what has been said against them; they will have forgiveness and a generous provision.

27. Believers, do not enter other people's houses until you have asked permission to do so and greeted those inside – that is best for you: perhaps you will bear this in mind.

30. [Prophet], tell believing men to lower their glances and guard their private parts: that is purer for them. God is well aware of everything they do.

31. And tell believing women that they should lower their glances, guard their private parts, and not display their charms beyond what [it is acceptable] to reveal; they should let their headscarves fall to cover their necklines and not reveal their charms except to their husbands, their fathers, their husbands' fathers, their sons, their husbands' sons, their brothers, their brothers' sons, their sisters' sons, their womenfolk, their slaves, such men as attend them who have no sexual desire, or children who are not yet aware of women's nakedness; they should not stamp their feet so as to draw attention to any hidden charms. 54. Say, 'Obey God; obey the Messenger. If you turn away, [know that] he is responsible for the duty placed upon him, and you are responsible for the duty placed upon you. If you obey him, you will be rightly guided, but the Messenger's duty is only to deliver the message clearly.'

55. God has made a promise to those among you who believe and do good deeds: He will make them successors to the land, as He did those who came before them; He will empower the religion He has chosen for them; He will grant them security to replace their fear. 'They will worship Me and not join anything with Me.' Those who are defiant after that will be the rebels. –

56. [People], keep up the prayer, pay the prescribed alms, and obey the Messenger, so that you may be given mercy.

57. Do not think [Prophet] that the disbelievers can escape God on earth; the Fire will be their final home, an evil end.

58. Believers, your slaves and any who have not yet reached puberty should ask your permission to come in at three times of day: before the dawn prayer; when you lay your garments aside in the midday heat; and after the evening prayer. These are your three times for privacy; at other times, there is no blame on you or them if you move around each other freely. In this way God makes messages clear: God is all knowing, all wise.

- 61. No blame will be attached to the blind, the lame, the sick. Whether you eat in your own houses, or those of your fathers, your mothers, your brothers, your sisters, your paternal uncles, your paternal aunts, your maternal uncles, your maternal aunts, houses you have the keys for, or any of your friends' houses, you will not be blamed: you will not be blamed whether you eat in company or separately. - 62. The true believers are those who believe in God and His Messenger, who, when they are gathered with him on a communal matter, do not depart until they have asked his permission – those who ask your permission [Prophet] are the ones who truly believe in God and His Messenger. When they ask your permission to attend to their private affairs, allow whoever you see fit and ask God to forgive them. God is most forgiving and merciful.
- 63. [People], do not regard the Messenger's summons to you like one of you summoning another - God is well aware of those of you who steal away surreptitiously – and those who go against his order should beware lest a trial afflict them or they receive a painful punishment.
- 64. Everything in the heavens and earth belongs to God: He knows what state you are in - on the Day when all are returned to Him, He will tell them everything they have done - God has full knowledge of everything.

- 7. Do they not see the earth, and what noble kinds of thing We grow in it?
- 8. There truly is a sign in this, though most of them do not believe:
- 9. your Lord alone is the Almighty, the Merciful.
- 10. Your Lord called to Moses: 'Go to those wrongdoers,
- 11. the people of Pharaoh. Will they not take heed?'
- 12. Moses said, 'My Lord, I fear they will call me a liar,
- 13. and I will feel stressed and tongue-tied, so send Aaron too;
- 14. besides, they have a charge against me, and I fear they may kill me.'
- 15. God said, 'No [they will not]. Go, both of you, with Our signs We shall be with you, listening.

184. Be mindful of God who created you and former generations,'

185. But they replied, 'You are bewitched!

186. You are nothing but a man like us. In fact, we think you are a liar.

187. Make bits of the heavens fall down on us if you are telling the truth.'

188. He said, 'My Lord knows best what you do.'

189. They called him a liar, and so the torment of the Day of Shadow came upon them – it was the torment of a terrible day.

190. There truly is a sign in this, though most of them will not believe:

191. Your Lord alone is the Almighty, the Merciful.

192. Truly, this Qur'an has been sent down by the Lord of the Worlds:

193. The Trustworthy Spirit brought it down

194. To your heart [Prophet], so that you could bring warning

195. In a clear Arabic tongue.

196. This was foretold in the scriptures of earlier religions.

197. Is it not proof enough for them that the learned men of the Children of Israel have recognized it?

198. If We had sent it down to someone who was not an Arab,

199. And he had recited it to them, they still would not have believed in it.

200. So We make it pass straight through the hearts of the guilty:

201. They will not believe in it until they see the grievous torment,

202. Which will suddenly hit them when they are not expecting it,

203. And then they will say, 'Can we have more time?'

204. How can they ask that Our punishment be brought to them sooner?

205. Think, if we let them enjoy this life for some years

206. And then the promised torment came upon them,

37. Go back to your people: we shall certainly come upon them with irresistible forces, and drive them, disgraced and humbled, from their land.'

38. Then he said, 'Counsellors, which of you can bring me her throne before they come to me in submission?'

39. A powerful and crafty jinn replied, 'I will bring it to you before you can even rise from your place. I am strong and trustworthy enough,'

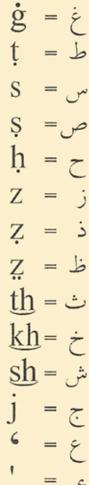

40. But one of them who had some knowledge of the Scripture said, 'I will bring it to you in the twinkling of an eye.'

41. When Solomon saw it set before him, he said, 'This is a favour from my Lord, to test whether I am grateful or not: if anyone is grateful, it is for his own good; if anyone is ungrateful, then my Lord is self-sufficient and most generous.'

42. Then he said, 'Disguise her throne, and we shall see whether or not she recognizes it.'

43. When she arrived, she was asked, 'Is this your throne?' She replied, 'It looks like it.' [Solomon said], 'We were given knowledge before her, and we devoted ourselves to God; She was prevented by what she worshipped instead of God, for she came from a disbelieving people.'

44. Then it was said to her, 'Enter the hall,' but when she saw it, she thought it was a deep pool of water, and bared her legs. Solomon explained, 'It is just a hall paved with glass,' and she said, 'My Lord, I have wronged myself: I devote myself, with Solomon, to God, the Lord of the Worlds.'

57. We saved him and his family – except for his wife: We made her stay behind-

58. and We brought rain down on them. How dreadful that rain was for those who had been warned!

59. Say [Prophet], 'Praise be to God and peace on the servants He has chosen. Who is better: God, or those they set up as partners with Him?

60. Who created the heavens and earth? Who sends down water from the sky for you— with which We cause gardens of delight to grow: you have no power to make the trees grow in them- is it another god beside God? No! But they are people who take others to be equal with God.

61. Who is it that made the earth a stable place to live? Who made rivers flow through it? Who set immovable mountains on it and created a barrier between the fresh and salt water? Is it another god beside God? No! But most of them do not know.

62. Who is it that answers the distressed when they call upon Him? Who removes their suffering? Who makes you successors in the earth? Is it another god beside God? Little notice you take!

63. Who is it that guides you through the darkness on land and sea? Who sends the winds as heralds of good news before His mercy? Is it another god beside God? God is far above the partners they put beside him!

14. When Moses reached full maturity and manhood, We gave him wisdom and knowledge: this is how We reward those who do good.

15. He entered the city, unnoticed by its people, and found two men fighting: one from his own people, the other an enemy. The one from his own people cried out to him for help against the enemy. Moses struck him with his fist and killed him. He said, 'This must be Satan's work: clearly he is a misleading enemy.'

16. He said, 'Lord, I have wronged myself. Forgive me,' so He forgave him; He is truly the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful.

17. He said, 'My Lord, because of the blessings You have bestowed upon me, I shall never support those who do evil.'

18. Next morning, he was walking in the city, fearful and vigilant, when suddenly the man he had helped the day before cried out to him for help. Moses said, 'You are clearly a troublemaker.'

19. As he was about to attack the man who was an enemy to both of them, the man said, 'Moses, are you going to kill me as you killed that person yesterday? You clearly want to be a tyrant in the land; you do not intend to put things right.'

20. Then a man came running from the furthest part of the city and said, 'Moses, the authorities are talking about killing you, so leave – this is my sincere advice.'

21. So Moses left the city, fearful and wary, and prayed, 'My Lord, save me from people who do wrong.'

22. As he made his way towards Midian, he was saying, 'May my Lord guide me to the right way.'

23. When he arrived at Midian's waters, he found a group of men watering [their flocks], and beside them two women keeping their flocks back, so he said, 'What is the matter with you two?' They said, 'We cannot water [our flocks] until the shepherds take their sheep away: our father is a very old man.'

24. He watered their flocks for them, withdrew into the shade, and prayed, 'My Lord, I am in dire need of whatever good thing You may send me,'

25. and then one of the two women approached him, walking shyly, and said, 'My father is asking for you: he wants to reward you for watering our flocks for us.'

26. When Moses came to him and told him his story, the old man said, 'Do not be afraid, you are safe now from people who do wrong.'

27. One of the women said, 'Father, hire him: a strong, trustworthy man is the best to hire.'

28. The father said, 'I would like to marry you to one of these daughters of mine, on condition that you serve me for eight years: if you complete ten, it will be of your own free will. I do not intend to make things difficult for you: God willing, you will find I am a fair man.'

29. Once Moses had fulfilled the term and was traveling with his family, he caught sight of a fire on the side of the mountain and said to his family, 'Wait! I have seen a fire. I will bring you news from there, or a burning stick for you to warm yourselves.'

30. But when he reached it, a voice called out to him from the right-hand side of the valley, from a tree on the blessed ground: 'Moses, I am God, the Lord of the Worlds.

31. Throw down your staff.' When he saw his staff moving like a snake, he fled in fear and would not return. Again [he was called]: 'Moses! Draw near! Do not be afraid, for you are one of those who are safe.

32. Put your hand inside your shirt and it will come out white but unharmed – hold your arm close to your side, free from all fear. These shall be two signs from your Lord to Pharaoh and his chiefs; they are truly wicked people.'

33. Moses said, 'My Lord, I killed one of their men, and I fear that they may kill me.

34. My brother Aaron is more eloquent than I: send him with me to help me and confirm my words – I fear they may call me a liar.'

35. God said, 'We shall strengthen you through your brother; We shall give you both power so that they cannot touch you. With Our signs you, and those who follow you, will triumph.'

- 44. You [Muhammad] were not present on the western side of the mountain when We gave Our command to Moses: you were not there -
- 45. We have brought into being many generations who lived long lives – you did not live among the people of Midian or recite Our Revelation to them – We have always sent messengers to people–
- 46. nor were you present on the side of Mount Sinai when We called out to Moses. But you too have been sent as an act of grace from your Lord, to give warning to a people to whom no warner has come before, so that they may take heed,
- 47. and may not say, if a disaster should befall them as a result of what they have done with their own hands, 'Lord, if only You had sent us a messenger, we might have followed Your message and become believers.'
- 48. Even now that Our truth has come to them, they say, 'Why has he not been given signs like those given to Moses?' Did they not also deny the truth that was given to Moses before? They say, 'Two kinds of sorcery, helping each other,' and, 'We refuse to accept either of them.'
- 49. Say [Muhammad], 'Then produce a book from God that gives better guidance than these two and I will follow it, if you are telling the truth.'
- 50. If they do not respond to you, you will know that they follow only their own desires. Who is further astray than the one who follows his own desires with no guidance from God? Truly God does not guide those who do wrong.

52. Those to whom We gave the Scripture before believe in it,

56. You [Prophet] cannot guide everyone you love to the truth; it is God who guides whoever He will: He knows best those who will follow guidance.

57. They say, 'If we were to follow guidance with you [Prophet], we would be swept from our land.' Have We not established for them a secure sanctuary where every kind of produce is brought, as a provision from Us? But most of them do not comprehend.

58. We have destroyed many a community that once reveled in its wanton wealth and easy living: since then, their dwelling places have barely been inhabited—We are the only heir.

51. Yet they will continue in their disbelief, even if We send a [scorching] wind and they see their crops turn yellow.

52. You [Prophet] cannot make the dead hear, and you cannot make the deaf hear your call when they turn their backs and leave.

53. You cannot lead the blind out of their error: the only ones you can make hear you are those who believe in Our revelations and devote themselves [to Us].

54. It is God who creates you weak, then gives you strength, then weakness after strength, together with your grey hair: He creates what He will; He is the All-Knowing, the All-Powerful.

55. On the Day the Hour comes, the guilty will swear they lingered no more than an hour – they have always been deluded–

56. But those endowed with knowledge and faith will say, 'In accordance with God's decree, you actually lingered till the Day of Resurrection: this is the Day of Resurrection, yet you did not know.'

57. On that Day, the evildoers' excuses will be of no use to them: they will not be allowed to make amends.

58. In this Qur'an, We have set every kind of illustration before people, yet if you [Prophet] brought them a miracle, the disbelievers would still say, 'You [prophets] deal only in falsehood.'

59. In this way, God seals the hearts of those who do not know,

60. So be patient, for God's promise is true: do not let those with no firm beliefs discourage you.

- 3. [with] guidance and mercy for those who do good,
- 4. who keep up the prayer, pay the prescribed alms, and are certain of the Hereafter:
- 5. these are rightly guided by their Lord, and it is they who will prosper.
- 6. But there is the sort of person who pays for distracting tales, intending, without any knowledge, to lead others from God's way, and to hold it up to ridicule. There will be humiliating torment for him!
- 7. When Our verses are recited to him, he turns away disdainfully as if he had not heard them, as if there were heaviness in his ears. Tell him that there will be a painful torment!
- 8. But for those who believe and do righteous deeds, there will be Gardens of bliss.
- 9. Where they will stay: that is God's true promise, and He is the Almighty, the All Wise.
- 10. He created the heavens without any visible support, and He placed firm mountains on the earth - in case it should shake under you – and He spread all kinds of animals around it. We sent down water from the sky, with which We made every kind of good plant grow on earth:
- 11. All this is God's creation. Now, show Me what your other gods have created. No, the disbelievers are clearly astray.

- 14. We have commanded people to be good to their parents: their mothers carried them, with strain upon strain, and it takes two years to wean them. Give thanks to Me and to your parents – all will return to Me.
- 15. If they strive to make you associate with Me anything about which you have no knowledge, then do not obey them. Yet keep their company in this life according to what is right, and follow the path of those who turn to Me. You will all return to Me in the end, and I will tell you everything that you have done.
- 16. [And Lugman continued], 'My son, if even the weight of a mustard seed were hidden in a rock or anywhere in the heavens or earth, God would bring it [to light], for He is all subtle and all aware.
- 17. Keep up the prayer, my son; command what is right; forbid what is wrong; bear anything that happens to you steadfastly: these are things to be aspired to.

29. [Prophet], do you not see that God causes the night to merge into day and the day to merge into night; that He has subjected the sun and the moon, each to run its course for a stated term; that He is aware of everything you [people] do?

30. This is because God is the Truth, and what they invoke beside Him is false. He is the Most High, Most Great.

31. [Prophet], do you not see that ships sail through the sea, by the grace of God, to show you [people] some of His wonders? Truly there are signs in this for every steadfast, thankful person.

32. When the waves loom over those on board like giant shadows they call out to God, devoting their religion entirely to Him. But, when He has delivered them safely to land, some of them waver – only a treacherous, thankless person refuses to acknowledge Our signs.

33. People, be mindful of your Lord and fear a day when no parent will take the place of their child, nor a child take the place of their parent, in any way. God's promise is true, so do not let the present life delude you, nor let the Deceiver delude you about God.

34. Knowledge of the Hour [of Resurrection] belongs to God; it is He who sends down the relieving rain and He who knows what is hidden in the womb. No soul knows what it will reap tomorrow, and no soul knows in what land it will die; it is God who is all knowing and all aware.

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. Alif Lam Mim
- 2. This scripture, free from all doubt, has been sent down from the Lord of the Worlds.
- 3. Yet they say, 'Muhammad has made it up.' No indeed! It is the Truth from your Lord for you [Prophet], to warn a people who have had no one to warn them before, so that they may be guided.
- 4. It is God who created the heavens and the earth and everything between them in six Days. Then He established Himself on the Throne. You [people] have no one but Him to protect you and no one to intercede for you, so why do you not take heed?
- 5. He runs everything, from the heavens to the earth, and everything will ascend to Him in the end, on a Day that will measure a thousand years in your reckoning.
- 6. Such is He who knows all that is unseen as well as what is seen, the Almighty, the Merciful,
- 7. who gave everything its perfect form. He first created man from clay,
- 8. then made his descendants from an extract of underrated fluid.
- 9. Then He moulded him; He breathed from His Spirit into him; He gave you hearing, sight, and minds. How seldom you are grateful!
- 10. They say, 'What? When we have disappeared into the earth, shall we really be created anew?' In fact, they deny the meeting with their Lord.
- 11. Say, 'The Angel of Death put in charge of you will reclaim you, and then you will be brought back to your Lord.'

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. Prophet, be mindful of God and do not give in to the disbelievers and the hypocrites: God is all-knowing, all-wise.
- 2. Follow what your Lord reveals to you: God is well aware of all your actions.
- 3. Put your trust in God: God is enough to trust.
- 4. God does not put two hearts within a man's breast. He does not turn the wives you reject and liken to your mothers' backs into your real mothers; nor does He make your adopted sons into real sons. These are only words from your mouths, while God speaks the truth and guides people to the right path.
- 5. Name your adopted sons after their real fathers: this is more equitable in God's eyes – if you do not know who their fathers are [they are your] 'brothers-in-religion' and protégés. You will not be blamed if you make a mistake, only for what your hearts deliberately intend; God is most forgiving and merciful.
- 6. The Prophet is more protective towards the believers than they are themselves, while his wives are their mothers. In God's Scripture, blood-relatives have a stronger claim than other believers and emigrants, though you may still bestow gifts on your protégés. All this is written in the Scripture.

- 7. We took a solemn pledge from the prophets from you [Muhammad], from Noah, from Abraham, from Moses, from Jesus, son of Mary – We took a solemn pledge from all of them.

- 9. You who believe, remember God's goodness to you when mighty armies massed against you: We sent a violent wind and invisible forces against them. God sees all that you do.
- 10. They massed against you from above and below; your eyes rolled [with fear], your hearts rose into your throats, and you thought [ill] thoughts of God.
- 11. There the believers were sorely tested and deeply shaken.
- 12. The hypocrites and the sick at heart said, 'God and His Messenger promised us nothing but delusions!'
- 13. Some of them said, 'People of Yathrib, you will not be able to withstand [the attack], so go back!' Some of them asked the Prophet's permission to leave, saying, 'Our houses are exposed,' even though they were not – they just wanted to run away.

36. When God and His Messenger have decided on a matter that concerns them, it is not fitting for any believing man or woman to claim freedom of choice in that matter: whoever disobeys God and His Messenger is far astray.

37. When you [Prophet] said to the man who had been favored by God and by you, 'Keep your wife and be mindful of God,' you hid in your heart what God would later reveal: you were afraid of people, but it is more fitting that you fear God. When Zayd no longer wanted her, we gave her to you in marriage so that there might be no fault in believers marrying the wives of their adopted sons after they no longer wanted them. God's command must be carried out.

38. The Prophet is not at fault for what God has ordained for him. This was God's practice with those who went before – God's command must be fulfilled.

39. [And with all] those who deliver God's messages and fear only Him and no other: God's reckoning is enough.

40. Muhammad is not the father of any one of you men; he is God's Messenger and the seal of the prophets: God knows everything.

41. Believers, remember God often.

42. And glorify Him morning and evening:

43. It is He who blesses you, as do His angels, in order to lead you out of the depths of darkness into the light. He is ever merciful towards the believers.

- 51. You may make any of [your women] wait and receive any of them as you wish, but you will not be at fault if you invite one whose turn you have previously set aside: this way it is more likely that they will be satisfied and will not be distressed and will all be content with what you have given them. God knows what is in your hearts: God is all-knowing, forbearing.
- 52. You [Prophet] are not permitted to take any further wives, nor to exchange the wives you have for others, even if these attract you with their beauty. But this does not apply to your slave-girls: God is watchful over all.
- 53. Believers, do not enter the Prophet's apartments for a meal unless you are given permission to do so; do not linger until [a meal] is ready. When you are invited, go in; then, when you have taken your meal, leave. Do not stay on and talk, for that would offend the Prophet, though he would shrink from asking you to leave. God does not shrink from the truth. When you ask his wives for something, do so from behind a screen: this is purer both for your hearts and for theirs. It is not right for you to offend God's Messenger, just as you should never marry his wives after him: that would be grievous in God's eyes.
- 54. God has full knowledge of all things, whether you reveal them or not.

- 55. The Prophet's wives are not to blame [if they are seen by] their fathers, their sons, their brothers, their brothers' sons, their sisters' sons, their women, or their slaves. [Wives of the Prophet], be mindful of God. God observes everything.
- 56. God and His angels bless the Prophet so, you who believe, bless him too and give him greetings of peace.
- 57. Those who insult God and His Messenger will be rejected by God in this world and the next – He has prepared a humiliating torment for them -
- 58. And those who undeservedly insult believing men and women will bear the guilt of slander and flagrant sin.
- 59. Prophet, tell your wives, your daughters, and women believers to make their outer garments hang low over them so as to be recognized and not insulted: God is most forgiving, most merciful.
- 60. If the hypocrites, the sick at heart, and those who spread lies in the city do not desist, We shall rouse you [Prophet] against them, and then they will only be your neighbours in this city for a short while.
- 61. They will be rejected. Wherever they are found, they will be arrested and put to death.
- 62. This has been God's practice with those who went before. You will find no change in God's practices.

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

SHEBA

- 1. Praise be to God, to whom belongs all that is in the heavens and earth, and praise be to Him in the life to come. He is the All-Wise, the All-Aware.
- 2. He knows all that goes into the earth and all that comes out of it; He knows all that comes down from the heavens and all that goes up to them. He is the Merciful, the Forgiving.
- 3. Still, the disbelievers say, 'The Last Hour will never come upon us.' Say, 'Yes, by my Lord, [it will], by Him who knows the unseen! Not even the weight of a speck of dust in the heavens or earth escapes His knowledge, nor anything smaller or greater. It is all recorded in a clear Record
- 4. So that He can reward those who believe and do good deeds: they will have forgiveness and generous provision.'
- 5. But as for those who work against Our Revelations, seeking to undermine them, there will be a torment of painful suffering.
- 6. [Prophet], those who have been given knowledge can see that what has been sent to you from your Lord is the truth, and that it leads to the path of the Almighty, worthy of all praise.
- 7. But the disbelievers say, 'Shall we show you a man who claims that when you have been utterly torn to pieces, you will be raised in a new creation?

8. Has he invented a lie about God? Is he mad?' No! It is those who do not believe in the life to come who will suffer torment, for they are in gross error.

- 9. Do they not think about what is in front of them and behind them in the heavens and earth? If We wished, We could make the earth swallow them, or make fragments from the heavens fall down upon them. There truly is a sign in this for every servant who turns back to God in repentance.
- 10. We graced David with Our favour. We said, 'You mountains, echo God's praises together with him, and you birds, too.' We softened iron for him,
- 11. Saying, 'Make coats of chain mail and measure the links well.' 'Do good, all of you, for I see everything you do.'
- 12. And [We subjected] the wind for Solomon. Its outward journey took a month, and its return journey likewise. We made a fountain of molten brass flow for him, and some of the jinn worked under his control with his Lord's permission. If one of them deviated from Our command, We let him taste the suffering of the blazing flame.
- 13. They made him whatever he wanted—palaces, statues, basins as large as water troughs, fixed cauldrons. We said, 'Work thankfully, family of David, for few of my servants are truly thankful.'
- 14. Then, when We decreed Solomon's death, nothing showed the jinn he was dead, but a creature of the earth eating at his stick: when he fell down, they realized if they had known what was hidden, they would not have continued their demeaning labour.

- 15. There was a sign for the people of Sheba, too, in their dwelling place: two gardens, one on the right, one on the left: 'Eat from what your Lord has provided for you and give Him thanks, for your land is good, and your Lord most forgiving.'
- 16. But they paid no heed, so We let loose on them a flood from the dam and replaced their two gardens with others that yielded bitter fruit, tamarisk bushes, and a few lote trees.
- 17. In this way We punished them for their ingratitude would We punish anyone but the ungrateful?
- 18. Also, We had placed, between them and the towns We had blessed, other towns within sight of one another to which they could travel easily – 'Travel safely in this land by night and by day' –
- 19. But [still] they complained, 'Our Lord has made the distance between our staging posts so long!' They wronged themselves and, in the end, We made their fate a byword, and scattered them in countless fragments. There truly are signs in this for every patient, thankful person.
- 20. Satan was proved right in his opinion of them, for they all followed him – except for a group of believers –

23. Intercession will not work with Him, except by those to whom He gives permission.' They will be asked, after the terror is lifted from their hearts [on the Day of Judgement], 'What did your Lord speak?' and they will answer, 'The Truth. He is the Most High, the Most Great.'

28. We have sent you [Prophet] only to bring good news and warning to all people, but most of them do not understand.

29. And they say, 'If what you say is true, when will this promise be fulfilled?'

30. Say, 'You have an appointment for a Day which you cannot put off nor bring forward, even by a single moment.'

31. The disbelievers say, 'We will believe neither this Qur'an nor the Scriptures that came before it.' If only you could see [Prophet] how the wrongdoers will be made to stand before their Lord, hurling reproaches at one another. Those who were oppressed will say to the oppressors, 'If it were not for you, we would have been believers.'

- 43. When Our messages are recited to them, clear as they are, they say, 'This is only a man who wants to turn you away from what your forefathers worshipped,' and, 'This [Qur'an] is nothing but lies he has made up.' When the Truth comes to the disbelievers, they say, 'This is just plain sorcery,'

- 46. Say [Prophet], 'I advise you to do one thing only: stand before God, in pairs or singly, and think: there is no sign of madness in your companion [the Prophet]— he is only warning you before severe suffering arrives.'
- 47. Say, 'If I have asked you for any reward, you can keep it. It is God alone who will reward me: He is witness to everything.'

- - 13. Give them the example of the people to whose town
 - messengers came. 14. We sent two messengers but they rejected both. Then We reinforced them with a third.
 - 15. They said, 'Truly, we are messengers to you,'
 - 16. But they answered, 'You are only men like ourselves. The Lord of Mercy has sent nothing; you are just lying.' They said, 'Our Lord knows that we have been sent to you.
 - 17. Our duty is only to deliver the message to you,'
 - 18. But they answered, 'We think you are an evil omen. If you do not stop, we shall stone you, and inflict a painful torment on you.'
 - 19. The messengers said, 'The evil omen is within yourselves. Why do you take it as an evil omen when you are reminded of the Truth? You are going too far!'
 - 20. Then, from the furthest part of the city, a man came running. He said, 'My people, follow the messengers.
 - 21. Follow them: they are not asking you to reward them and they are rightly guided.
 - 22. Why should I not worship the One who created me? It is to Him that you will be returned.
 - 23. How could I take besides Him any other gods, whose intercession will not help me and who would not be able to save me if the Lord of Mercy wished to harm me?
 - 24. Then I would clearly be in the wrong.
 - 25. I believe in your Lord, so listen to me.'
 - 26. He was told, 'Enter the Garden,' so he said, 'If only my people knew
 - 27. How my Lord has forgiven me and set me among the highly honoured.'

27. It was not without purpose that We created the heavens and the earth and everything in between. That may be what the disbelievers assume—how they will suffer from the Fire! —

28. but would We treat those who believe and do good deeds and those who spread corruption on earth as equal? Would We treat those who are aware of God and those who recklessly break all bounds in the same way?

29. This is a blessed Scripture which We sent down to you [Muhammad], for people to think about its messages, and for those with understanding to take heed.

30. We gave David Solomon. He was an excellent servant who always turned to God.

31. When well-bred light-footed horses were paraded before him near the close of day,

32. he kept saying, 'My love of fine things is part of my remembering my Lord!' until [the horses] disappeared from sight –

33. 'Bring them back!' [he said] and started to stroke their legs and necks.

34. We certainly tested Solomon, reducing him to a mere skeleton on his throne.

35. He turned to Us and prayed: 'Lord forgive me! Grant me such power as no one after me will have— You are the Most Generous Provider.'

36. So We gave him power over the wind, which at his request ran gently wherever he willed,

37. and the jinn – every kind of builder and diver

38. and others chained in fetters.

39. 'This is Our gift, so give or withhold as you wish without account.'

40. His reward will be nearness to Us, and a good place to return to.

41. Bring to mind Our servant Job who cried to his Lord, 'Satan has afflicted me with weariness and suffering.'

42. 'Stamp your foot! Here is cool water for you to wash in and drink,'

43. and We restored his family to him, with many more like them: a sign of Our mercy and a lesson to all who understand.

- 44. 'Take a small bunch of grass in your hand, and strike [her] with that so as not to break your oath.' We found him patient in adversity; an excellent servant! He, too, always turned to God.

- 46. We caused them to be devoted to Us through their sincere remembrance of the Final Home:
- 47. with Us they will be among the elect, the truly good.
- 48. And remember Our servants Ishmael, Elisha, and Dhu 'l-Kifl, each of them truly good.
- 49. This is a lesson. The devout will have a good place to return to:
- 50. Gardens of lasting bliss with gates wide open.
- 51. They will be comfortably seated; they will call for abundant fruit and drink;
- 52. they will have well-matched [wives] with modest gaze.
- 53. 'This is what you are promised for the Day of Reckoning:
- 54. Our provision for you will never end.'
- 55. But the evildoers will have the worst place to return to:
- 56. Hell to burn in, an evil place to stay-
- 57. all this will be theirs: let them taste it—a scalding, dark, foul fluid,
- 58. and other such torments.
- 59. [It will be said], 'Here is another crowd of people rushing headlong to join you.' [The response will be], 'They are not welcome! They will burn in the Fire.'
- 60. They will say to them, 'You are not welcome! It was you who brought this on us, an evil place to stay,'
- 61. adding, 'Our Lord, give double punishment to those who brought this upon us.'

73. The angels all bowed down together,

74. but not Iblis, who was too proud. He became a rebel.

75. God said, 'Iblis, what prevents you from bowing down to the man I have made with My own hands? Are you too high and mighty?'

76. Iblis said, 'I am better than him: You made me from fire, and him from clay.'

2. It is We who sent down the Scripture to you [Prophet] with the Truth, so worship God with your total devotion:

3. true devotion is due to God alone. [As for] those who choose other protectors beside Him, saying, 'We only worship them because they bring us nearer to God,' God Himself will judge between them regarding their differences. God does not guide any ungrateful liar.

4. God could have chosen any of His creation He willed for offspring, but He is far above this! He is the One, the Almighty.

- 7. If you are ungrateful, remember God has no need of you, yet He is not pleased by ingratitude in His servants; if you are grateful, He is pleased [to see] it in you. No soul will bear another's burden. You will return to your Lord in the end and He will inform you of what you have done: He knows well what is in the depths of [your] hearts.

Say, 'Enjoy your ingratitude for a little while: you will be one of the inhabitants of the Fire.'

- 14. when their messengers came to them, from all angles, saying, "Serve no one but God," they said, "If our Lord had wished, He would have sent down angels. We do not believe in the message with which you have been sent."

- 12. The keys of the heavens and the earth are His; He provides abundantly or sparingly for whoever He will; He has full knowledge of all things.
- 13. In matters of faith, He has laid down for you [people] the same commandment that He gave Noah, which We have revealed to you [Muhammad] and which We enjoined on Abraham and Moses and Jesus: 'Uphold the faith and do not divide into factions within it' – what you [Prophet] call upon the idolaters to do is hard for them; God chooses whoever He pleases for Himself and guides towards Himself those who turn to Him.
- 14. They divided, out of rivalry, only after knowledge had come to them, and, if it had not been for a decree already passed by your Lord to reprieve them until an appointed time, they would already have been judged. Those after them, who inherited the Scripture, are in disquieting doubt about it.
- 15. So [Prophet] call people to that faith and follow the straight path as you have been commanded. Do not go by what they desire, but say, 'I believe in whatever Scripture God has sent down. 48. We have not sent you [Prophet] to be their guardian: your only duty is to deliver the message. When We give man a taste of Our mercy, he rejoices in it, but if some harm befalls him on account of what he has done with his own hands, then he is ungrateful.

16. We gave scripture, wisdom, and prophethood to the Children of Israel; We provided them with good things and favored them above others;

17. We gave them clear proof in matters [of religion]. They differed among themselves out of mutual rivalry, only after knowledge came to them: on the Day of Resurrection, your Lord will judge between them regarding their differences.

18. Now We have set you [Muhammad] on a clear religious path, so follow it. Do not follow the desires of those who lack [true] knowledge -

19. they cannot help you against God in any way. Wrongdoers only have each other to protect them; the righteous have God Himself as their protector.

23. [Prophet], consider the one who has taken his own desire as a god, whom God allows to stray in the face of knowledge, sealing his ears and heart and covering his eyes – who can guide such a person after God [has done this]? Will you [people] not take heed?

24. They say, 'There is only our life in this world: we die, we live, nothing but time destroys us.' They have no knowledge of this; they only follow guesswork. Their only argument,

25. When Our clear revelations are recited to them, is to say, 'Bring back our forefathers if what you say is true.'

26. [Prophet], say, 'It is God who gives you life, then causes you to die, and then He gathers you all to the Day of Resurrection of which there is no doubt, though most people do not comprehend.'

27. Control of everything in the heavens and the earth belongs to God. When the Hour comes, those who follow falsehood will be the losers on that Day.

28. You will see every community kneeling. Every community will be summoned to its record: 'Today you will be repaid for what you did.

29. Here is Our record that tells the truth about you: We have been recording everything you do.'

30. Those who believed and did good deeds will be admitted by their Lord into His mercy – that is the clearest triumph –

31. But those who disbelieved [will be asked]: 'When My revelations were recited to you, were you not arrogant and persistent in wicked deeds?

32. When it was said to you, "God's promise is true: there is no doubt about the Hour," did you not reply, "We know nothing of the Hour. This is only conjecture in our opinion. We are not convinced"?'

- 1. God will bring to nothing the deeds of those who disbelieve and bar others from the way of God,
- 2. but He will overlook the bad deeds of those who have faith, do good deeds, and believe in what has been sent down to Muhammad the truth from their Lord and He will put them into a good state.
- 3. This is because the disbelievers follow falsehood, while the believers follow the truth from their Lord. In this way God shows people their true type.
- 4. When you meet the disbelievers in battle, strike them in the neck, and once they are defeated, bind any captives firmly later you can release them by grace or by ransom until the toils of war have ended. That [is the way]. God could have defeated them Himself if He had willed, but His purpose is to test some of you by means of others. He will not let the deeds of those who are killed for His cause come to nothing;
- 5. He will guide them and put them into a good state;
- 6. He will admit them into the Garden He has already made known to them.
- 7. You who believe! If you help God, He will help you and make you stand firm.
- 8. As for the disbelievers, how wretched will be their state! God has brought their deeds to nothing.
- 9. It is because they hate what God has sent down that He has caused their deeds to go to waste.
- 10. Have they not travelled the earth and seen how those before them met their end? God destroyed them utterly: a similar fate awaits the disbelievers.
- 11. That is because God protects the believers while the disbelievers have no one to protect them:

12. God will admit those who believe and do good deeds to Gardens graced with flowing streams; the disbelievers may take their fill of pleasure in this world, and eat as cattle do, but the Fire will be their

13. We have destroyed many a town stronger than your own [Prophet] – the town which [chose to] expel you – and they had no one to help them.

14. Can those who follow clear proof from their Lord be compared to those whose foul deeds are made to seem alluring to them, those who follow their own desires?

15. Here is a picture of the Garden promised to the pious: rivers of water forever pure, rivers of milk forever fresh, rivers of wine, a delight for those who drink, rivers of honey clarified and pure, [all] flow in it; there they will find fruit of every kind; and they will find forgiveness from their Lord. How can this be compared to the fate of those stuck in the Fire, given boiling water to drink that tears their bowels?

16. Some of these people listen to you [Prophet], but, once they leave your presence, they sneer at those who have been given knowledge, saying, 'What was that he just said?' These are the ones whose hearts God has sealed, those who follow their own desires.

17. God has increased the guidance of those who follow the right path and given them their awareness [of Him].

18. What are the disbelievers waiting for, other than the Hour which will come upon them unawares? Its signs are already here, but once the Hour has actually arrived, what use will it be then to take heed?

19. So [Prophet], bear in mind that there is no god but God, and ask forgiveness for your sins and for the sins of believing men and women. God knows whenever any of you move, and whenever any of you stay still.

20. Those who believe ask why no sura [about fighting] has been sent down. Yet when a decisive sura [that mentions fighting] is sent down, you can see the sick at heart looking at you [Prophet] and visibly fainting at the prospect of death – better for them.

TRIUMPH

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. Truly We have opened up a path to clear triumph for you [Prophet],
- 2. so that God may forgive you your past and future sins, complete His grace upon you, guide you to a straight path,
- 3. and help you mightily.
- 4. It was He who made His tranquillity descend into the hearts of the believers, to add faith to their faith – the forces of the heavens and earth belong to God; He is all knowing and all wise –
- 5. so as to admit believing men and women into Gardens graced with flowing streams, there to remain, absolving their bad deeds – a great triumph in God's eyes –
- 6. and to torment the hypocritical and idolatrous men and women who harbour evil thoughts about God - it is they who will be encircled by evil! – who carry the burden of God's anger, whom God has rejected and for whom He has prepared Hell, an evil destination!
- 7. The forces of heaven and earth belong to God; He is almighty and all wise.
- 8. We have sent you [Prophet] to bring good news and to give warning,
- 9. so that you [people] may believe in God and His Messenger, support Him, honour Him, and praise Him morning and evening.

29. Muhammad is the Messenger of God. Those who follow him are harsh towards the disbelievers and compassionate towards each other. You see them kneeling and prostrating, seeking God's bounty and His good pleasure: on their faces they bear the marks of their prostrations. This is how they are pictured in the Torah and the Gospel: like a seed that puts forth its shoot, becomes strong, grows thick, and rises on its stem to the delight of its sowers. So God infuriates the disbelievers through them; God promises forgiveness and a great reward to those who believe and do righteous deeds.

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. Believers, do not push yourselves forward in the presence of God and His Messenger - be mindful of God: He hears and knows all -
- 2. Believers, do not raise your voices above the Prophet's, do not raise your voice when speaking to him as you do to one another, or your [good] deeds may be cancelled out without you knowing.
- 3. It is those who lower their voices in the presence of God's Messenger whose hearts God has proved to be aware – they will have forgiveness, and a great reward –
- 4. But most of those who shout to you [Prophet] from outside your private rooms lack understanding.

- 5. It would have been better for them if they had waited patiently for you to come out to them, but God is all-forgiving and merciful.
- 6. Believers, if a troublemaker brings you news, check it first, in case you wrong others unwittingly and later regret what you have done,
- 7. and be aware that it is God's Messenger who is among you: in many matters you would certainly suffer if he were to follow your wishes. God has endeared faith to you and made it beautiful to your hearts; He has made disbelief, mischief, and disobedience hateful to you. It is people like this who are rightly guided
- 8. through God's favour and blessing: God is all-knowing and allwise.
- 9. If two groups of believers fight, you [believers] should try to reconcile them; if one of them is [clearly] oppressing the other, fight the oppressors until they submit to God's command, then make a just and even-handed reconciliation between the two of them: God loves those who are even-handed.
- 10. The believers are brothers, so make peace between your two brothers and be mindful of God, so that you may be given mercy.
- 11. Believers, no one group of men should jeer at another, who may after all be better than them; no one group of women should jeer at another, who may after all be better than them; do not speak ill of one another; do not use offensive nicknames for one another. How bad it is to be called a mischief-maker after accepting faith! Those who do not repent of this behaviour are evildoers.

- 12. Believers, avoid making too many assumptions some assumptions are sinful and do not spy on one another or speak ill of people behind their backs: would any of you like to eat the flesh of your dead brother? No, you would hate it. So be mindful of God: God is ever relenting, most merciful.

QAF

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. Qaf, By the glorious Qur'an!
- 2. But the disbelievers are amazed that a warner has come from among them and they say, 'How strange!
- 3. To come back [to life] after we have died and become dust? That is too far-fetched.'
- 4. We know very well what the earth takes away from them: We keep a comprehensive record.
- 5. But the disbelievers deny the truth when it comes to them; they are in a state of confusion.
- 6. Do they not see the sky above them—how We have built and adorned it, with no rifts in it;
- 7. How We spread out the earth and put solid mountains on it, and caused every kind of joyous plant to grow in it,
- 8. As a lesson and reminder for every servant who turns to God;
- 9. And how We send blessed water down from the sky and grow with it gardens, the harvest grain,
- 10. And tall palm trees laden with clusters of dates,
- 11. As a provision for everyone; how with water We give [new] life to a land that is dead? This is how the dead will emerge [from their graves].
- 12. The people of Noah disbelieved long before these disbelievers, as did the people of Rass, Thamud,
- 13. 'Ad, Pharaoh, Lot,
- 14. The Forest-Dwellers, Tubba': all of these people disbelieved their messengers, and so My warning was realized.
- 15. So were We incapable of the first creation? No indeed! Yet they doubt a second creation.

- 41. There is another sign in the 'Ad: We sent the life-destroying wind against them
- 42. And it reduced everything it came up against to shreds.
- 43. And also in the Thamud: it was said to them, 'Make the most of your lives for a while,'
- 44. But they rebelled against their Lord's command, so the blast took them. They looked on helplessly:
- 45. They could not even remain standing, let alone defend themselves.
- 46. Before that We destroyed the people of Noah. They were a truly sinful people!
- 47. We built the heavens with Our power and made them vast,
- 48. We spread out the earth how well We smoothed it out! –
- 49. And We created pairs of all things so that you [people] might take note.
- 50. [So, say to them, Prophet], 'Quickly, turn to God I am sent by Him to give you clear warning –
- 51. And do not set up any other god alongside Him. I am sent by Him to give you clear warning!'

- 18. Are you to have the male and He the female? That would be a most unjust distribution!
- 19. These are nothing but names you have invented yourselves, you and your forefathers.
- 20. God has sent no authority for them. These people merely follow guesswork and the whims of their souls, even though guidance has come to them from their Lord.
- 21. Is man to have everything he wishes for when the present life and the life to come belong only to God?
- 22. There are many angels in heaven whose intercession will be of no use until God gives permission to those He will, whose words He will accept.
- 23. Indeed, it is God who knows what lies before them and what is hidden from them.
- 24. Everything in the heavens and the earth belongs to God, and to God all things will return.

- - 27. Those who deny the life to come give the angels female names.

 - 29. So [Prophet] ignore those who turn away from Our revelation, who want only the life of this world.
 - 30. Their knowledge does not go beyond that. Your Lord knows best who strays from His path and who follows guidance.
 - 31. Everything in the heavens and earth belongs to God. He will repay those who do evil according to their deeds, and reward, with what is best, those who do good.
 - 32. As for those who avoid grave sins and foul acts, though they may commit small sins, your Lord is ample in forgiveness. He has been aware of you from the time He produced you from the earth and from your hiding places in your mothers' wombs, so do not assert your own goodness.
 - 33. [Prophet], consider that man who turned away:
 - 34. He only gave a little and then he stopped.

4. It was He who created the heavens and earth in six Days and then established Himself on the throne. He knows what enters the earth and what comes out of it; what descends from the sky and what ascends to it. He is with you wherever you are; He sees all that you do;

5. Control of the heavens and earth belongs to Him. Everything is brought back to God.

6. He makes night merge into day and day into night. He knows what is in every heart.

7. Believe in God and His Messenger, and give out of what He has made pass down to you: those of you who believe and give will have a great reward.

8. Why should you not believe in God when the Messenger calls you to believe in your Lord, and He has already made a pledge with you, if you have faith?

9. It is He who has sent down clear revelations to His Servant, so that He may bring you from the depths of darkness into light; God is truly kind and merciful to you.

10. Why should you not give for God's cause when God alone will inherit what is in the heavens and earth? Those who gave and fought before the triumph are not like others: they are greater in rank than those who gave and fought afterwards. But God has promised a good reward to all of them: God is fully aware of all that you do.

11. Who will make God a good loan? He will double it for him and reward him generously.

- 13. On the same Day, the hypocrites, both men and women, will say to the believers, 'Wait for us! Let us have some of your light!' They will be told, 'Go back and look for a light.' A wall with a door will be erected between them: inside it lies mercy, outside lies torment.
- 14. The hypocrites will call out to the believers, 'Were we not with you?' They will reply, 'Yes. But you allowed yourselves to be tempted, you were hesitant, doubtful, deceived by false hopes until God's command came—the Deceiver tricked you about God.
- 15. Today no ransom will be accepted from you or from the disbelievers: your home is the Fire—that is where you belong—a miserable destination!'
- 16. Is it not time for believers to humble their hearts to the remembrance of God and the Truth that has been revealed, and not to be like those who received the Scripture before them, whose time was extended but whose hearts hardened and many of whom were lawbreakers?
- 17. Remember that God revives the earth after it dies; We have made Our revelation clear to you so that you may use your reason.

19. Those who believe in God and His messengers are the truthful ones who will bear witness before their Lord: they will have their reward and their light. But those who disbelieve and deny Our revelations are the inhabitants of Hell.

20. Bear in mind that the present life is just a game, a diversion, an attraction, a cause of boasting among you, of rivalry in wealth and children. It is like plants that spring up after the rain: their growth at first delights the sowers, but then you see them wither away, turn yellow, and become stubble. There is terrible punishment in the next life as well as forgiveness and approval from God; the life of this world is only an illusory pleasure.

21. So race for your Lord's forgiveness and a Garden as wide as the heavens and earth, prepared for those who believe in God and His messengers: that is God's bounty, which He bestows on whoever He pleases. God's bounty is infinite.

22. No misfortune can happen, either in the earth or in yourselves, that was not set down in writing before We brought it into being—that is easy for God—

23. So you need not grieve for what you miss or gloat over what you gain.

24. God does not love the conceited, the boastful, those who are miserly, and who tell other people to be miserly. If anyone turns away, remember that God is self-sufficient and worthy of praise.

25. We sent Our messengers with clear signs, the Scripture, and the Balance, so that people could uphold justice. We also sent iron, with its mighty strength and many uses for mankind, so that God could mark out those who would help Him and His messengers, though they cannot see Him. Truly, God is powerful, almighty.

- 26. We sent Noah and Abraham and gave prophethood and scripture to their offspring. Among them, there were some who were rightly guided, but many were lawbreakers.
- 27. We sent other messengers to follow in their footsteps. After those, We sent Jesus, son of Mary. We gave him the Gospel and put compassion and mercy into the hearts of his followers. But monasticism was something they invented We did not ordain it for them only to seek God's pleasure, and even so, they did not observe it properly. So We gave a reward to those of them who believed, but many of them were lawbreakers.
- 28. Believers, be mindful of God and have faith in His Messenger. He will give you a double share of His mercy; He will provide a light to help you walk; He will forgive you God is most forgiving, most merciful.
- 29. The People of the Book should know that they have no power over any of God's grace, and that grace is in the hand of God alone. He gives it to whoever He will. God's grace is truly immense.

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. God has heard the words of the woman who disputed with you, [Prophet], about her husband and complained to God. God has heard what you both had to say. He is all-hearing, all-seeing.
- 2. Even if any of you say to their wives, 'You are to me like my mother's back,' they are not their mothers; their only mothers are those who gave birth to them. What they say is certainly blameworthy and false, but God is pardoning and forgiving.
- 3. Those of you who say such a thing to their wives, then go back on what they have said, must free a slave before the couple may touch one another again – this is what you are commanded to do, and God is fully aware of what you do.
- 4. But anyone who does not have the means should fast continuously for two months before they touch each other, and anyone unable to do this should feed sixty needy people. This is so that you may [truly] have faith in God and His Messenger. These are the bounds set by God: grievous torment awaits those who ignore them.
- 5. Those who oppose God and His Messenger will be brought low, like those before them. We have revealed clear messages, and humiliating torment awaits those who ignore them.
- 6. On the Day when God will raise everyone and make them aware of what they have done. God has taken account of it all, though they may have forgotten. He witnesses everything.

7. Do you not see, [Prophet], that God knows everything in the heavens and earth? There is no secret conversation between three people where He is not the fourth, nor between five where He is not the sixth, nor between less or more than that without Him being with them, wherever they may be. On the Day of Resurrection, He will show them what they have done: God truly has full knowledge of everything.

- 8. Have you not seen how those who have been forbidden to hold secret conversations go back afterward and hold them, and conspire with one another in what is sinful, hostile, and disobedient to the Messenger? When they come to you, they greet you with words God has never used to greet you, and say inwardly, 'Why does God not punish us for what we say?' Hell will be punishment enough for them: they will burn there—an evil destination.
- 9. You who believe, when you converse in secret, do not do so in a way that is sinful, hostile, and disobedient to the Messenger, but in a way that is good and mindful [of God]. Be mindful of God, to whom you will all be gathered.
- 10. [Any other kind of] secret conversation is the work of Satan, designed to cause trouble to the believers, though it cannot harm them in the least unless God permits it. Let the believers put their trust in God.
- 11. You who believe, if you are told to make room for one another in your assemblies, then do so, and God will make room for you, and if you are told to rise up, do so: God will raise up, by many degrees, those of you who believe and those who have been given knowledge. He is fully aware of what you do.

- 1. You who believe, do not take My enemies and yours as your allies, showing them friendship when they have rejected the truth you have received, and have driven you and the Messenger out simply because you believe in God, your Lord. Not if you truly emigrated in order to strive for My cause and seek My good pleasure. You secretly show them friendship - I know all you conceal and all you reveal – but any of you who do this are straying from the right path.
- 2. If they gain the upper hand over you, they will revert to being your enemies and stretch out their hands and tongues to harm you; it is their dearest wish that you may renounce your faith.
- 3. Neither your kinsfolk nor your children will be any use to you on the Day of Resurrection: He will separate you out. God sees everything you do.
- 4. You have a good example in Abraham and his companions when they said to their people, 'We disown you and what you worship besides God! We renounce you! Until you believe in God alone, the enmity and hatred that has arisen between us will endure!' – except when Abraham said to his father, 'I will pray for forgiveness for you though I cannot protect you from God.'
- 5. 'Lord, we have put our trust in You; we turn to You; You are our final destination. Lord, do not expose us to mistreatment [at the hands of] the disbelievers. Forgive us, Lord, for You are the Almighty, the All-Wise.'

- 9. But God forbids you to take as allies those who have fought against you for your faith, driven you out of your homes, and helped others to drive you out: any of you who take them as allies will truly be wrongdoers.
- 10. You who believe, test the believing women when they come to you as emigrants – God knows best about their faith – and if you are sure of their belief, do not send them back to the disbelievers: they are not lawful wives for them, nor are the disbelievers their lawful husbands. Give the disbelievers whatever bride-gifts they have paid – if you choose to marry them, there is no blame on you once you have paid their bride-gifts – and do not yourselves hold on to marriage ties with disbelieving women. Ask for repayment of the bride-gifts you have paid, and let the disbelievers do the same. This is God's judgment: He judges between you; God is all-knowing and wise.
- 11. If any of you have wives who leave you for the disbelievers, and if your community subsequently acquires [gains] from them, then pay those whose wives have deserted them the equivalent of whatever bride-gift they paid. Be mindful of God, in whom you believe.

THE DAY OF CONGREGATION

🌺 Juzu' 28

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. Everything in the heavens and earth glorifies God, the Controller, the Holy One, the Almighty, the Wise.
- 2. He raised a messenger among the people who had no Scripture, to recite His revelations to them, to make them grow spiritually, and teach them the Scripture and wisdom. Before that, they were clearly astray.
- 3. This messenger is sent to them and others yet to join them. He is the Almighty, the Wise.
- 4. God's favor is immense, granted to whoever He wills.
- 5. Those who have been charged to obey the Torah but do not do so are like asses carrying books. Evil is the similitude of people who falsify the Signs of God: God does not guide people who do wrong.
- 6. Say [Prophet], 'You who follow the Jewish faith, if you truly claim that out of all people you alone are friends of God, then you should be hoping for death.'
- 7. But because of what they have stored up for themselves with their own hands, they would never hope for death. God knows the wrongdoers very well.
- 8. So say, 'The death you run away from will come to meet you, and you will be returned to the One who knows the unseen as well as the seen. He will tell you everything you have done.'

9. Believers! When the call to prayer is made on the day of congregation, hurry towards the reminder of God and leave off your trading – that is better for you, if only you knew –

- 2. They use their oaths as a cover and so bar others from God's way: what they have been doing is truly evil –
- 3. Because they professed faith and then rejected it, so their hearts have been sealed and they do not understand.
- 4. When you see them [Prophet], their outward appearance pleases you; when they speak, you listen to what they say. But they are like propped-up timbers they think every cry they hear is against them and they are the enemy. Beware of them. May God confound them! How devious they are!

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. Prophet, when any of you intend to divorce women, do so at a time when their prescribed waiting period can properly start, and calculate the period carefully: be mindful of God, your Lord. Do not drive them out of their homes – nor should they themselves leave - unless they commit a flagrant indecency. These are the limits set by God – whoever oversteps God's limits wrongs his own soul – for you cannot know what new situation God may perhaps bring about.
- 2. When they have completed their appointed term, either keep them honourably, or part with them honourably. Call two just witnesses from your people and establish witness for the sake of God. Anyone who believes in God and the Last Day should heed this: God will find a way out for those who are mindful of Him,
- 3. and will provide for them from an unexpected source; God will be enough for those who put their trust in Him. God achieves His purpose; God has set a due measure for everything.
- 4. If you are in doubt, the period of waiting will be three months for those women who have ceased menstruating and for those who have not [yet] menstruated; the waiting period of those who are pregnant will be until they deliver their burden: God makes things easy for those who are mindful of Him.
- 5. This is God's command, which He has sent down to you. God will wipe out the sinful deeds and increase the rewards of anyone who is mindful of Him.

- 6. House the wives you are divorcing according to your means, wherever you house yourselves, and do not harass them so as to make their lives difficult. If they are pregnant, maintain them until they are delivered of their burdens; if they suckle your infants, pay them for it. Consult together in a good way - if you make difficulties for one another, another woman may suckle the child for the father -
- 7. and let the wealthy man spend according to his wealth. But let him whose provision is restricted spend according to what God has given him: God does not burden any soul with more than He has given it – after hardship, God will bring ease.
- 8. Many a town that insolently opposed the command of its Lord and His messengers We have brought sternly to account: We punished them severely
- 9. to make them taste the ill effect of their conduct the result of their conduct was ruin.
- 10. God has prepared a severe torment for them. So, you who have understanding, you who believe, beware of God. He has sent you the Qur'an
- 11. and a messenger reciting to you God's revelations that make things clear – to bring those who believe and do righteous deeds from darkness into light. God will admit those who believe in Him and do righteous deeds into Gardens graced with flowing streams, where they will remain for ever - He has made good provision for them.
- 12. It is God who created seven heavens and a similar [number] of earths. His command descends throughout them. So, you should realize that He has power over all things and that His knowledge encompasses everything.

- 1. Prophet, why do you prohibit what God has made lawful to you in your desire to please your wives? Yet God is forgiving and merciful:
- 2. He has ordained a way for you [believers] to release you from [such] oaths – God is your helper: He is the All Knowing, the Wise.
- 3. The Prophet told something in confidence to one of his wives. When she disclosed it [to another wife] and God made this known to him, he confirmed part of it, keeping the rest to himself. When he confronted her with what she had done, she asked, 'Who told you about this?' and he replied, 'The All Knowing, the All Aware told me.'
- 4. If both of you [wives] repent to God for your hearts have deviated - [all will be well]; if you collaborate against him, [be warned that God will aid him, as will Gabriel and all righteous believers, and the angels too will back him.
- 5. His Lord may well replace you with better wives if the Prophet decides to divorce any of you: wives who are devoted to God, true believers, devout, who turn to Him in repentance and worship Him, given to fasting, whether previously married or virgins.
- 6. Believers, guard yourselves and your families against a Fire fuelled by people and stones, over which stand angels, stern and strong; angels who never disobey God's commands to them, but do as they are ordered:
- 7. You who disbelieve, make no excuses today: you are only being repaid for what you used to do.'

17. We have tried them as We tried the owners of a certain garden, who swore that they would harvest its fruits in the morning

18. And made no allowance [for the Will of God]:

19. A disaster from your Lord struck the garden as they slept

20. And by morning, it was stripped bare, a desolate land.

21. Still, they called each other at daybreak,

22. 'Go early to your field if you wish to gather all its fruits,'

23. And went off, whispering,

24. 'Make sure no poor person enters the garden today!' -

25. They left early, bent on their purpose -

26. But when they saw the garden, they said, 'We must have lost our way!

27. No – we are ruined!'

28. The wisest of them said, 'Did I not say to you, "Will you not glorify God?"' –

29. They said, 'Glory be to God, Our Lord! Truly, we were doing wrong!'

30. And then they turned to each other in mutual reproach.

31. They said, 'Alas for us! We have done terrible wrong,

32. But maybe our Lord will give us something better in its place: we truly turn to Him in hope.'

33. Such is the punishment [in this life], but greater still is the punishment in the Hereafter, if only they knew.

34. There will be Gardens of bliss for those who are mindful of God.

35. Should We treat those who submit to Us as We treat those who do evil?

36. What is the matter with you? On what basis do you judge?

37. Do you have a Scripture that tells you

38. That you will be granted whatever you choose?

39. Have you received from Us solemn oaths, binding to the Day of Resurrection, that you will get whatever you yourselves decide?

40. Ask them [Prophet] which of them will guarantee this.

41. Do they have 'partners' [besides God]? Let them produce their 'partners,' if what they say is true.

42. On the Day when matters become dire, they will be invited to prostrate themselves but will be prevented from doing so.

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. Say [Prophet], 'It has been revealed to me that a group of jinn once listened in and said, "We have heard a wondrous Qur'an,
- 2. That gives guidance to the right path, and we have come to believe it We shall never set up partners with our Lord –
- 3. And that He exalted be the glory of our Lord! has neither spouse nor child.
- 4. Outrageous things have been said about God by the foolish among us,
- 5. Although we had thought that no man or jinn would [dare to] tell a lie about Him.
- 6. Men have sought refuge with the jinn in the past, but they only misguided them further.
- 7. They thought, as you did, that God would never raise anyone from the dead.
- 8. We tried to reach heaven, but discovered it to be full of stern guards and shooting stars –
- 9. We used to sit in places there, listening, but anyone trying to listen now will find a shooting star lying in wait for him –
- 10. [So now] we do not know whether those who live on earth are due for misfortune, or whether their Lord intends to guide them.
- 11. Some of us are righteous and others less so: we follow different paths.
- 12. We know we can never frustrate God on earth; we can never escape Him.
- 13. When we heard the guidance we came to believe: whoever believes in his Lord needs fear no loss nor injustice.

- 1. You [Prophet], enfolded in your cloak!
- 2. Stay up throughout the night, all but a small part of it,
- 3. Half, or a little less,
- 4. Or a little more; recite the Qur'an slowly and distinctly:
- 5. We shall send a momentous message down to you.
- 6. Night prayer makes a deeper impression and sharpens words –
- 7. You are kept busy for long periods of the day –
- 8. So celebrate the name of your Lord and devote yourself wholeheartedly to Him.
- 9. He is Lord of the east and west, there is no god but Him, so take Him as your Protector,
- 10. Patiently endure what they say, ignore them politely,
- 11. And leave to Me those who deny the truth and live in luxury. Bear with them for a little while;
- 12. We have fetters, a blazing fire,
- 13. Food that chokes, and agonizing torment in store for them
- 14. On the Day when the earth and the mountains will shake. The mountains will become a heap of loose sand.
- 15. We have sent a messenger to you [people] to be your witness, just as We sent a messenger to Pharaoh,
- 16. But Pharaoh disobeyed the messenger and so We inflicted a heavy punishment on him.
- 17. So if you disbelieve, how can you guard yourselves against a Day that will turn children's hair grey,
- 18. A Day when the sky will be torn apart? God's promise will certainly be fulfilled.
- 19. This is a reminder. Let whoever wishes take the way to his Lord.

20. [Prophet], your Lord is well aware that you sometimes spend nearly two-thirds of the night at prayer - sometimes half, sometimes a third – as do some of your followers. God determines the division of night and day. He knows that you will not be able to keep a measure of it and He has relented towards all of you, so recite as much of the Qur'an as is easy for you. He knows that some of you will be sick, some of you travelling through the land seeking God's bounty, some of you fighting in God's way: recite as much as is easy for you, keep up the prayer, pay the prescribed alms, and make God a good loan. Whatever good you store up for yourselves will be improved and increased for you. Ask God for His forgiveness, He is most forgiving, most merciful.

In the name of God, the Lord of Mercy, the Giver of Mercy

- 1. You, wrapped in your cloak, 2. Arise and give warning!
- 3. Proclaim the greatness of your Lord;
- 4. Cleanse yourself; 5. Keep away from all filth;
- 6. Do not be overwhelmed and weaken;
- 7. Be steadfast in your Lord's cause. 8. When the Trumpet sounds,
- 9. That will be a Day of anguish for the disbelievers.
- 10. They will have no ease.
- 11. [Prophet], leave Me to deal with the one I created helpless,
- 12. Then gave vast wealth,
- 13. And sons by his side,
- 14. Making everything easy for him –
- 15. Yet he still hopes I will give him more.
- 16. No! He has been stubbornly hostile to Our revelation:
- 17. I will inflict a spiralling torment on him.
